SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

October 15, 1966

Milwaukee LCN leader scheduled for income tax trial October 17, 1966, in Springfield, Illinois. Motion filed by defendant requesting hearing with respect to microphone found by defendant in August, 1965, when he vacated office space at 2641 North Downer, Milwaukee. Motion notes Internal Revenue Service special agent in Milwaukee Federal Court testified in case pertaining to Balistrieri's girlfriend that he occupied apartment in vicinity and spied on this woman which defendant contends is consistent with use of electronic devices. Motion also points out IRS has admitted in Senate committee use of these devices and Department of Justice has admitted use of this device by IRS in tax investigations. No mention of FBI in motion.

It is noted coverage maintained by the Bureau on Balistrieri and of which we have advised the Department of Justice was maintained at 2559 North Downer and not at 2641 North Downer.

United States Attorney Brennan, who is handling trial, indicates no concern as a result of motion. That he is not using any data from this area of investigation in establishing violation by Balistrieri. Milwaukee and Springfield Offices are being instructed to follow matter closely.

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

This is to confirm information provided in response to Assistant Attorney General Rogovin's questions of October 25, 1966, in connection with the coverage maintained on Balistrieri during the period of March 9, 1964, to June 3, 1965.

During the pertinent period there were as many as five leased lines maintained by the Milwaukee Office in both the criminal and security fields. There are no handwritten notes of the monitoring in the Balistrieri matter.

The liaison with the telephone company in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was handled by Special Agent [redacted] who is presently assigned in the Milwaukee Office.

It is noted that copies of all of our investigative reports in the captioned matter have been provided to the Department. It was pointed out in our memorandum of October 7, 1966, that information obtained from microphone surveillances was set forth in a number of reports and that in addition, microphone information concerning [redacted]

[redacted] resulted in an investigation by the Bureau and the reports concerning our inquiry have been furnished to both the Department and to Internal Revenue Service. In view of the fact that reports of our investigation of Balistrieri contain significant information concerning investigative techniques, as well as information obtained from well-placed informants in the Milwaukee area, it would appear inadvisable to provide these reports to defense counsel as it might jeopardize the well being of informants still in place.

Mr. Rogovin indicated that defense counsel had expressed an interest in determining what prompted the Bureau to notify the Department's Tax Division of our Balistrieri coverage on September 29, 1966. In answer to this question, it is pointed out that Assistant Attorney General Vinson, by memorandum September 27, 1966, indicated to the Bureau that the Department had been confronted with serious problems concerning prospective or continued prosecution of individuals who have been the subject of electronic coverage. Mr. Vinson indicated the Department was interested in knowing when electronic surveillances were used. Mr. Vinson specifically mentioned several tax cases in this regard.

It is noted that as a follow up to this memorandum, the Bureau on September 29, 1966, advised the Attorney General of our prior electronic surveillance on Balistreri.

With respect to the material acquired by our Milwaukee Office from [redacted] it has been ascertained that all of this material was turned over to the court in Springfield, Illinois, and that no other records exist nor are there any negatives or extra copies of these records available.

With respect to the installation and monitoring of the [redacted] and Balistreri sources, it is noted that details in this regard were provided the Department by memorandum October 7, 1966. The authority for the establishment of these sources is the same as is outlined in the material furnished to the Department for use in the Black case.

In P.M. of 10/13/66 SAC, Milwaukee, was telephonically contacted by retired SA [redacted] Governor's Commission on Law Enforcement and Crime, Madison, Wis. [redacted] advised he had just received call from IRS agent [redacted] (phonetic), Madison, Wis., who advised he had been requested to locate [redacted] in order that a subpoena could be issued for [redacted] appearance in IRS trial re FRANK BALISTRERI, now under way in Springfield, Ill. [redacted] advised he had read accounts of the case in the newspapers and understood that the defense was attempting to obtain testimony re any monitoring in connection with BALISTRERI or his associates. [redacted] advised he could not at this time recall any participation on his part in monitoring activities in the FBI investigation of BALISTRERI, but did recall that he manned a lookout for a period on [redacted].

[redacted] He stated he would advise SAC, Milwaukee, of any further contact re the subpoena.

b7C

[redacted] called back shortly thereafter to advise SAC, Milwaukee, that an Agent [redacted] (phonetic), IRS, had just called from Springfield, Ill. [redacted] advised they had had [redacted] IRS agent, on the stand and [redacted] had been forced to name all individuals he knew who had any connection with any monitoring re BALISTRERI and [redacted] had named [redacted] JOHN A. HOLTZMAN, (SA, retired), and some others, not recalled at the moment by [redacted]. [redacted] advised him that the USA would be calling him as the defense would be subpoenaing him, [redacted] to ask him questions concerning bugging devices.

b6
b7C

Shortly thereafter [redacted] again called SAC, Milwaukee, to advise that [redacted] Regional Counsel, IRS, had just called him from Springfield, Ill. He stated [redacted] indicated the reason for calling [redacted] as a witness was based on information which the Justice Dept. received from the FBI several days ago concerning 3 bugging devices. [redacted] advised the Dept. had decided to turn over all their information to the court at Springfield and had furnished the prosecution with FBI and IRS information. According to [redacted] the information was originally disclosed in a pre-trial conference at which were present all of the defense and prosecution attorneys who examined the information at the in camera conference and were all sworn to secrecy concerning the information. DIAS indicated that after the conference it was decided that the Govt. would go into open court and bring out all of the evidence in order to determine if the testimony in the IRS case should be suppressed. DIAS indicated the Govt. would show the sources of all their evidence.

According to [redacted] advised that he, [redacted] would be questioned concerning the period 1930 to June, 1932, when [redacted] retired from the FBI. He would be asked: (1), whether he had ever installed any monitoring devices concerning BALISTIERI. [redacted] stated he would answer "no" to such question. (2) Whether he knows of any monitoring or listening devices concerning BALISTIERI or his associates. [redacted] stated he would have to answer that he recalled manning a monitoring device concerning [redacted] on a few occasions and for a period, dates not recalled, manning a lookout on her apartment located at that address. (3) He would be asked concerning exchange of information between the FBI and IRS concerning the BALISTIERI matter. [redacted] stated he would have to testify that he recalled information was exchanged with IRS and that he recalled a few oral conferences with IRS agents, one of whom he believes was [redacted] but has no specific recollection of items exchanged nor of any written exchange of correspondence or otherwise.

b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] further advised him that the IRS agents have now testified openly in court and had divulged the names of a half-dozen FBI agents, names not at the moment recalled, other than JOHN A. HOLTZMAN and himself. At this point, according to [redacted] USA JAMES B. BRENNAN, EDV, had come on the line to [redacted] advised him generally the same as [redacted] had, and further stated that several other FBI agents or ex-agents would be called to testify, and that retired FBI SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN would definitely be called. [redacted] stated he asked USA BRENNAN whether the defense was calling him or the Govt., since if the defense were calling him he would not go until a subpoena was received. USA BRENNAN advised him he was being called by the Govt. Therefore [redacted] advised USA BRENNAN that he would accede to his request and would appear in court by 10 a.m. 10/19/66.

Subsequently, USA JAMES B. BRENNAN telephonically contacted SAC, Milwaukee, from Springfield, Ill. USA BRENNAN advised that SA [redacted] SE [redacted] and SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE would be needed to testify on the a.m. of 10/19/66. He advised the Dept. was being contacted and request would come through the Bureau shortly. He also desired assistance in contacting retired SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON and retired SA ALEXANDER P. LE GRAND, who were also being subpoenaed. USA BRENNAN advised that retired SAs [redacted] and JOHN A. HOLTZMAN had already been subpoenaed to appear.

Information concerning the telephone numbers and current addresses of retired SAs THOMPSON and LE GRAND was obtained and furnished telephonically to USA BRENNAN. He was advised this data was being furnished to him in the event he or his staff desired to contact these retired SAs in connection with the case. No action has been taken by FBI, Milwaukee, to contact THOMPSON or LE GRAND.

It is noted that the name of SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE does not appear in the list of names furnished above from logs in the Milwaukee Office. Available information shows that SA MC ARDLE was the case agent in the FRANK BALISTRERI, AR, case prior to JOHN A. HOLTZMAN.

As of the time of the preparation of instant airtel, Milwaukee Office was awaiting word from Bureau as to whether SAs [redacted] and MC ARDLE and SE [redacted] should proceed to Springfield, Ill. to testify.

It has come to our attention that the captioned individual of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is the subject of an Internal Revenue Service case.

This is to advise you that we had an electronic surveillance on Balistreri during the period from March, 1964, to June, 1965, in connection with our investigation concerning his racketeering activities.

It is understood that the information received from this coverage was not disseminated to the Internal Revenue Service and, therefore, has not been used as a basis for the investigation of Balistreri by that service. Information obtained from this surveillance is available for review by Department representatives.

La Cosa Nostra leader in Milwaukee, Balistrieri, has been the subject of investigation by the Internal Revenue Service and is currently under indictment on charges of violating Internal Revenue Service laws. Trial on this matter has been set for the middle of next month in Springfield, Illinois.

On the basis of information that Balistrieri was holding meetings of La Cosa Nostra members in his office located at the Continental Music Sales Company, 2559 North Downer Street, Milwaukee, a microphone surveillance was instituted March 9, 1964, on this office in order to develop information as to La Cosa Nostra activities and operations in the Milwaukee area. Limited information was obtained from this source inasmuch as Balistrieri's meetings with associates were held on an infrequent basis and as a result the coverage was discontinued on June 3, 1965. REC-67 92-3116-407

Milwaukee has advised that none of the information received from the microphone on Balistrieri was furnished to the Internal Revenue Service or is known to have been the basis for Internal Revenue Service investigation into Balistrieri's activities.

RECOMMENDATION:

6 NOV 17 1966

In view of the Department's request to be advised of the existence of any situation involving anticipated prosecution where there has been microphone coverage, it is recommended that the attached letter go forward to the Attorney General advising that we did have microphone coverage on Balistrieri in order that, if desired, the Department can review the material obtained from this coverage in advance of the trial. The United States Attorney at Milwaukee will also be advised.

On September 29, 1966, we advised the Attorney General of microphone coverage on Balistrieri and in the attached memorandum, Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin of the Tax Division, requests information regarding listening devices installed on the subject, who is scheduled for trial in an income tax case this month.

_____ and any other persons connected with operations of various Balistrieri enterprises in Milwaukee.

Balistrieri is the La Cosa Nostra leader of organized crime activities in the Milwaukee area and controls all rackets in the area, taking his orders from underworld leader Sam Giancana of Chicago. We have investigated Balistrieri and furnished reports to the Department in an Anti-Racketeering case and on the basis of information that he was holding meetings of La Cosa Nostra members in his office at 2559 North Downer Avenue, Milwaukee, a microphone surveillance was instituted there on March 9, 1964, to cover these activities. Limited information was obtained and as a result the coverage was discontinued on June 3, 1965. None of the information received from the microphone was furnished to the Internal Revenue Service or was known to have been the basis of that service's investigation relative to Balistrieri.

In connection with Balistrieri's activities, we also had microphone coverage on _____

_____ We conducted a bribery investigation of this in which the United States Attorney declined prosecution. Copies of reports in the bribery case were furnished to the Department and Internal Revenue Service.

[ ] Both of these items of information were furnished to the Internal Revenue Service by our Milwaukee Office.

In an unrelated matter, we also had microphone coverage on the office of Dominic Frinzi, a hoodlum-oriented Milwaukee WISQ attorney, who has in the past represented Balistrieri, from April 22, 1963, through October 2, 1963. He was a close associate of leading Milwaukee hoodlums, including Balistrieri, but coverage on him was established primarily in an effort to develop information in our investigation into the murder, January 7, 1963, of Anthony Biernat, Wisconsin juke box operator. This source provided only a few items of miscellaneous information relative to Balistrieri, none of which was disseminated to Internal Revenue Service.

In his letter, Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin asks to be informed concerning any conversations monitored with reference to persons connected with the operations of the various Balistrieri business enterprises. Our coverage on Frinzi was made in connection with an entirely different matter and under no stretch of the imagination could Frinzi be construed as being connected with "the operations of the various Balistrieri business enterprises."

In addition, in the present climate, the disclosure that we had microphone coverage on the attorney regardless of whether it was pertinent or not would only result in the Department volunteering this information to the court with resultant public embarrassment for the Bureau. It is pointed out that our Milwaukee Office, after a review of the Frinzi logs, has advised there is no conversation in these logs pertaining to Balistrieri's tax case.

Logs reflecting information received from the microphone source on Balistrieri have been forwarded to the Bureau by Milwaukee and are presently available for review by Department representatives.

Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

Milwaukee has also submitted copies of pertinent airtels, letters and other communications containing information received from the coverage on [ ] which can also be made available to Departmental attorneys, it being noted the logs were destroyed shortly after this source was discontinued.

ACTION:

If you approve, there is attached a letter furnishing the Department requested details of the coverage on Balistrieri and Alioto and advising that the logs and other communications prepared from information received on this coverage are available at the Bureau for inspection by Department attorneys. It is also recommended that we take the position that Agents will not be made available to testify in connection with our coverage, in the event in camera inspection of Bureau documents is made by the court.

It is recommended that we do not volunteer information to the Department of the coverage on attorney Frinzi inasmuch as this installation was made in connection with another case and only minor information of an incidental nature was received over it relative to Balistrieri.

court. As set forth in the docket, on 4/18/63 the court granted a motion for return of the property seized in the execution of the search warrant. However, the court stated that the motion for suppression of the use by the Government of the property seized as evidence was denied without prejudice.

Other than Criminal Docket # 65-CR-9 and miscellaneous Civil Docket # 16, the USDC Clerk could locate no other cases pertaining to the BALISTRIERI- [ ] tax matter.

In response to the items requested by Bureau phone calls referenced above, the following additional information is set out:

(1) A thorough review of the BALISTRIERI file in the Milwaukee Office indicates he was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, EDW, at Milwaukee on 1/6/65, charged with one count of conspiracy in violation of Section 371, Title 18, USC, and on 2 counts of income tax evasion, section 7201, Title 18, USC, for the years 1959-60. This information is contained in the report of SA ALEXANDER P. LE GRAND at Milwaukee, dated 4/12/65.

File review further reflects that on 3/7/61 BALISTRIERI was served a summons by IRS, Milwaukee, to produce his books and records. On 3/17/61 BALISTRIERI appeared with counsel but without books and records, and refused to give testimony. It is noted that as of 7/21/61 there was no local, state or federal process outstanding for FRANK BALISTRIERI. This information is contained in a special summary report of SA JAMES E. MC ARDLE at Milwaukee, dated 7/26/61, page 46A.

(2) A review of logs regarding [ ] which afforded coverage of DOMINIC H. FRINZI from 4/22/63 to 10/2/63, revealed no conversation between FRINZI and BALISTRIERI relative to the tax case of BALISTRIERI or otherwise.

In accordance with the Director's instructions, the memorandum to the Acting Attorney General has been revised so as to provide the Department with information concerning the coverage maintained by the Bureau on Dominic Frinzi, a Milwaukee attorney, on whom we had maintained electronic coverage in connection with another case, but who has been associated with Balistrieri.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CASE NO. 65-CR-9

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI and JENNIE ALIOTO,

Defendants.

MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE OBTAINED BY ELECTRONIC EAVESDROPPING AND OTHER LISTENING OR RECORDING DEVICES.

1. Now comes FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI by one of his attorneys, MAURICE J. WALSH, and moves the Court for an order suppressing for use as evidence any and all information, knowledge or conversations and leads emanating therefrom, which were overheard, learned of, or recorded in any manner by the use of electronic eavesdropping devices or other recording devices, in the investigation of all matters relating to this case or involved therein.

In support thereof, the defendant asserts:

1. The Petitioner respectfully represents that he has cause to believe that during the investigation of this case, premises occupied by him as private, personal office spaces were caused to be equipped by electronic eavesdropping devices by federal officers investigating the matters involved in the indictment herein and related matters.

ENCLOSURE

2. The reason for the defendant's belief is that on February 1, 1964, he moved into office premises at 2641 N. Downer, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and that shortly thereafter, wood paneling was installed in the interior of this office as a wall covering and for decoration. Thereafter, this space was occupied by the defendant BALISTRIERI as an office for the transaction of his private business and affairs, in part.

On August 14, 1965, he discontinued use of this office, and the paneling which had a separate value, was removed. When removed, it was discovered by the defendant that an electronic eavesdropping device had surreptitiously and without knowledge of the defendant, been installed in a space between the wood paneling and the wall. The wires leading to this device were followed and led to a nearby telephone pole outside the building and could not be further traced.

This discovery was made upon the removal of the wood paneling for transfer by Carl Dentice, Frank Balistrieri, this defendant, and the defendant's son, Joseph Balistrieri.

3. Defendant's belief that electronic eavesdropping was engaged in by federal officers in the investigation of this case is further based upon the fact that one Ernest C. Johannes, a special agent for the Internal Revenue Service engaged in the investigation of this case, testified before the Honorable Kenneth P. Grubb, Judge of the District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, in miscellaneous cause No. 16 entitled Jennie Alioto and Frank Peter Balistreri v. the United States of America, which was a proceeding for an order suppressing evidence obtained under a search warrant issued upon the affidavit of the said Ernest Johannes, special agent of the Internal Revenue Service, and in the course of his testimony, said agent admitted that he had at times occupied an apartment opposite an apartment used by Jennie Alioto as a bookkeeping office, and through a hole bored in the door, had spied upon and watched the entrance to Jennie Alioto's apartment.

4. The defendant believes that such surreptitious surveillance is consistent with the use of the electronic eavesdropping device, and further states that it has been represented to him that the Internal Revenue Service has acknowledged, before a committee of the United States Senate, that eavesdropping devices were used in investigations in Milwaukee, and the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Justice have admitted in the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and in the Supreme Court of the United States, that electronic eavesdropping devices for the overhearing of conversations and for telephonic interception, have been used by the Internal Revenue Service in the investigation of alleged tax violations, and have admitted that said agency and its intelligence service and internal security service possessed such equipment.

WHEREFORE, it is requested that this Court hold a hearing and require and take the evidence of Ernest Johannes and other agents engaged in the investigation of this case, to determine whether they installed or were responsible for the installation and use of the device discovered by the defendant in office premises used by him and any other electronic eavesdropping or recording devices.

It is further requested that this Court enter an order suppressing for use as evidence any information, knowledge or leads emanating from such information and knowledge acquired by the use of the aforesaid devices and methods.

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, Defendant,

By:

MAURICE J. WALSH,
His Attorney.

STATE OF ILLINOIS

COUNTY OF

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI, being duly sworn, under oath states that he has read the foregoing Motion and petition to suppress evidence, and that the allegations of facts and belief made therein are true and correct.

The Acting Attorney General called at approximately 10:45 a. m., Sunday morning, 10/16/66, and stated that he was somewhat concerned about captioned case in view of the fact that defense counsel had filed a motion to suppress the evidence. I told him this was not surprising inasmuch as both the defendant and the defense counsel had known that there was a microphone in this case. [ ] stated that he had little knowledge concerning the judge who would try this case, however, he felt that inasmuch as this was rather a small judicial district, the judge might be somewhat strict. He stated that the Department had to file an answer to the motion to suppress and that the alternative was possibly to request permission from the court to discuss this matter in chambers. He stated the consideration was being given to file a motion to dismiss, however, he doubted that the Department would be successful. He also stated that a second alternative would be to get a continuance, however, he doubted this would be successful.

[ ] told me that it of course would be very desirable to get continuance so that no decision would be made in this case prior to the ruling by the Supreme Court in the Black case. He stated that if the Supreme Court hears of an adverse decision in this case that Court will naturally be more severe in the Black case. He told me that the top heads of the Tax Division were having a meeting at that time and that he would advise me just as soon as some decision was made concerning the matter. He stated it might be that there would be a need for additional information from the FBI. I told him that we were ready to supply any information necessary at a moment's notice. I also indicated that it would seem that a continuance would be the best action to take at this time.

[ ] told me that there was a definite need for further study in this matter. He thinks that the trial judge, if the Department is successful in requesting an audience in chambers, would consider a review of the logs on the basis of irrelevancy on the tax violation. He added however the defense counsel would necessarily have to be present. I told him this followed the line of reasoning in the Alderisio case in Denver wherein we had been quite successful.

DeLoach to Mr. Tolson memo
Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

[ ] asked that I give the matter some thought and if I had any ideas to give him a call. He stated that he was thinking somewhat along the lines of sending the Departmental attorneys to Springfield without formal preparation. He indicated this would give them a basis for requesting continuance. He added however that the court would undoubtedly admonish the Government if this occurred. I told him that I could see no objections to this, however, the Departmental attorneys should not indicate a lack of preparedness on the basis that the FBI had not cooperated sufficiently. I stated the Department was well aware of the facts in this matter. He indicated that this would not be the case, however, the Tax attorneys did need additional time to study the entire matter.

b6

The Director was advised telephonically of the above-mentioned conversation.

[ ] called me again at 4:00 p.m. the same date, Sunday. He stated the Departmental attorneys had to be in court in Springfield, Illinois, at 10:30 a.m., Monday, 10/17/66. He added that there were 4 or 5 questions that needed to be answered and that he would appreciate having the information prior to 8:00 a.m. inasmuch as the Departmental attorneys had to catch a plane at that time.

[ ] told me that the Department wanted to be certain that we did not have individual wiretaps on (1) Maurice J. Walsh, defense counsel in the captioned matter; (2) that the FBI had not had microphones on Milwaukee lawyers Eugene J. Koenen, [ ]; (3) [ ] stated the Department would like to know why the FBI had placed a microphone in attorney Dominic Frinzi's office. He stated it would be most important to ascertain if the principal reason for placement of this microphone was to cover Balistrieri.

b6

In answer to this question I told him offhand that Frinzi had been involved with numerous hoodlums and that the purpose of this microphone was not to cover Balistrieri. I told him this microphone had no relevance whatsoever to the Balistrieri case. I mentioned that Frinzi was thought to have been involved in a gangland slaying, however, I necessarily would have to check the facts on this before giving him the final answer.

[ ] asked that I also ascertain if microphone coverage had been on any other lawyers in this case. I told him I would check, however, offhand there had been no further coverage of individual specific microphones on other attorneys involved.

DeLoach to Mr. Tolson memo
Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

[ ] reiterated that Departmental attorneys would attempt to have the trial judge hold a hearing in chambers. At that time the logs on subject Balistrieri [ ] could be shown to the trial judge so that the relevancy question could be determined. [ ] told me that the defense attorneys plan to indicate to the trial judge that hearings in chambers were absolutely necessary inasmuch as presentation of the logs in court would necessarily damage the defendant, Balistrieri, because they portrayed him as such a low, unsavory character. [ ] stated that the Departmental attorneys would ask the trial judge to take the Frinzi log himself and determine nonrelevancy. The Departmental attorneys will state that the Frinzi log has nothing to do with either the defendant or co-defendant.

I asked [ ] why it was necessary to expose the Frinzi log to the court. I stated that I personally felt that this was the Black situation all over again and, inasmuch as this particular microphone had no relevancy whatsoever to the Balistrieri case, I could not understand why the Department was volunteering this information. [ ] replied that defense counsel Walsh, although completely unsavory, was a very knowledgeable and capable attorney and undoubtedly would present a further motion calling for the expose' of additional microphones and logs. He stated this would be a "shotgun" request by defense counsel, however, in the event he did present such a motion, the Department would necessarily have to admit to knowledge of the Frinzi microphone. He stated that if the Departmental attorneys did not admit the existence of this microphone in the beginning, the results of admittance during the trial would be most disastrous.

I asked [ ] regarding the possibilities of dismissal in view of the fact that if all three microphones became known to the general public the results from the Black case would necessarily be bad. [ ] replied that he doubted that the trial judge would dismiss merely on a motion for dismissal. He stated that some reason must be given, consequently, the admission of tainted evidence would be just as bad as if we went through the process of trial proceedings.

The Acting Attorney General's secretary called me at 4:40 p. m., Sunday, 10/16/66, and stated that [ ] would be out of his office for approximately two hours and in the event I received the information prior to his return, I should give it to either Departmental attorneys [ ] their home telephone numbers were furnished. At approximately 5:50 p. m. I attempted to call [ ] however, he was not at home. Neither was [ ] Apparently they were both en route from their offices to their homes.

DeLoach to Tolson memo
Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

[ ] returned my call within approximately 30 minutes. I told him that we did not and had not had a microphone installation on defense counsel Walsh. The same answer was given with respect to Milwaukee attorneys Koenen, [ ] [ ] I told [ ] that a microphone was placed in attorney Frinzi's office not for the purpose of covering Balistrieri but inasmuch as there was considerable evidence pointing to the fact that a major gangland slaying might be solved in the event information could be obtained as a result of hoodlums meeting in Frinzi's office. I told him also that Frinzi's office was known as a meeting place for hoodlums. I further told [ ] that while the Department had not given us the names of any further attorneys, we could safely indicate that there were no individual, specific microphones on any other attorneys in connection with this case. [ ] thanked me for the above service. (These facts are being confirmed by memorandum to the Acting Attorney General today, 10/17/66). b6 b7C

The above action clearly demonstrated, contrary to Assistant Attorney General Vinson's thoughts, the fact that the FBI can obtain information rapidly concerning microphones and logs in an extremely fast manner. While AAG [ ] has kept us completely advised concerning the Department's thinking in this matter, it does appear that the Department is getting "spooked" once again in connection with this case. b6 b7C

ACTION:

Mr. Gale should advise the Special Agents in Charge at Milwaukee and Chicago of the above facts and have them keep the Bureau constantly advised as to the results of trial proceedings.

Acting AG [ ] called at 2:35 p.m. today to state he had just heard from Assistant AG Mitchell Rogovin in Springfield, Illinois, in connection with the captioned matter. My memorandum of this morning reflected discussions over the weekend concerning this matter.

[ ] stated he wanted to let the FBI know that Rogovin was successful in getting the Trial Judge's permission to go into chambers in connection with this matter. Defense Counsel was also present. In chambers, Rogovin told the Judge that the Department of Justice had no objections to allowing Defense Counsel a review of the logs in the Balistrieri case and such information as was available concerning the microphone in the [ ] case. Rogovin told the Judge that the information in both logs was completely irrelevant insofar as the charges against both Balistrieri [ ] were concerned.

While in chambers, Rogovin asked the Trial Judge if he could talk to him separate and aside from Defense Counsel. The Judge agreed. Rogovin then told the Judge of the microphone that had been placed on Dominic Frinzi. SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

Assistant Attorney General Rogovin called at 3:40 p. m. this afternoon. He pointed out that hearings in captioned case were still proceeding in Springfield, Illinois. He mentioned that defense counsel Walsh, MAURICE, a very unsavory individual, was not "running" from the Government in the least. To the contrary, Walsh has apparently decided to take as many risks as possible by hitting the issue of microphones head on.

Walsh of course has been enjoined by the court not to mention microphone coverage as such outside of chambers. Rather than mentioning such matters specifically, Walsh has, by cross examination, introduced into evidence the close liaison between the FBI and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) people. By doing this, he obviously hopes to confirm the fact, whether openly or not, that results from FBI microphones were furnished to IRS and that IRS built a case against Balistrieri on this point. Walsh has additionally included certain testimony regarding [redacted] which obviously came about from a review of the material produced as a result of the microphone results on [redacted]

Rogovin is of the opinion that FBI representatives who monitored the microphones in the Balistrieri case will undoubtedly be called upon to testify concerning the results of such monitoring. He stated that there was of course a burden of proof upon the Government to show that the results of such monitoring were completely irrelevant to the tax violation in the Balistrieri case.

Rogovin asked that we furnish him the names and current locations of the five FBI personnel who handled the monitoring in this matter. I told him that testimony by these Agents would be most undesirable but in the event such testimony was necessary to prevent a mistrial, it would seem that sworn affidavits from these Agents would be far more logical than actual testimony. Rogovin replied that the Department might be able to get by with this and it was certainly worth the try.

Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin called me at 7:00 p.m., 10/18/66, to advise that U. S. Attorney Brennan in Milwaukee had been in touch with our Milwaukee Office to alert three of our current personnel, who monitored a microphone in captioned matter, that it would probably be necessary to have their testimony on Wednesday, 10/19/66.

Rogovin wanted to know if the FBI would make a decision as to whether or not our personnel could testify. He stated that they were badly needed at trial proceedings in view of defense counsel Walsh attempting to introduce testimony that "tainted evidence" had been utilized by Internal Revenue in building the tax violation charge against Balistrieri.

I told Rogovin we frankly considered it very unwise for our people to be placed on the witness stand, particularly in view of the manner in which the microphone on Balistrieri had been installed. I told him however that testimony by our personnel was a decision for the Department to make but that we definitely wanted the Department to understand the inadvisability of such testimony.

Rogovin told me that he personally felt that the trial judge, who was most cooperative to the Government and who had great admiration for the FBI, would not allow unreasonable questioning by defense counsel, specifically in connection with the manner in which the microphone was installed. He stated in the event this matter came up, the Department would immediately admit trespass and this would undoubtedly foreclose further questioning in this regard.

Rogovin stated that he felt that our personnel, including four former Agents, would be needed on Wednesday, 10/19/66. I stated that we, of course, had control over our own personnel but had no control over those Agents who were resigned or retired.

Rogovin stated that the Departmental attorneys would consult with the trial judge prior to proceedings tomorrow morning, 10/19/66. He stated that he felt that there would only be two lines of questioning. One line would concern the extent of cooperation between the FBI and Internal Revenue. Rogovin indicated that the FBI personnel would find it only necessary to point out that dissemination is made by the FBI to Internal Revenue, like any other Federal agency, in matters of mutual interest. The second line of questioning will concern whether or not all matters are taken down during the monitoring of microphones. The answer to that of course is that only the pertinent items are recorded.

I told Rogovin that if the questioning was confined to these two lines of possibilities, then of course our personnel would have little difficulty; however, a "Pandora's box" would be opened in the event defense counsel was allowed great latitude, particularly in connection with the manner in which the microphone on Balistrieri was installed. Rogovin again reiterated that trespass would be admitted by the Government and he felt sure that questioning along this line would be forestalled.

Rogovin told me that he was personally concerned about one matter. He then mentioned that from the nature of the material on the [redacted] and Balistrieri matters, the defense counsel could well infer that there had been a burglary committed by Bureau Agents. He stated that the Department would like to know if this was the case. I told Rogovin that he should know very definitely that there was a burglary involved and that this was all the more reason that it was inadvisable for our personnel to testify. I asked him, as I had earlier in the afternoon, if sworn affidavits by our personnel would not suffice. He answered that the Department had thoroughly considered this matter and that the Acting Attorney General, along with the Tax Division officials, strongly felt that neither the defense counsel nor the trial judge would permit sworn affidavits as a substitute for actual testimony.

Rogovin stated that the defense counsel might raise the issue of cooperation received from the telephone company in Milwaukee. He further noted that there was a line leading to a telephone pole in the case of one microphone installation. I told Rogovin that we had received cooperation from the telephone company and that this was a "leased-line" microphone. He stated that here again the Department could forestall questioning by admitting trespass and not bring the telephone company into the matter. He mentioned that this fact would be brought to the judge's attention prior to trial proceedings tomorrow morning, 10/19/66.

Rogovin stated that he was very confident about the outcome of this situation inasmuch as the trial judge was very cooperative and particularly had a very healthy respect toward the FBI. He stated that the third incident,

*It would be well if

Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

the microphone on attorney Frinzi, was not to be considered. Rogovin indicated that he would of course await word from us prior to calling our people for testimony. I told him that if the Department felt that our people were absolutely needed then we of course had no alternative, however, I wanted to make certain that he understood the disadvantages involved.

The Director was advised telephonically of the above facts.

At his instructions, I called Rogovin back and told him that our people would, at the Department's request, be permitted to testify. I stated this of course was restricted to the three employees currently within our supervision and that we had no control whatsoever over the four who had either retired or resigned. I stated that I had planned to issue very specific instructions, following consultation with the Director concerning this matter, that our people were to be extremely forthright and honest in their testimony. I mentioned that this would be the case despite the outcome of the trial. I told him that our testimony would be given in this manner and the chips would fall where they may.

I further stated that we were not going to coach our people and would of course, under no circumstances, ask them to do anything other than to testify in a forthright manner. I told Rogovin that it was most unfortunate that this matter had arisen at this time, particularly in view of the pending decision regarding the Black case, however, we had no alternative but to testify as I had previously mentioned.

After talking with Rogovin, I called SAC Paul Fields in Milwaukee and specifically advised him of the Director's instruction, i. e., that our people would tell the absolute truth and that we would not avoid any outright collision in this case. I further told SAC Fields that our people were not to be coached but were to answer questions in a forthright, honest manner. I further stated that in the event the question was raised as to the authorization of the microphone in the Balistrieri  case, our people should of course give the truthful answer that such installations were made at the authorization of the Attorney General. I further instructed SAC Fields to call the Springfield Division and to reiterate these instructions to the SAC of that Division.

SUBJECT: CONFERENCE IN ACTING ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, 10/18/66,
re NATIONAL CRIME INFORMATION CENTER

FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

With the Director's approval, Special Agent Jerome Daunt and I went to the Acting AG's office at 10 a.m. this morning to brief him, at his specific request, regarding the National Crime Information Center.

Prior to the briefing it was noted that the Acting AG was holding a meeting in his office of Assistant AG Mitchell Rogovin of the Tax Division, [redacted] of the Tax Division, and Assistant AG Vinson of the Criminal Division. Upon being notified by his secretary that Mr. Daunt and I were waiting to see him, the Acting AG came out to the reception room and stated he was discussing the Balistrieri case with Rogovin and other officials. He asked that I join them.

Rogovin recited the same facts as mentioned in my memorandum of 10/17/66, which reflected a call from the Acting AG who wanted the Director to know of action taken by Rogovin in Springfield, Illinois on that date. During the conference a number of points were raised which should be made a matter of record in FBI files.

Rogovin asked me specifically if the FBI would be able to advise the Department, without any delay, of the fact that certain individuals upon whom microphones had been placed might on occasion have been talking to various attorneys who had given legal advice to the subjects in question. I told Rogovin and the group that Vinson had already raised this question, in needless correspondence to the FBI, and that as a matter of fact we had proven the rapidity with which we could answer such questions by only taking approximately 1 3/4 hours to answer the Acting AG's questions on Sunday, 10/16/66, concerning the Balistrieri case. I turned to Vinson and stated that we, of course, had a cross-reference index which made it possible for us to answer such questions by the Department without any delay whatsoever.

Both Rogovin and Vinson stated they had run off a list of cases in which the subjects were either currently under indictment or consideration was being given to indicting such subjects, and that this list would be forwarded to the FBI in the near future. They indicated this would give the FBI an opportunity to advise the Department whether we had had microphones on the individuals in question.

I told the group that we, of course, were prepared to answer the Department and that, very frankly, it was good that such lists were being furnished, inasmuch as originally it had appeared that Vinson was expecting the FBI to furnish the answers to such matters without giving us available names.

(The Director's instructions to have a Master Index prepared constitute, of course, a master stroke, inasmuch as we will now be in a position to handle the list in question without any delay. The Master Index is due at FBI headquarters by the last day of this month.) we should also check with the AG - a

yes in each instance. A Rogovin brought up the matter of the microphone on the attorney by the name of Frinzi in the Balistrieri case. He stated that, although this microphone log now had the seal of the court upon it, nevertheless the court might later indicate that there was a deliberate invasion of attorney-client relationship on the part of the Department and the FBI, in view of the microphone. I stated there was no basis for such an assumption, inasmuch as the placement of the microphone upon Attorney Frinzi had nothing to do with the Balistrieri case whatsoever.

Vinson replied that, nevertheless, the courts usually, despite the specific purpose of the microphone, held that there had been a deliberate invasion of attorney-client relationships. This, of course, gave me an opportunity to more or less drop a bombshell in the group. I told the Acting AG and the other Department officials that it seemed all that was needed in this particular instance was to place an agent on the stand who could testify to the fact that Former AG Bobby Kennedy had specifically asked for a "surveillance" on Attorney Frinzi, as a result of the gangland slaying of one Anthony Biernat. I stated the Department might give consideration to testifying to this fact, inasmuch as this would definitely prove that the placement of this specific microphone had nothing to do with the Balistrieri case.

The Department people looked at each other without making any reply. This subject was dropped immediately.

One other point of interest was raised. At the conclusion of the conference I mentioned that the Tax Division seemed to be making capital of the fact that the FBI on occasion had sent communications concerning microphones to the Criminal Division, yet the Tax Division claimed it had not been notified simply because the FBI had failed to also include the Tax Division in its dissemination. I stated this was claimed in the Black case and that apparently the Acting AG might desire to introduce Rogovin to Vinson so that they would be able to communicate with each other.

Vinson replied that the FBI communications in some instances did not identify the source as a microphone. I told him that, while a source was not specifically identified, it would seem that any experienced law enforcement officer or attorney, by virtue of reading the communication, could ascertain that a technical surveillance or microphone had been used. He stated this had not been true in his case. I told him I agreed with this; however, if there was any question concerning any of our reports, the Department should not hesitate to get in touch with the Bureau concerning the matter.

Also after Severon's work in S.V. we have to protect sources?

I also mentioned that the question of the FBI furnishing "tainted" evidence to Internal Revenue was another matter that should be considered, inasmuch as in numerous instances the results of microphone coverage had been furnished to a division of the Department and the Department had, in turn, disseminated such information itself to Internal Revenue. Vinson stated this was done simply because the Department had not recognized the FBI sources as being microphones. I told him that here again if there had been any question, the Department should have gotten in touch with the FBI. I stated that he, of course, could not expect us to identify our sources in delicate cases, inasmuch as we had no idea what the Department would do with such information after it got to them.

Mr. Tolson

The meeting ended up on a harmonious note; however, the above points were certainly well understood by those present.

Following this meeting, Section Chief Daunt briefed the Acting AG and Messrs Vinson, Peterson, Braun, [ ] and Sessions, for approximately 25 minutes, on the National Crime Information Center. Daunt did an excellent job and it was quite obvious that those present respected his knowledge and the tremendous advances made by the FBI in this regard. Acting AG [ ] expressed appreciation and stated he desired to mention to the Director the fact that he wanted to personally be of all possible assistance to the FBI in this important undertaking.

MR. TOLSON:

 ANTI-RACKETEERING

In my memorandum of 10/18/66, which reported the results of the conference in the Department concerning the captioned matter, I set forth the fact that the question had been raised by Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin to the effect that defense counsel in captioned case might attempt, in some manner, to bring out that there was a deliberate attempt on the part of the FBI to invade attorney-client relationship in view of the establishment of a microphone on an attorney by the name of Frinzi.

I told Rogovin at the time that this of course would be a false assumption inasmuch as the microphone on Frinzi had been placed in an attempt to ascertain information regarding the gangland slaying of one Anthony Biernat. When Rogovin and Vinson persisted in their line of reasoning, I pointedly told them that if they desired to drive home the fact that the microphone on Frinzi had no connection with Balistrieri, they should simply place FBI testimony in the record that the microphone on Frinzi came about as a result of a request from the then Attorney General, Robert Kennedy. Rogovin and Vinson, as well as the other Departmental representatives present, dropped this matter immediately.

We did not have a specific request for a microphone per se from Bobby Kennedy. We did have a direct request for investigation of the gangland slaying of Anthony Biernat from Bobby Kennedy. This is set forth very clearly in Bureau files. Former Assistant Director Evans took this request from Bobby Kennedy. We objected strenuously inasmuch as this was not a matter within FBI jurisdiction. Kennedy insisted that we handle the matter and attempted to override any and all objections that we made. In other words, he very definitely put us into this case despite the fact that we had no business getting into it.

92-316-419

I felt, consequently, that despite the fact that he did not make a specific request for microphone installation, he was definitely responsible for our entry into this non-FBI case and therefore, under the rules of general authorization by the Attorney General, he should also be held responsible for any actions with respect to a microphone. We have a very strong memorandum in the file with respect to Kennedy insisting that we handle this case. It was obvious that political pressure had been brought on him to get us into this matter.

In view of the above facts, I do not feel that I misled the Departmental people, but to the contrary think that I stopped a potential embarrassing line of inquiry and caused them to drop this subject without further deliberation. I therefore feel that we should stick to this line of thought in the event the point is raised again.

ACTION:

This memorandum is written simply for the Director's information in view of the fact that this point might be raised again. In view of the manner in which the Department rapidly backed off and dropped this subject, I feel secure, however, that the point will not be raised again.

In connection with memoranda from Mr. DeLoach to Mr. Tolson dated October 18, 1966, relating to developments in the income tax trial of Milwaukee hoodlum Balistrieri, and conversations in this regard with Mitchell Rogovin, Assistant Attorney General, Tax Division, there is attached for approval a proposed letter to the Acting Attorney General.

This letter sets forth information as to the present whereabouts of former Bureau personnel who have retired and who have knowledge concerning monitoring of our prior microphone coverage of Balistrieri and associates. It also sets out in accordance with Mr. Rogovin's request the fact that three individuals currently employed by the Bureau who have similar knowledge will be available in Springfield, Illinois, on the morning of October 19, 1966, to offer testimony concerning their knowledge of this coverage. Rogovin had requested the whereabouts of these specific Bureau personnel and these specific former personnel.

The letter to the Acting Attorney General points out that while we have no control over our former personnel, our current personnel will testify in a straightforward, forthright, open fashion regardless of the consequences which might accrue in the form of adverse publicity to the Bureau and Department.

It has been carefully considered whether it would be better to have the Department drop this case rather than subject the Department and the Bureau to adverse publicity concerning microphone coverage but the Department showed no inclination to do this and, therefore, if we insist on such a course of action it unquestionably would put the Department and

Mr. Gale and I met late this afternoon with Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin, Tax Division, concerning developments in captioned matter. Also present at this conference were Attorneys [redacted] of the Tax Division.

According to Rogovin, retired Special Agent John Holtzman did not voluntarily testify concerning twentythree other employees who monitored microphones in this case. The defense questioned him concerning this matter in view of the fact that the logs clearly indicated the names of these employees. The Department had subpoenaed six of these employees as they felt this would be sufficient at this time for the purpose of instant hearing.

During the course of Holtzman's testimony, the defense counsel inquired concerning whether there had been a trespass, breaking and entering involved in instant matter. Holtzman did not answer this question and eventually stated that if he had to answer this question, he would take the Fifth Amendment rather than answer same. Rogovin advised that the Judge thereupon recessed the hearing and the matter was discussed in chambers with the Government and defense attorneys. The Government attorney pointed out to Maurice Walsh, defense attorney, that Holtzman was now a magistrate in Peoria, Illinois, and that this question was not only embarrassing but not particularly relevant in view of the fact that the Government admitted trespass. Walsh thereafter consulted with Balistrieri and Balistrieri agreed to withdraw this question.

Rogovin further stated that they were considering entering into an agreement with the defense counsel to have the conspiracy aspects of this case dismissed in the event that the defense counsel agree not to raise any further questions concerning invasion of privacy. Rogovin advised that this has not yet been completely resolved. No observations were made to Rogovin as to the course of action the Department should take.

Rogovin advised that if the conspiracy aspects were dropped, undoubtedly no more Bureau personnel would be heard in this case but the chances for successful prosecution would be greatly lessened.

Rogovin stated that the question concerning whether the telephone company had been of cooperation to the FBI with respect to the establishment of leased lines had been raised by the defense. Rogovin requested that the FBI contact the telephone company in this regard and determine the name of the individual who could testify in the judge's chambers concerning any cooperation rendered to the FBI. I advised Rogovin that it would be more proper for the United States Attorney to contact legal counsel of the telephone company in this regard. Rogovin advised that he agreed and he forthwith asked United States Attorney James Brennan to make this contact and Brennan advised that he would immediately do so. [redacted] stated that he did not feel that Walsh could institute a civil suit against the telephone company as was done in Las Vegas inasmuch as there is no invasion of privacy statute in Wisconsin.

Assistant AG Mitchell Rogovin, Tax Division, called at 4:15 p.m. today to advise concerning developments in captioned matter.

In the trial at Springfield, Illinois, two witnesses testified during the morning and afternoon. A Departmental representative named Barnes testified briefly [REDACTED].

Secondly, a retired Special Agent, John Holtzman, according to Rogovin, testified in a very candid, frank, honest manner. Rogovin stated, however, that Holtzman did leave some rather serious doubts in the record which would necessarily have to be taken care of.

According to Rogovin, Holtzman testified that 23 other employees monitored microphones in this case, over and above his own assignment of monitoring. I interrupted Rogovin at this point to ask him if Holtzman had voluntarily given such information in testimony, or had a specific question as to the number of monitoring employees been raised by Defense Counsel. I told Rogovin I also would like to know whether the Government attorneys had objected to such a line of questioning if, in fact, such a question had been raised by Defense Counsel. Rogovin replied that he did not know the answer to these questions, but would attempt to get the answer for me immediately.

(We are calling Milwaukee to get the answer from our office there. We, of course, were aware that there were 22 employees involved in monitoring, but the Department had only previously been asking about six of these employees. It would, of course, be most disadvantageous to the Bureau to have 22 of its employees paraded in court, testifying concerning this matter.) The number of 22 employees was received from our Milwaukee office.)

Another question asked of Former Agent Holtzman was "Did the FBI invade the premises of other people involved in this case?" The Government Attorneys immediately objected to this question raised by Defense Counsel. Rogovin stated the argument presented by the Government Attorneys eventually caused the Defense Counsel to withdraw the question. The Defense Counsel, however, went on to raise another embarrassing question, i.e., "Is the FBI in a position to produce communications relative to the establishment of leased lines?" Rogovin stated that, by raising this question, Defense Counsel obviously wanted to find out if all leased lines went from the microphones in question to the local FBI office, or did some of the lines go both to the FBI office and to other monitoring stations.

Rogovin stated he would appreciate having an answer from the FBI with respect to this question, himself. He also told me that the Government Attorneys immediately objected to this line of questioning and eventually indicated to Defense Counsel that the Government would be willing to dismiss the conspiracy count of the indictment if Defense Counsel would agree to not raise any further questions concerning invasion of privacy. Defense Counsel agreed to this stipulation, but stated that one question would be held in reserve and could not be made a part of the agreement. This question concerned whether the telephone company had been of cooperation to the FBI in connection with the establishment of leased lines.

Rogovin stated that the only way to handle this matter would be to ask that the telephone company have an employee testify, in the judge's chambers, concerning any cooperation rendered to the FBI. He stated the judge would prevent the telephone company from being embarrassed in open court.

Rogovin asked that we furnish to him, as expeditiously as possible, the answer to the question regarding the location to which leased lines were directed in monitoring operations, i.e., whether or not all such lines went directly to the local FBI office or to this office and other locations. He also asked that he be furnished, on an expeditious basis, the exact number of leased lines used in this operation.

We are getting the answers to the above-mentioned questions for the purpose of furnishing such information to the Department.

I don't know why Dept. proceeds with cases in which microphones have been used. It looks to me as if Dept is constantly placing FBI on trial instead of hoodlums.

On the evening of 10/18/66 retired SA ALEXANDER P. LE GRAND telephonically contacted SAC, Milwaukee to advise he and retired SA RICHARD C. THOMPSON had been requested to appear 10/19/66 at Springfield, Ill. and the two were departing by automobile that night for Springfield. LE GRAND just wanted to check with the office as to any objection from the Bureau to their appearance. He was advised that their appearance as retired FBI personnel is in the hands of the USA and they should resolve their appearance with the USA. LE GRAND advised they would appear and, if called upon, would testify in a straightforward, truthful manner and handle themselves as former FBI agents.

Attempts to contact USA JAMES B. BRENNAN concerning previously authorized travel of SAs JAMES E. MC ARDLE and [redacted] and SE [redacted] to Springfield for testimony were unsuccessful and stops were left for USA BRENNAN to contact SAC, Milwaukee. USA BRENNAN was contacted at approximately 6:30 a.m. 10/19/66 and was advised that above Bureau personnel would reach Springfield about 10:39 a.m. that morning.

Review was made a.m. of 10/19/66 concerning data furnished to the Dept. in the [redacted] case, including communication dated 10/28/61 referring to information re [redacted] including data re IRS matters. IRS had obtained warrant and had seized this information from [redacted] along with other evidence. IRS had attempted to incorporate this material in information presented to a Federal grand jury and the information had been suppressed. Current indications were that questions would be raised by the defense in the tax case in Springfield concerning this information. It was expected that retired SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN might be questioned in this area. Accordingly, after discussing this information with the Bureau, USA BRENNAN was contacted at Springfield and it was fully discussed with him. It was emphasized that this information is not pertinent in current proceedings inasmuch as it was suppressed before the grand jury previously in the IRS case. It was pointed out to him emphatically that USA BRENNAN and his staff should immediately and most vigorously oppose any attempts by the defense concerning questioning of this information in view of its prior suppression and non-pertinence in the present matter. USA BRENNAN advised he was aware of this information, appreciated the reminder concerning its prior suppression and advised that the approach noted above would most certainly be taken concerning any questions pursued along these lines. He advised he would do his best to keep SAC, Milwaukee advised concerning developments in this regard.

Pursuant to call from Bureau, review of available material was made afternoon of 10/19/36 as regards, (1) number of lease lines involved in BALISTRIERI [redacted] and DOMINIC FRINZI cases, and (2) from what location and to what location did lines extend. Review confirmed that there was one (1) lease line utilized in each of BALISTRIERI and FRINZI cases and that no lease line was utilized in [redacted] case. The lease line in BALISTRIERI case extended from 2559 N. Downer Ave. to Milwaukee Office. Line in FRINZI case extended from his office, 151 W. Wis. Ave., to Milwaukee Office. In [redacted] case no lease line was utilized as this was a radio microphone monitored from a receiver located in apt. 403 at 1809 N. Prospect Ave. [redacted] retired SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN had taken the stand and had been questioned as to whether he personally had made any electronic installations or participated in the trespassings concerning [redacted] or BALISTRERI installations. HOLTZMAN refused to answer the question after the court inquired as to whether he understood the question, at which point a recess was called until after lunch. According to SA [redacted] information from [redacted] during the mid-day period reflected a discussion was had between the Departmental lawyers and the defense and an arrangement was proposed in which the Govt. would drop count #1 of the indictment (conspiracy) and on the other side no further inquiry would be made by the defense concerning the trespass and the Govt. would admit that lines were used from the above two locations which went only to the FBI office, through use of Telephone Co. lines. Under the arrangement the defense would not make trouble for the Telephone Co., such as a civil suit or procedures of that nature.

b7C

According to SA [redacted] USA BRENNAN and others were discussing this arrangement with the Dept. for approval. Therefore, the active FBI personnel will be held over until the situation was resolved and the retired FBI personnel would also be held, and Mr. HOLTZMAN had already been excused.

b6

Subsequently, on 10/19/66, pursuant to Bureau telephonic inquiry re information received that retired SA HOLTZMAN had possibly given an approximate number such as 24 as to number of Bureau personnel participating in electronic surveillances in instant matter, action was taken to resolve whether or not HOLTZMAN actually did state a specific number of Bureau employees involved and also whether he volunteered such information or same was elicited from him by questioning of defense counsel. SAC, Milwaukee telephonically discussed this matter with USA BRENNAN at Springfield who advised that HOLTZMAN had not stated a specific figure but that the questioning had arisen when Attorney VALSH referred to a document recalled by the USA as a log and queried HOLTZMAN concerning the name appearing at the bottom of the log. As to the significance of the name, VALSH elicited from HOLTZMAN that the name would indicate that individual was participating in the coverage and would have access to the information. WALSH indicated in court, according to USA BRENNAN, that he had assembled 28 names concerning this and similar material. USA BRENNAN stated WALSH was trying to make the point that a number of personnel had access to the coverage information and could have provided same to IRS. Therefore, the Govt. could not easily say that IRS did not receive assistance through this medium.

USA BRENNAN advised that HOLTZMAN was asked how many FBI personnel would have been involved and stated he did not know prior to WALSH bringing out the alleged number of personnel involved. USA BRENNAN stated definitely that HOLTZMAN did not provide any specific figure.

USA BRENNAN advised they were discussing the situation with the Dept. He stated they do not want to call the active SAs as the judge has indicated he will make them testify re individual participation in trespass activities since this would affect the credibility of the witness. USA BRENNAN also noted that they may ask the Telephone Co. for records concerning any lease lines which may have a connection with instant case. He stated they did not desire that this information be brought out openly in court but might have to be discussed with the defense counsel in chambers.

In addition to above conversation with USA BRENNAN re number of FBI personnel connected with coverage, re-confirmation of advice previously furnished to Bureau was made concerning the number of FBI personnel listed on logs or other material in the [ ] and BALISTRERI cases as being connected with the coverage. This review confirmed that only 22 people were involved. These were 20 agents, 1 clerk and 1 SE, it being noted, however, that 2 of the currently listed SAs, [ ], were actually clerks at the time they participated. The other clerk listed was [ ] who resigned as a clerk. The above, of course, pertains to BALISTRERI. Personnel connected with [ ] coverage are recalled by current SAs as retired SA JOHN A. In a.m. of 10/20/66, pursuant to Bureau inquiry, review was made as to reasons the 22 personnel were utilized on monitoring duties re BALISTRIERI. The reasons for use of these personnel were: the extended period of coverage, 3/9/64 - 6/3/65, 15 months; 16 to 13 hours coverage per day 7 days per week, involving 3 hour shifts, utilizing 1 to 2 persons each shift for actual coverage; necessity of utilizing SA personnel weekends, holidays and sometimes during regular work week because of limited non-agent personnel to monitor; necessity to use agents when non-agent personnel not available due to sick leave, annual leave and other absences, the same situation applying to absences of agent personnel; the fact that clerks were not authorized for use on the monitoring until June, 1964 and the fact that the 3 then clerks utilized were actually assigned to chief clerk's office duties and rotated on monitoring duties, with only 1 non-agent personnel working full time on monitoring (SE [ ] 9 of the SAs utilized were either full or part time on hoodlum and related cases, including the sound agent, and were carrying full case loads; SA GEORGE BACON utilized because of broken leg and on crutches, and SA [ ] a hoodlum case SA, utilized on monitoring due to limited duty status because of back trouble; other SAs than AR case SAs necessarily used because of other administrative and investigative responsibilities of

[REDACTED]

On 10/20/66 news reports referring to HOLTZMAN's testimony on 10/19/66 indicated HOLTZMAN stated he knew nothing about the illicit FBI eavesdropping on a telephone call from [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It was noted coverage on BALISTRERI did not begin until March, 1964. In order to clarify this matter, review of BALISTRERI logs at Milwaukee disclosed on 3/27/64 log that [REDACTED]

Nothing else audible. This call was picked up on the coverage microphone and pertained only to the BALISTRERI end of the conversation.

In view of the reference to Feb., 1964, USA BRENNAN was contacted telephonically by SAC, Milwaukee and query made as to how this testimony arose. USA BRENNAN consulted the summary of testimony for 10/19/66 and advised that the correct reference was to a log exhibit for 3/27/64 and not to any telephone call in Feb., 1964.

During above conversation with USA BRENNAN, the latter also advised that arrangement being considered by prosecution and defense attorneys re dropping count #1 (conspiracy) of the indictment and proceeding on the tax evasion counts had fallen through. He advised Mr. MITCHELL ROGOVIN and [REDACTED] of the Dept. had discussed this matter and now felt that the Govt. should not drop the conspiracy count and, for this reason, it appeared the case had been opened up again as far as the defense calling various FBI personnel. USA BRENNAN stated that the Govt. had been attempting to limit inquiries by the defense to data obtained through electronic coverage by the FBI and to whom such data was disseminated but it now appeared that they were operating more or less at the pleasure of the defense as to how far the questions might be pressed, barring successful objections in court.

USA BRENNAN telephonically advised ASAC J. WALLACE LA PRADE at 11:15 a.m. 10/20/66 that it would not be necessary to put on the stand any additional witnesses from the FBI in connection with this matter. He stated the Govt. was given a choice by the judge of proceeding on the conspiracy charges or proceeding on the tax charges, and the Govt. elected to proceed against BALISTRIERI on counts #2 and #3 which are tax evasion charges. He stated the trial date has been set for Tuesday, 10/25/66. USA BRENNAN added that Defense motion made to dismiss the Govt.'s case had been denied and that a motion made to suppress any evidence relating to electronic coverage had been granted.

Bureau inquired afternoon of 10/20/66 as to conversation SA [redacted] may have had at Springfield with USA or other Govt. attorneys relating to technical setup of coverage on [redacted] Bureau's information indicated SA [redacted] may have stated that leased lines were utilized to effect coverage [redacted] Bureau instructed this be discussed with SA [redacted] and Bureau advised as to what conversation took place.

b7C

Subsequently, SA [redacted] arrived at Milwaukee Office from Springfield and matter discussed with him. SA [redacted] stated that only discussion he had concerning [redacted] coverage was during morning of 10/20/66 when [redacted] Departmental attorney, Tax Division, called SA [redacted] in to discuss preparation for SA [redacted] testifying which was contemplated later in day. According to SA [redacted] advised they had some confusion as to whether actual monitoring was done in apt. 403, 1609 N. Prospect Ave., [redacted] SA [redacted] stated he advised [redacted] that monitoring was not actually done in apt. 403 but was done in secure location at field office. SA [redacted] told [redacted] that the FBI office attempted [redacted] but that it did not work and no appreciable positive information resulted; therefore, the monitoring was changed to a secure place in field office.

He advised [ ] stated they knew a line from [ ]
[ ] went to a telephone pole nearby. SA [ ] stated he replied to [ ] that he could not testify to anything concerning lines going any place or about any other technical type installation.

b6
b7C

When pointed out to SA [ ] that available information does not indicate we ever monitored [ ] from the field office, (which would have involved a leased line), SA [ ] realized he had been confused when talking with [ ] SA [ ] advised he had been discussing the [ ] coverage but had been thinking of the DOMINIC FRINZI coverage in which [ ] [ ] but subject was monitored through leased lines at field office. SA [ ] realized his mistake almost immediately. SAC reviewed the foregoing with SA [ ] in minute detail and is satisfied this, in fact, was a case of SA [ ] simply having two installations confused. It is noted SA [ ] also worked on the monitoring re FRINZI. SAC notes that SA [ ] was at time of the conversation with the Govt. attorney, preparing to go on the witness stand shortly and a discussion with the attorney was logical. He assures that no other discussions were had with any of the counsel nor concerning any other coverage than [ ] SAC has most strongly admonished SA [ ] that, in accordance with cautions given him by SAC prior to his departing for Springfield, he should be most circumspect in discussing matters with Govt. counsel, particularly concerning such sensitive matters as are involved and particularly matters concerning which he might testify in court. He was admonished that in discussing matters of recollection he should always give thorough and complete thought to being absolutely accurate, since in this instance it made a great deal of difference whether or not leased lines were used [ ] in view of information which had previously been disseminated to the Dept. re this matter. It is felt that SA [ ] inaccuracy in this instance is primarily a result of the stress of the moment, and possibly a misunderstanding of [ ] inquiry and that further administrative action is not warranted in this regard.

During the afternoon of 10/20/66 Bureau advised information received that Judge POOS might allow the defense to review material obtained in Oct., 1961 (Milet to Bureau 10/28/61), from [redacted] which consisted of a number of photographs. Bureau desired Milwaukee Office review this material as to its bearing on IRS tax case and advise.

SAC, Milwaukee subsequently advised Bureau review of this material by SA CARLYLE N. REED indicated there are 134 pages of photographed documents. In summary, they are identified as follows:

The first 78 pages consist entirely of pages of address book containing names, addresses and telephone numbers of individuals, business places, etc. There is one exception in the first 78 pages, page 21 being some notations on a piece of paper mentioning GALLAGHER's (FRANK BALISTRERI operates a night club by this name in Milwaukee), and the notation of $200 and $400 and "total bank," and "Food bank only" appear on this sheet.

Page 79 is bank statement in name JOSEPH BALISTRERI or BENDETTA BALISTRERI, Santa Monica Blvd., showing balance in amount of $20,097.75 (It is noted the knowledge of Milwaukee Office is JOSEPH BALISTRERI is defendant FRANK BALISTRERI's father who resides at this address).

Pages 81 through 84 pertain to correspondence re the matter of [redacted] vs. RIZZO, ET AL. This correspondence is from attorneys to multiple addresses, including FRANK BALISTRERI, and pertains to conflict of interest matters with respect to representation by attorneys and in which correspondents Fara Corp. and Atomic Industries, Inc. are mentioned.

re GALLAGHER's (one of FRANK BALISTRERI's Milwaukee night clubs) and makes reference to local court case. Also included in these pages is letter not mentioning BALISTRERI but addressed to [redacted] (possibly identical with a local Milwaukee gambler) and pertains to a local court case. This letter is from an attorney to [redacted]

Page 90 is statement from accountant GENE J. KOENEN for $400 services apparently rendered to FRANK BALISTRERI by KOENEN in accounting matters.

Pages 92 through 97 are statements of amounts due for services rendered, such as plumbing, construction work and closing statement involving sale of piece of property by FRANK BALISTRERI and ANTONINA BALISTRERI.

Pages 98 through 134 consist of statements of accounts of suppliers of various items used in business for services rendered for FRANK BALISTRERI, offer of property for purchase, various diagrams of city areas and lot areas which could refer to building sites or locations, approximately 3 checks payable to FRANK BALISTRERI or to cash which appear to be business transactions, a balance sheet or financial statement of Para Corp.

As can be seen from above, some of above noted material may be directly or indirectly significant with respect to income tax investigation of BALISTRERI.

Per Bureau instructions on evening of 10/20/66, the one set of photographs of above available in Milwaukee Office were sent by SA courier to SAC, Springfield, with instructions that he hold same until instructed by Bureau as to release of same to Govt. attorneys. During late afternoon of 10/20/66 [ ] former AUSA, EDW, now member Legal Dept., Wis. Telephone Co., telephonically contacted SAC, Milwaukee. SAC, Milwaukee, suggested to [ ] that should Telephone Co. representatives be called to testify they would have to testify truthfully but only to extent that personal knowledge carried them. It was noted that an individual, whether Telephone Co. representative or otherwise, who testified beyond personal knowledge would be getting into conjecture, hearsay, and placing himself in position to cause unnecessary embarrassment. [ ] was advised that FBI personnel also might be called on to testify in this case and it would appear to be much wiser, were both Telephone Co. and FBI, Milwaukee, able to state that the two organizations had not conferred prior to court re what testimony would be given. [ ] stated he had not looked at the matter from this standpoint and agreed that, at least for the time being, it would be preferable that the two organizations did not confer re this matter, and he intended to so recommend to the company president.

Knowledge of Milwaukee coverage, and the factual extent of their knowledge is extremely limited, as previously outlined earlier in this airtel. Therefore, any required testimony by Telephone Co. employee, unless that employee conducted investigation on his own to learn details of our coverage, and we have no information that such was done, would only indicate, (1) permission given FBI SA to utilize Telephone Co. line, and (2) location of terminal on a particular telephone pole. In view of this it appears no worthwhile purpose could be served conferring with Telephone Co. officials at this time. No such conferences will be held without prior contact by SAC with Bureau. "JUNE"

The Director has inquired concerning the use of 22 monitoring personnel on the microphone coverage of Frank Peter Balistrieri.

SAC Paul Fields, Milwaukee, advised today he has conducted an inquiry concerning this matter and has determined the following reasons for the use of 22 individuals as monitors.

SAC Fields pointed out that the coverage on Balistrieri extended from March of 1964 to June of 1965, a period slightly in excess of 15 months. Initially, only one monitoring clerk was available to the Milwaukee Office for monitoring duties. This was subsequently expanded in June of 1964, when the services of two other clerks were authorized for use on this coverage. Microphone coverage on Balistrieri was monitored seven days a week during the period covered, between 16 and 18 hours each day. Monitoring duties were assigned with Agent personnel utilized for the coverage on weekends and holidays. In addition, Agent personnel were utilized for monitoring duties to cover periods when clerical monitoring personnel were unavailable by reason of sick leave and annual leave. Unavailability of certain Agents due to administrative and investigative responsibilities required this relief duty to be spread among available Agent personnel, according to SAC Fields.

Time of Call 1:15 p.m.

Special Agent in Charge Fields, Milwaukee Office, called to advise of information he had just received from United States Attorney Brennen who is handling the Government's tax case against captioned subject in United States District Court, Springfield, Illinois. Brennen advised that the Government had decided to drop the conspiracy count, which charged subject Balistrieri [redacted] for income tax evasion. The Government had decided to proceed only on counts two and three, which charged Balistrieri with income tax evasion during the years 1959 and 1960.

United States Attorney Brennen had also advised Special Agent in Charge Fields that the court had denied the defendant's motion to dismiss and had granted the defendant's motion to suppress electronic information.

United States Attorney Brennen had also advised Special Agent in Charge Fields that all Bureau employees, as well as ex-Bureau employees, who had been subpoenaed for purposes of testifying during the hearings on the motion to dismiss and the motion to suppress had been released for return to their respective activities.

Special Agent in Charge Fields was unable at the moment to ascertain specifically when the immediate trial on counts two and three would be undertaken, but indicated he would follow this matter closely and keep the Bureau advised.

On October 20, 1966, Mitchell Rogovin, Assistant Attorney General of the Tax Division advised you that during court proceedings in Milwaukee the defense had determined that copies of documents in the possession of [redacted] had been located and copied. These documents, among other things, refer to insert-type bulletins of Internal Revenue Service (IRS) relating to methods of handling tax fraud cases and in-service training documents of the IRS.

Rogovin asked if we had copies of these documents and requested that if so they be made available to him for the in camera inspection of the judge hearing the Balistrieri matter. Governmental and defense attorneys will be present.

SAC Paul Fields of the Milwaukee Office was contacted and verified that our Milwaukee Office did have possession of such documents, which had been located in October of 1961. A review of Bureau files reveals that pursuant to the Director's instructions, by letter dated November 3, 1961, to the then Attorney General Kennedy we advised of our possession of this IRS information and indicated to him that our source of this information was "highly confidential and most sensitive." These documents were obtained and photographed at the time the microphone was installed covering [redacted] Trespass was involved.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI

SAC Paul Fields advised that a review of these documents, which are still in the possession of the Milwaukee Office, indicates that they relate in addition to the above-mentioned IRS training-type documents to the following: names contained in a telephone address book belonging to Balistrieri, various correspondence concerning Balistrieri's interest in construction projects, the purchase and sale of land, the operation of Gallagher's Night Club, a Balistrieri enterprise, bills to an accountant as well as bills for plumbing services, receipts from prize fights held at the Wisconsin Boxing Club and related matters.

ACTION:

In view of the fact that the judge hearing the Balistrieri matter desires to review these documents in camera, it would appear that we have to comply with his request. Accordingly, if approved, the above-described documents will be made available for the in camera inspection of the district judge handling this matter.

[ ] attorney in the Tax Division, who has been in Springfield, Illinois, in connection with the Balistrieri case, returned copies of the logs of our microphone coverage today. This material had previously been made available to the Department for use in trial of the captioned matter.

[ ] volunteered that the hearings concerning our confidential coverage were over and that trial of this matter would begin early next week, probably on Tuesday, October 25, 1966.

[ ] stated that, in his opinion, defense attorneys would cross examine Internal Revenue Service agents closely as to the source of all evidence presented in the trial. It is not known at this time, of course, whether any of our Agents will be called during the trial of this matter.

[ ] mentioned that Maurice Walsh, defense attorney, who has been permitted to review the logs of our coverage on Balistrieri indicated to Government attorneys that Balistrieri, from the logs, certainly gave every indication of being a top level La Cosa Nostra leader.

Judge Poos, who is trying the Balistrieri matter, also indicated privately to [ ] that he was fully aware of Balistrieri's hoodlum status and has only the highest respect for the FBI.

Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin, Tax Division, was advised this morning that documents located  were being made available by our Springfield Office to Departmental attorneys in Springfield, Illinois, today for in camera inspection by the Judge and defense attorneys, pursuant to the Judge's orders.

Subsequently, SAC Robert Gebhardt, Springfield, called and advised that the Departmental attorneys had indicated that there was not going to be an in camera inspection of this material but rather the Judge had ordered it turned over to defense attorneys for examination.

Rogovin subsequently advised that this was not correct; that the material was to be examined in the Judge's chambers and, of course, the defense would have an opportunity to review same. He advised that Departmental attorneys would be appropriately instructed by him to insure that the examination was in the Judge's chambers and to immediately contact him if any problems developed with respect to this material which would have any substantive effect on the tax case.

ACTION:

SAC Gebhardt of the Springfield Office was advised of the foregoing and instructed to make the documents available to Departmental attorneys.

On October 25, 1966, Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin contacted you with respect to a number of questions they desired answered for their guidance in the future conduct of the Balistrieri trial in Springfield, Illinois.

Rogovin inquired as to how frequently our Milwaukee Office utilized leased lines, how many others were in existence at the time the Balistrieri source was functioning and who in the Milwaukee Office maintained liaison with the telephone company.

It has been ascertained, at the time of the Balistrieri source (March 9, 1964, to June 3, 1965), leased lines were maintained [redacted] microphone surveillances which included both criminal and security matters. Special Agent [redacted] the only sound man assigned to the Milwaukee Office, was the Agent who maintained liaison with the telephone company in leased line matters.

b6
b7E

Rogovin inquired with respect to the advisability of providing defense counsel with copies of our Balistrieri investigative reports. Rogovin also inquired as to whether all material in our possession, which was acquired from [redacted] was turned over to the court.

b6

All copies of our investigative reports on Balistrieri have been forwarded to the Department and the Department has been previously advised that they specifically contain microphone information. It is being pointed out, however, that in view of significant information as to our investigative techniques, as well as information obtained from well-placed informants contained in the reports, it would appear inadvisable to provide these reports to defense counsel.

The Milwaukee Office has advised that all information acquired from [redacted] was turned over to the court and that no film negatives or extra copies are in the possession of the Milwaukee Office.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

Rogovin indicated that defense counsel had inquired as to what prompted the Bureau to notify the Tax Division of our Balistrieri coverage on September 29, 1966. We are pointing out that Assistant Attorney General Vinson by memorandum September 27, 1966, indicated that the Department had been confronted by problems concerning prosecution of individuals on whom there had been prior electronic surveillances and advised the Department was interested in knowing when electronic surveillances were used. Vinson specifically mentioned several tax cases. Following the receipt of this memorandum, we advised the Attorney General by memorandum September 29, 1966, that we had maintained an electronic surveillance on Balistrieri.

It is noted that Rogovin also inquired as to whether handwritten notes of our monitoring activities in the Balistrieri case are in existence and has been advised that there are no handwritten notes in this case.

Rogovin also inquired with respect to the Bureau's authority for the installation of these sources and whether or not that authority was the same as was given by the Bureau in response to the Supreme Court's questions in the Black case. He was, of course, advised that this authority was the same general Departmental authority for the use of the microphone surveillance.

ACTION:

It is recommended that the attached letter go forward to the Acting Attorney General confirming information made available to Rogovin as a result of questions propounded by Rogovin for their guidance prior to the convening of court in Springfield, Illinois, today.

Rogovin advised that the telephone company had provided a representative who would be heard in chambers, if this became necessary. The representative sent by the telephone company in all probability will not know too much about liaison with the FBI, inasmuch as he has been employed by the company for only 18 months.

Rogovin feels that the government can talk Defense Counsel Walsh out of interrogating the telephone company employee.

According to Rogovin, the defense counsel has apparently decided to lay off the FBI and turn his attention to the Internal Revenue Service. In this case the Internal Revenue had obtained search warrants, which were later recalled inasmuch as they were drawn up in a faulty manner. The search by Internal Revenue did result in obtaining a large number of documents. After turning over the documents to the court, the defense counsel ascertained that the Internal Revenue Service had maintained copies of all such documents. Defense Counsel Walsh is using this incident to good advantage, according to Rogovin.

Rogovin has advised that Internal Revenue had two microphones on in this case.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

This will acknowledge receipt of a telephone call from [redacted] of the Tax Division to Mr. DeLoach on November 2, 1966.

The letter of September 29, 1966, to the Attorney General in this case, which was referred to, was prepared by Special Agent John G. Leggett. The liaison man of our Milwaukee Office with the telephone company for the period 1961 through 1965 was Special Agent [redacted]

In accordance with [redacted] request, Special Agent in Charge Fields of the Milwaukee Office and Special Agent [redacted] have been instructed to be in Springfield, Illinois, today, in the event testimony is required of them in this matter.

It does not appear that this Bureau's letter of September 29, 1966, has any pertinence whatsoever to the issues developed in the current trial of the Balistreri case and I want to protest strongly against making this letter or the identity of the writer available to defense counsel in this matter.

Late on the afternoon of November 2, 1966, [ ] of the Tax Division telephonically contacted you and advised that the current trial of Balistrieri in Springfield, Illinois, had produced additional developments requiring possible testimony from Bureau personnel.

[ ] stated that telephone company personnel had been questioned concerning who had liaison between the FBI and the telephone company and the telephone company representative indicated that he was not aware of the identity of that person. Consequently, the defense has requested the identity of the liaison man and has indicated they intend to subpoena him together with the present SAC and possibly former SACs Kissiah, Stoddard, Baker and Roach.

SAC Fields was telephonically instructed to proceed to Springfield tomorrow morning with SA [ ] who was the liaison man with the telephone company from 1961 to 1965. Fields advised that he had no knowledge of the arrangements during the pertinent period as he was not SAC at that time and even so he was advised to testify if so called upon.

Fields further stated SA [ ] handled the installation of all security and criminal microphones during the period 1961 to the present time. Fields was instructed to have [ ] contact the Departmental attorney upon arriving in Springfield tomorrow and explain to him that he installed security microphones, as well as criminal microphones and to have the Departmental attorney vigorously object to any questions concerning security microphones in view of the fact that they are absolutely not pertinent to instant matter.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach

if he is questioned concerning security microphones. This order describes the procedure to be followed when an employee is subpoenaed to produce or disclose material from information contained in the files of the Department of Justice.

SACs Richard Baker, Paul Stoddard and Joseph Kissiah have been alerted that their presence might be required in Springfield, Illinois. They have been told to keep themselves in readiness for possible appearances in Springfield, Illinois. SAC Stoddard advised that while, of course, he is available, his wife is in the hospital and undergoing tests for an abdominal ailment and that diagnosis has not been completed as yet. In any discussion with the Department concerning Stoddard's presence in Springfield, this condition will be brought to the Department's attention.

also asked for the identity of the individual who prepared a letter from the Director dated September 29, 1966, which advised the Department of our microphone coverage on Balistrieri. We are protesting to the Department the revelation of this information by the Department to the court as not pertinent or material in anyway to the case.

There is attached for approval a letter to the Acting Attorney General providing the information requested by  and indicating that the Bureau strongly protests the identification of the supervisory Agent who prepared the Bureau's letter to the Attorney General of September 29, 1966, to defense counsel in this matter.

ANTIRACKETEERING

[redacted] who is Acting Assistant Attorney General of the Tax Division in the Department while Rogovin is out of town called on 11/2/66 and made reference to the captioned case. My memo of the same date reflects an earlier call from [redacted] asking for information which was later furnished to him verbally and confirmed by memorandum.

During the conversation at 6:25 p.m. with [redacted] he told me that SACs Richard Baker, New York; Paul Stoddard, Detroit and Special Agent Joseph Kissiah, Kansas City, all former SACs of the Milwaukee Division will be needed early this morning in Springfield to show "good faith" to the court. I told [redacted] that we had already agreed that SA [redacted] who had handled liaison with the Telephone Company, would be made available as well as the current SAC of the Milwaukee Division, SAC Paul Fields. I stated inasmuch as [redacted] had handled all such liaison it would seem to be ridiculous to uproot the two SACs and one Special Agent simply to show "good faith."

[redacted] told me the Department was trying to do everything to convince the trial judge that the Government was sincere and honest and that he personally felt that these men were needed. I reminded [redacted] that he had advised me previously that the Department would object to testimony by these men, since testimony by [redacted] and possibly testimony by SAC Fields would be sufficient. He stated this was true, however, it might create ill will if these men did not show. I told him these men live long distances from Springfield and it would create a hardship both to the FBI and them personally by ordering them into Springfield on an overnight basis simply to show "good faith." I further stated that the representative who handled the complete liaison between the FBI and the Telephone Company had already been made available and would, as a matter of fact, know more than the SACs involved. He admitted this was true but continued advising me of the necessity for the Department to show "good faith."

MEMO: DeLOACH TO TOLSON
RE: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI

After arguing this point for some period of time, I told [ ] that I would not issue instructions to have these men report to Springfield inasmuch as I felt this was a "fishing expedition." He replied that Rogovin was in travel status but that he might be able to get him or [ ] to call. I stated I would be glad to listen to either Rogovin or [ ] however, under the circumstances I did not feel it was necessary to have these men report to Springfield under the simple pretext raised by the Department. [ ] stated he would have Rogovin or [ ] call me later that night. I made it quite clear to [ ] that in my opinion the Department had not adequately explained to the Court the hardship it would create in having the above-mentioned men report on an over-night basis to Springfield.

ADDENDUM BY DeLOACH (11/3/66): [ ] called me at 8 p.m. to advise he discussed this matter with Assistant Attorney General Rogovin. [ ] stated that both agreed that the FBI had not been given sufficient time to have the above-mentioned Bureau representatives report to Springfield. He further stated that the Departmental Attorneys would explain to the Court that their testimony would be irrelevant and would create a hardship to have them report to Springfield. I told him this certainly appeared more sensible. He indicated that he would keep us advised of further proceedings in the trial.

In the income tax trial of Milwaukee's Balistrieri being held in Springfield, Illinois, Special Agent [redacted] of the Milwaukee Office testified yesterday.

[redacted] a sound trained Agent, was called to give testimony concerning the microphone coverage which the Bureau had maintained on Balistrieri, [redacted] paramour of Balistrieri, and Dominick Frinzi, a Milwaukee hoodlum attorney.

Defense attorneys questioned [redacted] extensively concerning the installation of the microphone coverage, as well as methods of monitoring results obtained from this coverage and our relations with the Wisconsin telephone company. On several occasions, defense attorneys attempted to get into areas where information pertinent to the national defense might be developed. Government attorneys and [redacted] raised objections to this line of questioning and were sustained by the judge hearing this case.

Special Agent in Charge Paul Fields of Milwaukee advised that in the opinion of the Department attorneys, [redacted] made an outstanding witness.

Acting AG [redacted] called me at 8 p.m., last night, 11/3/66, to indicate that he had been advised by the trial attorneys in this case that SA [redacted] made an excellent witness. [redacted] stated that SA [redacted] answered questions in such a firm, decisive manner that it appeared defense counsel might not pursue a further line of embarrassing questioning. This presumption is, of course, doubtful in view of the well-known propensities of Defense Counsel Walsh, who is a very unsavory individual.

Concerning the income tax trial of Balistrieri in Springfield, Illinois, SAC Paul Fields of Milwaukee, called today to advise that at close of court today, this trial will be adjourned until November 14, 1966.

Fields stated that he had been released, at least temporarily, from requirements to testify and he and SA [redacted] who testified yesterday, are returning to Milwaukee.

b6

According to Fields, the Department attorneys have advised him that the defense is seeking to find out who specifically approved the microphones involved. Fields has told Department attorneys that these matters are approved by the Attorney General. Fields is of the opinion that the Department attorneys do not wish to hear this kind of information and will be looking for a Bureau official as the person who approves microphones rather than a Departmental official.

Fields also mentioned that in the opinion of Departmental attorneys, other former Milwaukee SACs Baker, Stoddard and Kissiah may be called when court reconvenes on November 14, 1966. He was of the opinion that Department attorneys would be in touch with the Bureau in this regard.

Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Fields of the Milwaukee Office called with respect to the income tax trial of Milwaukee hoodlum Frank Balistrieri, which trial is presently being conducted in Federal court at Springfield, Illinois.

Departmental Attorney [redacted] who is handling the trial in this matter, had called Fields and indicated that Judge Poos, before whom the trial is being conducted, had been patiently listening to the defense arguments with respect to the Government's utilization of microphone surveillances and the potential for tainted evidence in the trial. Judge Poos, however, this morning had announced from the bench that the defense had gone far enough in pursuing such line of argument without revealing any taint. Judge Poos, therefore, ordered such line of argument discontinued and the Government's case to be put on immediately.

Judge Poos indicated that after the prosecution and defense had completed the substantive argument pertaining to the tax violation and the case given to the jury, he would grant permission for further argument by the defense with respect to the matter of microphone intercepts if such is considered necessary.

It was anticipated that through this maneuver Judge Poos will make it possible for the evidence in the case to be introduced together with a specific showing as to the source of the evidence. This would establish very clearly that the source is not tainted and may well obviate the need for any further argument of the point by the defense.

Synopsis:

USA'S Office, EDW, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, requested interview of OSCAR ROHR, who was a Government witness in income tax trial of FRANK BALISTRERI, which is currently in progress in Springfield, Illinois. USA'S Office advised tires of ROHR'S auto slashed at Milwaukee, and the court was vitally interested in this incident. USA'S Office requested interview of ROHR to further develop facts. ROHR furnished signed statement 11/3/66 in which he stated while enroute from Milwaukee to Springfield, Illinois, evening of 10/27/66, in his car, he and his wife noted thudding noise coming from area of left rear tire of car. Stated at one point car swerved off road, at which point ROHR said he thought left rear tire had gone flat. After stopping car and checking, left rear tire, he could find nothing wrong. Continued to Springfield that night with no further noise from the tire nor any other unusual car noises. ROHR testified in USDC, Springfield, 10/28/66, and he and wife, in his car, returned to Milwaukee 10/28/66 with no further incident concerning car. On 10/31/66, ROHR had car checked on hoist at garage, Milwaukee. On examination was shown where large piece of rubber was apparently torn away from inside of left rear tire casing. ROHR, on 11/1/66, telephonically told AUSA [REDACTED] EDW, in Springfield, about tire incident. ROHR stated he believes FRANK BALISTRERI hates him and that Italian element, Milwaukee, dislike him. ROHR stated no threats of use of force or of damage to his property have been received by himself, his wife, or his family. He added he had no knowledge of how tire happened to be in this condition. AUSA, EDW, on 11/3/66, expressed opinion further investigation not warranted in this possible Obstruction of Justice matter.

This investigation is predicated on the following information:

On November 2, 1966, SA [ ] was personally contacted by Assistant United States Attorney, [ ] Eastern District of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, at which time [ ] related he had received a telephone call from Assistant United States Attorney [ ] Eastern District of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, who is currently handling the Government's prosecution in the income tax trial of FRANK BALISTRERI, currently in progress in Springfield, Illinois on change of venue from Milwaukee. [ ] related that information had been furnished by OSCAR ROHR to the United States Attorney's staff who are handling the BALISTRERI trial that ROHR, who is a jeweler in Milwaukee, after returning to Milwaukee, had his tires slashed on his automobile. The details as to the extent, the number of tires, and the exact date were not known to [ ] and he stated that he did not think [ ] had the complete facts.

[ ] indicated that this would be a possible Obstruction of Justice matter and requested that OSCAR ROHR be interviewed to develop the full facts in the tire incident. Assistant United States Attorney [ ] advised that United States District Judge OMER POOS, Springfield, Illinois, had been informed of this incident and was agreeable to the interview of ROHR and was interested in this incident.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date November 4, 1966

OSCAR ROHR voluntarily appeared at the Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished the following signed statement concerning his knowledge of the tire incident concerning his automobile, which information he had telephonically furnished to Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Eastern District of Wisconsin, in Springfield, Illinois, on November 1, 1966.

"I, Oscar J. Rohr, make the following voluntary statement to [redacted] who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have induced me to make this statement. I have been advised this statement may be used in a court of law.

"I reside at 10710 West Auer Ave., Wauwatosa, Wisc. I am presently employed on a part-time basis with [redacted] at Rohr Jewelers, Inc., 174 West Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, Wisc.

"On Thursday, Oct. 27, 1966 at about 6:30 PM my wife, Wanda, and I departed Milwaukee, Wisc. in my 1966 Toronado Oldsmobile enroute to Springfield, Illinois. We travelled to Springfield by Highway 100, to Route 41 and by Illinois Tollway to Highway 66 into Springfield.

"About 9:00 PM we were in the vicinity of Pontiac, Ill. I noticed a continuing, thudding noise on the rear, left side of my car. I stopped the car, got out and checked the rear of the car. I could observe nothing wrong. I got back in the car, continued for another five miles, the thudding continued and I stopped again. I got out of the car, checked the rear again and could find nothing wrong. I got back in the car, drove about 3 miles and suddenly it appeared that the left rear tire had gone flat. The car swerved off of the road and on to the shoulder. I regained control of the car and stopped. I checked the rear tires again, from the outside, found nothing wrong and we continued on our way. My wife and I both noticed the thudding had ceased.

"We arrived in Springfield, Ill. about 11:50 PM and spent the night at the Holiday Inn.

"The next day, Friday, Oct. 28, 1966, I testified in United States District Court, on behalf of the government, in the income tax trial as concerns Frank Balistreri. I testified as to the purchase of a ring by Mr. Balistreri's son at my jewelry store in Milwaukee, Wisc. on Jan. 13, 1960. I presented to the court the original evidence of sale of the ring and also a drawing of the ring. I was on the witness stand about 5 minutes.

"After testifying, my wife and I returned to Milwaukee in my car. On the return trip, I travelled carefully at a moderate rate of speed and noticed no unusual noises from the car. We departed Springfield about 2:30 PM and arrived in Milwaukee, Wisc. about 9:00 PM.

"On Monday, Oct. 31, 1966 I took the car to Blackmoor Oldsmobile, 3rd St. and Wright, Milwaukee. The car was raised up on a hoist. On examination by a mechanic I was shown where a large piece of rubber, approximately 10 inches by four inches had torn away from the inside of the left rear tire. This would be the inside wall, of the tire which couldn't be seen until the car was raised on the hoist.

"I began to feel uneasy when I saw this tire because things like this don't normally happen to a tire.

"As I recall, I called Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] in Springfield, Ill on Tuesday, Nov. 1, 1966 and told him about the tire. I told [redacted] that I believe Frank Balistrieri hates me. I believe the the Italian element in Milwaukee dislike me intently.

b6

"I have no direct or indirect knowledge as to how the piece of rubber was torn from the tire.

"No threats have been made to me either telephonically or in person wither prior to the time I testified or after I testified. Neither has my wife received any threats of use of force to be directed against me, her or any other member of my family. In addition I have received no threats as to damaging my property or my families.

"I have read the above statement consisting of this page and five previous pages and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and recollections. I have initialed each page at the bottom and each correction.

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
AR

Re telephone call to Milwaukee 11/10/66 and Mitels to Bureau 11/14 and 15/66.

Pursuant to Bureau instructions, matter of possible testimony by SAC, Milwaukee, in current BALISTRIERI tax trial at Springfield, Ill. was discussed with departmental tax attorney [redacted] at Milwaukee 11/14/66. It was resolved with [redacted] that SAC, Milwaukee, could testify as to existence of microphone coverage concerning FRANK BALISTRIERI, [redacted] and DOMINIC FRINZI, noting FRINZI identity not been made known in court yet and will probably not be made known.

In regard to FRINZI, [redacted] commented that FRINZI is aware through Attorney WALSH of the microphone coverage on him and was very upset concerning this matter. In a discussion in chambers Attorney FRINZI insisted that he had to take some action in this regard. [redacted] stated that Judge POOS advised FRINZI that he could take whatever action he desires; however, the court had taken pains to swear all counsel to secrecy concerning FRINZI's identity and that if FRINZI desired to talk to the papers or otherwise disclose his identity, that would be a matter of his own doing. [redacted] stated he has not personally reviewed the microphone surveillances logs re FRINZI but that Judge POOS had felt it advisable to keep FRINZI's name out of it since the logs contained some unfavorable information as to the character of FRINZI. of this time [ ] does not know what action, if any, FRINZI contemplates in this regard.

b7C

In connection with contemplated testimony that no other microphone coverage existed concerning any individuals connected with BALISTRERI tax indictment except above three, SAC, Milwaukee, would testify based on personal search of informant index of office which established no other such coverage existed. SAC would also testify that only SA [ ] was assigned to handle microphone installations and from the records of Milwaukee Office that no agents from any other offices or Washington had come to Milwaukee to make any installations during pertinent periods.

As to authorization for installation of foregoing microphone coverage, SAC would testify that same is approved on field office level but ultimate approval is made by the Attorney General and, if necessary, to state, would testify that the relationship of case in question to national defense and/or life and death would be decided in any instance by the ultimate authority approving such coverage, which is the Attorney General.

A question was raised by Attorney WALSH to [ ] concerning a leased line reserved with the Telephone Co. for possible microphone surveillance use in investigation of [ ]. Attorney WALSH had referred to SA [ ] testimony that no records existed at Milwaukee Office concerning any reservation of pertinent line nor of its subsequent cancellation. SA [ ] in fact testified that reservation of such line was discussed with [ ] at Telephone Co. but it was never used nor further discussed with [ ] SAC, Milwaukee, advised [ ] that in response to WALSH's inquiry, SAC could testify that he caused the records of Milwaukee Office to be reviewed and no record was found re any arrangements for reservation of such a line nor of cancellation of such a line. [ ] commented that subsequent to [ ] testimony recalling such a line reserved for SA [ ] the judge had asked [ ] to see if he could locate a record at Wis. Telephone Co. which would reflect such reservation and/or cancellation. [ ] subsequently, after returning to Milwaukee, brought a leased line card over to USA JAMES B. BRENNAN which reflected numerous erasures and it was obvious from examining the card that no actual existing record of any past reservation thereon could be established. In this respect it is noted Telephone Co. personnel testified that reservations and cancellations on these telephone lines were handled on a continuous basis of erasures and substitution of new data as the need arose.

It was agreed with [ ] that SAC could testify as to procedures followed in reporting information from tapes and temporary notes taken in conjunction with the tapes, the procedure being that on a continual day-to-day basis the tapes were erased and notes were destroyed after pertinent information from both was typed on the log. It is noted SAC emphasized to [ ] the fact that the original record re these microphone surveillances is the log rather than the tapes or notes, and that all of information recorded or retained is that information recorded on the logs. In regard to the BALISTRIERI and FRINZI coverage tapes and notes were utilized and then disposed of when the logs were typed. In regard to the [ ] coverage no tapes were utilized but only notes and pertinent information taken from the source at the time and typed on to the logs which logs were subsequently destroyed.

In discussing these procedures [ ] referred to the length of time that tapes are retained and inquired as to such retention when [ ] and what delay in erasure of tapes [ ] might cause. He was advised in the event [ ] this might cause some weeks of retention of tapes. SAC, Milwaukee, did not advise [ ] that any tapes, transcripts [ ] other than logs have been retained concerning any of these three coverages. As noted in re Mitel 11/14/66, review of material previously furnished to Bureau after [ ] departure noted that we have retained [ ] on 4/3/64, 10/29/64 and 6/18/64 which material contained information relative to Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra family. Since Attorney WALSH had made inquiry of [ ] concerning any tapes [ ] and since tapes are referred to in the BALISTRERI logs for above dates, which logs were given by the Dept. to defense attorneys, it appeared essential that the position maintained to date, that all original documents re the coverage had been furnished, should be clarified prior to any direct testimony in this area in court. As Attorney WALSH obviously intended to pursue this line of questioning, according to [ ] the existence of this material would be elicited by testimony of Bureau personnel.

b6
b7E

In view of these circumstances and pursuant to Bureau telephonic approval 11/15/66, [ ] was advised by SAC, Milwaukee, of existence of this material. At that time he requested that the [ ] be sent to him at Springfield to be placed in custody of court pending further possible hearing on the suppression of evidence after the Govt. finishes putting on its case in the current court trial.

b6
b7E

During discussion with [ ] 11/14/66, SAC, Milwaukee, referred to Attorney WALSH, inquiring concerning a FRINZI log which made reference to [ ] or similar type reference. Review of FRINZI logs had disclosed the log covering 7/3, 5, 8 and 9/63 indicated 7/3/63, [ ] WALSH had indicated he contemplated calling the monitoring employee for that date as to any recollection of what the actual conversation heard would have concerned. SAC, Milwaukee, noted to [ ] that the monitor's identity is not shown on FRINZI logs as it was on the BALISTRERI logs and that other records in office do not disclose the specific identity of the monitor for that certain date. He was advised that we could only speculate that it would have been one of three or four personnel in office. In regard to this aspect [ ] noted that WALSH had apparently not yet decided whether various monitors of BALISTRERI coverage might be called in order to ascertain whether they may recall information other than that recorded on the logs. SAC emphasized to [ ] that after a long passage of time such as in this case it would be highly unlikely that any of BALISTRIERI coverage monitors would recall even the information written on the logs, much less any possible information that might have been listened to but not recorded on the log. The fact that their duties were impersonal, interspersed with handling of other matters assigned to them and not concerned with data not felt to be pertinent, would in all likelihood preclude any recollection of such information. [ ] stated he would keep this in mind and make a strong point of this with defense attorney WALSH if the opportunity arose prior to actual decision to call the BALISTRIERI coverage monitors to testify.

b7C

[ ] also advised that Attorney WALSH has raised a question of the extent to which information involving electronic coverage may have been disseminated by the Bureau and as to whether departmental officials receiving same may have orally discussed such reports and other correspondence with IRS representatives, thereby tainting IRS investigation of the BALISTRIERI tax case. [ ] requested Milwaukee Office determine if reports concerning BALISTRIERI, FRINZI or [ ] had been given to USA. He also wondered about dissemination at Bureau, but was advised that Milwaukee Office would not have record of what dissemination was made at headquarters level. Check of reports concerning these subjects was made and determined that reports in BALISTRIERI and FRINZI cases were sent to Bureau, to various field offices concerning leads and were given to USA, Milwaukee. None were disseminated at field level to any other USAs nor any other agency. [ ] material was consolidated into BALISTRIERI case and no separate reports were submitted on her.

b6

In view of court's decision 11/15/66 to discontinue further inquiry re FBI microphone coverage, this particular information is not being made known to [ ] in the absence of further request from him.

On November 16, 1966, Assistant Attorney General Mitchell Rogovin advised that the Balistrieri trial in Springfield appears to have simmered down insofar as the issue of electronic coverage is concerned as the Judge indicated that he had heard enough argument on electronic devices at this time and ordered the Government to proceed with the tax case against Balistrieri. He granted the defense leave to reopen the electronic listening device aspect at the end of the trial if the facts developed during the trial warranted this.

Rogovin inquired as to whether or not we had microphone coverage on [redacted] and [redacted]

Rogovin was advised subsequently that we had previously informed him these individuals were involved in our microphone coverage and that the appropriate logs were being obtained from the field. The logs on [redacted] were furnished to him on November 16, 1966, and the logs on [redacted] will be furnished on November 19.

Bar Units Hit 'Bugging'

The presidents of the Milwaukee and Wisconsin bar associations Friday expressed concern over the disclosure by a federal agent that he hid a microphone in the office of an unnamed attorney during his investigation into the tax exasion case of Frank P. Balistreri.

Circuit Judge George D. Young, president of the Milwaukee bar, issued a press release for himself and Atty. Ray T. McCann, president of the state bar.

It started that Young and McCann were disturbed by newspaper accounts of Balistreri's trial in federal court at Springfield, Ill., which told of an FBI agent testifying that he "bugged" the office of a Milwaukee attorney on W. Wisconsin av.

The testimony was given by Joseph E. O'Connell, special agent for the FBI in Milwaukee. He testified during Balistreri's trial last week that he had arranged for installation of a microphone in the lawyer's office, and that it had been removed sometime in 1963.

"The right of a troubled person to confer with an attorney in private is virtually sacred and has been protected by law for centuries," Judge Young said.

"Let it be understood that the state bar and the Milwaukee Bar association have the utmost respect for all law enforcement agencies and are aware of the difficulties these agencies have, but if the foregoing report is true, the bar associations cannot refrain from expressing their abhorrence for the disregard in violation of the ancient privilege existing between lawyer and client."

Judge Young said that he had written to Balistreri's trial judge, Omer Poos, requesting a transcript of O'Connell's testimony.

If the records show that the newspaper reports are accurate, said Judge Young, "chances are we will pursue" our investigation.

He did not elaborate.

The trial for Balistreri, Milwaukee night club operator who lives at 3043 N. Shepard av., has been in recess since Nov. 4. It is to resume next Tuesday.

[redacted] Departmental attorney, who has been trying the Balistrieri case in Springfield, Illinois, dropped by my office this morning and talked with Section Chief McAndrews and me concerning the trial in Springfield.

b7C

[redacted] stated that SA [redacted] made a splendid witness for the Government under searching cross-examination. [redacted] added that Maurice Walsh, defense attorney, has indicated that he will press to determine from former SACs of the Milwaukee Office as to whether or not there were any other pertinent microphones involved in this case. This should take place when court resumes next Monday. There were no other microphones involved other than those of which the court is aware.

b6
b7C

[redacted] also stated that Dominic Frinzi, the Milwaukee attorney on whom we had microphones coverage, has indicated that he intends to write to the United States Attorney in Milwaukee asking what action is going to be taken concerning the invasion of his privacy and has indicated orally that he intends to seek a civil remedy from the Government for the alleged invasion of his privacy. According to [redacted] the microphone coverage of Frinzi, which has been made available to the judge and not to defense counsel, came up in the latter part of last week's hearings and the judge ordered that the fact of this coverage should be made known to defense counsel. It was in this fashion that even though Frinzi's name was not mentioned in court that Frinzi was able to piece together information which satisfied him that he was the subject of this coverage.

[redacted] stated that, of course, there is always a serious question as to whether the Government's best interests are served in pressing a case involving extensive microphone coverage. He noted that in this case, they have, in his opinion, a good valid tax case against Balistrieri, but that the microphone matter has complicated the case.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: Frank Peter Balistrieri

He advised that decisions as to whether or not to prosecute a given case involving microphone coverage is only made at the highest level in the Department.

In addition to our former SACs in Milwaukee, who probably will be called next week, it was [ ] opinion that SA [ ] the liaison agent with the Milwaukee telephone company will also be called again and in the event of civil suit by Frinzi will also probably be called in that connection since he installed that coverage. In the latter event and in line with [ ] belief that this type hearing is disadvantageous to the Government, he volunteered an opinion that in order not to make things too simple for Frinzi in civil litigation, it might be advantageous for the Bureau to consider the transfer of [ ] from the Milwaukee area. b6 b7C

In this connection, in the event Frinzi filed civil litigation in state court, prior removal of [ ] from the Milwaukee Office would take him outside the jurisdiction of state courts. In the event, however, litigation is brought by Frinzi in Federal Court, he would, of course, be available wherever he was assigned. b6 b7C

However, the microphone used in [redacted] was retrieved by the Milwaukee Office when we discontinued our coverage on June 8, 1962.

Walsh apparently has been doing some popping off and bragging about what he contemplates doing; however, as noted above, the Department has already made full disclosure to the court concerning our microphone coverage. The logs which were made available to the court and attorneys were fully reviewed by Departmental attorneys who have advised they contain no information which had anything to do with the tax case concerning Balistrieri. The Department has indicated that they feel that the judge will not allow the defense attorneys to broaden their inquiry in this connection. They have further advised that they feel the judge will limit further inquiry by the defense to the possible subpoenaing of the SAC of the Milwaukee Office who, of course, would testify to the facts which have already been fully disclosed to the court.

Special Agent in Charge, Chicago, advises that Maurice Walsh, one of the attorneys defending Frank Balistrieri in his current tax trial at Springfield, Illinois, made the statement that he intends to produce three microphones before the court and question witnesses concerning them and try to bring the Director's name into this matter. He allegedly indicated that microphones were used in investigation of Balistrieri and that one of them was located [redacted] b6 b7C b7E

Balistrieri, of course, was under intensive investigation by both the Internal Revenue Service for considerable length of time as well as the Bureau, since he is the leading hoodlum in Milwaukee and in fact is the leader of the La Cosa Nostra in Wisconsin. During our investigation of Balistrieri, we did have microphone coverage on his office. We also had microphone coverage on [redacted] for Balistrieri; however, this microphone coverage [redacted] We received confidential information from the Department that [redacted] [redacted] however, we do not know where such coverage was maintained.

As far as the Bureau's microphone coverage in the Balistrieri case is concerned, the Department has admitted to the court that such microphone coverage was maintained and logs from our coverage have been furnished to the court and made available to the defense attorneys. During a preliminary hearing in the Balistrieri tax case, our Agent from Milwaukee testified to the fact that we did have microphone coverage in the Balistrieri case. During the hearing, at which our Agent testified, Balistrieri exhibited a microphone and inquired of the Agent if he could identify the microphone and the Agent stated he could not. We do not know whether any of the three

The following is submitted for the Bureau's information in connection with the Federal income tax trial of FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI in USDC, Springfield, Illinois, it being noted that the trial recessed on 11/16/66, and is to resume again on 12/1/66. As the Bureau is aware, it was disclosed during the course of proceedings at this trial, that there was an FBI electronic surveillance in 1963, on the office of DOMINIC FRINZI, a Milwaukee attorney. The identity of this electronic surveillance (misur) as being specifically on FRINZI'S office, was made public in news releases reporting on the BALISTRIERI trial.

Re Milwaukee telephone call to Bureau 11-4-66, also Milwaukee telephone calls to Bureau, 11/2/66, and 11/3/66.

The Milwaukee Sentinel newspaper issue of 11-4-66, contains an article on page 1, part 1, entitled "IRS Agents Armed in 1962, Court is Told," dateline Springfield, Ill., which gives an account of testimony given at the trial of Subject on 11-3-66, copy enclosed.

[redacted] is identified as a Special IRS Agent who, in testifying, was asked to identify a notation on his work sheet for 10-7-62, which read "Issued weapons - search lower Third Ward area." [redacted] reportedly explained to Attorney Maurice J. Walsh, representing BALISTRIERI, that IRS had received information that somebody was going to break into its Federal Building office and take the BALISTRIERI records. [redacted] said he got a telephone call from [redacted] and at his request issued firearms to two Inspectors in the IRS office. He said they were stationed there on a Sunday, when the offices were normally closed. [redacted] did not tell him, according to the article, where he received the information. [redacted] testified he asked [redacted] later, and was told "the less I know about it the better." [redacted] gave to [redacted] according to testimony, the license number of an automobile and told him to drive around the area near the Federal Building in Milwaukee, in an attempt to locate the vehicle. He said he did not locate it.

 b7C

[redacted] in testimony, according to this article, at first said he could not recall the incident, but when informed of [redacted] testimony [redacted] said that an FBI Agent named GASSOWAY had told him that the IRS office might be broken into. [redacted] testified GASSOWAY had given him the last name only of the person he suspected would break into the office. He said that the last name was that of "an IRS employee who has since left the service." [redacted] said that he and [redacted] found out the license number of the employee's

b6

Later on in this news article [redacted] who is prosecuting the case, objected to the name of the suspected IRS employee being introduced. This objection was proposed after WALSH reportedly said he was interested in the incident because "I think this is some more bug business. It is another incident of FBI cooperation with the IRS." [redacted] reportedly stated that "Nothing happened - it's just a story," and WALSH replied, "It's just a story picked up on the surveillances." WALSH said he wanted to know the name of the agent, to see if any other matters related to the incident appeared on the IRS logs. Judge POOS, who is presiding over instant trial, told [redacted] to give the name to WALSH in confidence. According to the article [redacted] wrote something on a piece of paper and handed it to WALSH.

Bureau attention is invited to Milwaukee letter to Bureau entitled [redacted] dated 10-10-62, [redacted] which sets forth on page 19, information supplied to [redacted] on 10-6-62, as made available by [redacted] and is substantially the same as the information referred to in the above-mentioned news article.

Further review of Milwaukee files concerning this particular information reveals an FD-209 dated 10-17-62, located in [redacted] entitled [redacted] which contains the original information as is set forth in the above-mentioned Milwaukee Airtel. On 11/2/66, USA JAMES B. BRENNAN, EDW, telephonically advised SAC, Milwaukee, from Springfield, Illinois, that the defense in the BALISTRERI tax case had raised a question concerning attorney WALSH's motion, a copy of which was mailed by cover letter dated 10/13/66, to USA BRENNAN, advising WALSH intended to file the motion on the first day of trial, 10/17/66. According to BRENNAN, WALSH had now made reference to a communication from FBI headquarters to the Department dated 9/29/66, which furnished data regarding technical coverage of individuals involved in the BALISTRERI case. WALSH had raised the question to the court in chambers as to why the 9/29/66, data was sent to the department at this time and left the implication that it might have been sent because of current information indicating WALSH intended to file the above-mentioned motion relating to suppression of evidence with any connection to electronic devices. Pursuant to telephonic discussion with the Bureau, 11/2/66, it was agreed the Bureau's position is that this information was sent to the Department at this time in view of earlier Departmental request that it be advised concerning such coverage and that SAC, Milwaukee testify if requested that we have no current technical coverage on BALISTRERI and no such coverage prompted the data being sent to the Department as of 9/29/66.

For the Bureau's information, inasmuch as testimony by SA [redacted] resolved the question of any current electronic coverage of BALISTRERI, it did not become necessary that testimony be given by SAC, Milwaukee in this regard.

In regard to SA [redacted] testimony on 11/3/66, of which the Bureau was advised telephonically on that date, there is enclosed a Xerox copy of the court record setting forth SA [redacted] testimony verbatim.

In connection with this testimony, [redacted] Departmental tax attorney, advised SAC, Milwaukee at Springfield, on 11/4/66, that Attorney WALSH after reviewing the testimony of 11/3/66, had indicated in comments in court on 11/4/66, that he desired to ascertain who approved the electronic surveillances in the three instances concerning which testimony was given. [redacted] stated WALSH assumed that the Agent in Charge approved such installations but was interested in ascertaining through testimony who ultimately approved them. [redacted] asked whether any one person at FBI Headquarters would approve of such installations. SAC, Milwaukee advised [redacted] that all technical installations are approved by the Attorney General. SAC, Milwaukee advised him that he would need to go to the Department to ascertain the procedure for such approval. [redacted] then indicated WALSH appeared to be interested in the administrative procedure involved in ultimate approval of installations. He was then advised that this would be a matter handled at the Bureau level and it would be necessary for him to consult the Department in this regard, reiterating that it would not appear to the SAC that the administrative procedure is the material fact here and if WALSH desired to know who ultimately approved such installations, the answer is that they are approved by the Attorney General. [redacted] then indicated that some request in this area would probably be forthcoming soon to the Bureau from the Department.

[redacted] further advised SAC, Milwaukee that unless some problem arose concerning the photographs of material taken [redacted] [redacted] as regards the trespassing involved, he did not think any further testimony by SA [redacted] would be required. He advised, however, that it might be necessary for the SAC to return to Springfield in regard to possible testimony concerning approval for electronic installations. [redacted] also advised that he had recommended to Departmental Officials that former Milwaukee SACs KISSIAH, STODDARD, and BAKER not be called to

FROM: SAC, MILWAUKEE (66-950) JUNE

AR ANTIRACIAL

On 11/21/66 USA JAMES B. BRENNAN, EDW, discussed current status of BALISTRIERI tax case with SAC, Milwaukee. USA BRENNAN noted that court was recessed on Thursday and Friday of last week, 11/17-18/66, in view of illness of one of jurors. He stated it was hoped the juror would be well again for resumption of case by 12/1/66. Court was officially recessed for current week. USA BRENNAN stated the Government attorneys might return to Springfield by 11/30/66 but felt that court would probably not be resumed until previously indicated date of 12/1/66. He advised that under the current ruling of Judge HOMER POOS the Government will proceed to complete the Government's case and hoped to do so by Saturday, 12/3/66. At such time the defense attorneys will proceed to put on the defense.

USA BRENNAN stated that comments by defense attorney WALSH indicated defense attorneys may attempt at the end of the Government's case to present a "summing up" motion, again raising the argument that the tax case remains tainted by information received from FBI obtained through electronic surveillances and that the Government has not shown that the Government tax case is free from such taint.

USA BRENNAN confidentially advised that his information is that WALSH has been having discussions with EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS who is handling the BAKER case and that the two are apparently discussing how to attempt alternate approaches to these similar cases. According to USA BRENNAN, whereas attorney WILLIAMS has called a number of FBI personnel to testify concerning technical coverage, indicating that WILLIAMS has assumed the burden of proving taint from the electronically obtained data, WALSH may now take the approach that the Government in BALISTRIERI case has the burden of proving itself that the tax case is free from taint. USA BRENNAN stated if WALSH sticks to comments he has made concerning Government having the burden in this area, WALSH will not then be in a good position to demand that number of Milwaukee FBI personnel should personally appear to testify concerning the matters which they monitored. If such personnel were called, this would show that the defense is assuming the burden of proving taint.

USA BRENNAN advised that he would let Milwaukee Office know of any pertinent developments which may take place during current week while court is not in session.

It is noted that earlier objections were made by defense attorneys as to admissibility of a number of exhibits in the tax case which the Government contended furnished evidence not tainted by emanating from evidence seized by Internal Revenue Service on a search warrant subsequently declared illegal in USDC.

For Bureau's information, there is enclosed copy of Judge HONER "ECOS" order which was made 11/1/66 over-ruling the defense objections to the tax case exhibits and admitting same subject to standing objections on the grounds of materiality and relevancy.

The Bureau will be kept advised of any pertinent developments in this matter learned by Milwaukee Office.

proceedings in which any of the seized property was being offered in evidence. This Court, for the purposes of this trial, has suppressed for use as evidence all property seized by the Government upon execution of the warrant on September 11, 1962, and ordered returned by Judge Grubb. (Tr. 21-22). This Court has also ordered suppressed certain evidence which the Government admits it obtained illegally. (Tr. 12-13, 29-31).

This Court has held several hearings in response to defendant's pretrial motion to suppress evidence and motions objecting to the admissibility of evidence on the ground that the evidence falls within this Court's suppression orders. Insofar as those hearings relate to defendant's objection to the admissibility of Government's Exhibits numbered 311 to 323 inclusive, and the testimony of Hila I. Jewett concerning the relationship if any between those Exhibits and Government's Exhibit numbered 49, this Court now finds the following facts:

1. On July 7, 1961, Special Agent Schmalbach of the Internal Revenue Service did receive, in connection with a then active investigation of the tax liability of Frank Peter Dallettrieri, a mail cover report from Postal Inspector Cato which listed first class mail addressed to 340 W. Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. (Tr. 126, 530; Gov't Papers No. B, page 16 from the back). That report reflected a letter addressed to Midwest Scrap Metal, the sender's identification address as P. O. Box 1203 and a postmark date of 7/5/61.

2. Within a day or two thereafter, P.O. Box 1203 was determined to be the Post Office Box Number of the First Wisconsin National Bank of Milwaukee, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and an Internal Revenue Service lead card was prepared by Special Agent Jackson. (Tr. 126, 519, 521, 530; Govt. Motion Ex. B, 86).

3. On August 7, 1961, Special Agent Schmalbach received another mail cover report from Inspector Cato listing all first class mail addressed to 839 N. 3rd Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. (Tr. 536-542; Govt. Papers B, page 17 from the back). That report reflected a letter addressed to Callaghers, the sender's identification as Altex Corporation, 1426 Arcadian Avenue, Waukegan, Wisconsin, and cancellation date of July 19, 1961.

4. Within a day or two thereafter, Special Agent Jackson made out a lead card for Altex Corporation. (Tr. 545; Gov't Motion Ex. 88).

5. Information already known to the Internal Revenue Service indicated that Frank Balistreri had an interest in Gallagher's Steak House, located at 629 N. 3rd St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin and that the business located at this address was also known as The Pub, Inc., Seashorebar, Milwaukee Tradewinds, Inc., and Gallaghers. (Tr. 133).

6. The search warrant executed on September 26, 1962, did not include in its description of property sought records of Midwest Scrap Metal Company. (Tr. 123; see also Alliote v. United States, 216 F. Supp. 48, 49, (E. D. Wisc., 1963). Records of Midwest were, however, seized in execution of the warrant including carbon copies of the original documents now identified as Government's Exhibits for Identification numbered 311 to 323 inclusive, the original cancelled checks of Government's Exhibit Numbered 49 and the original bank statements of Government's Exhibit Numbered 48. (Tr. 524; Group Exhibit Ex. 1).

7. Subsequent to September 26, 1962, and up to April 16, 1963, Revenue Service personnel inventoried all documents seized in the raid and made microfilm or photocopies of substantially all documents seized. (Govt. Motion Ex. 87; Deft. Ex. 8; Group Ex. #1).

8. On December 19, 1962, Special Agent Jackson, extracted information from the lead card identified as Government Motion Exhibit Numbered 8A and contacted officers of Altex Corporation concerning Altex's business relationship with Midwest Scrap Metal Company. (Tr. 523, Gov't Motion Ex. #7, entry dated Dec. 19, 1962.) Government's Motion Exhibit Number 7 also contains an entry dated December 20, 1962, reflecting that Special Agent Jackson spent eight hours at Altex examining records.

9. On January 3, 1963, Special Agent Jackson, on the basis of information obtained from the Altex Corporation, contacted one Moray Cohen and secured from him records of A. Cohen and Sons Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, pertaining to the purchases of scrap metal by the company from the Midwest Scrap Metal Company. (Tr. 523; Gov't Motion Ex. #7, entry dated 1-3-63).

10. On January 11, 1963, records of A. Cohen and Sons were produced in response to Revenue Service summons issued by Special Agent Jackson on January 8, 1963. (Gov't. Motion Ex. #7).

11. Hearing on Motion to Return and Suppress property seized on September 26, 1962, was held by Judge Grubb during the week of April 7, 1963.

12. On April 18, 1963, or shortly thereafter, the Government, pursuant to the order of Judge Grubb entered on April 18, 1963, returned all property seized on September 26, 1962. Microfilm and photocopies of the seized documents were retained by the Government's agents (tr. 185-186). They were turned over to defense counsel on October 25, 1966. (Tr. 110-111).

13. An examination of Government's Exhibits for Identification numbered 311 to 323, inclusive, reflects that the bill of lading portion of each of the exhibits contains the signature Santa Carro or S. Carro.

14. Defendant's Exhibit 5A contains no leads pointing to Midwest Scrap Metal Company and the Internal Revenue Service obtained no leads from the Federal Bureau of Investigation relative to Midwest Scrap Metal Company. (Tr. 534, Gov't Ex. #4; cf. Gov't Ex. #5, memo dated 10-10-63; Def't. Exhibit #1-3, 5-7).

15. The documents marked as Government's Exhibit for Identification numbered 311 to 323, inclusive, were obtained by the Government from one Mr. Leonard J. Kannenberg, a professional receiver, on July 23, 1963. (Tr. 263-269; Def't. Ex. for Id. #12).

In view of all the aforesaid findings of fact, this Court further finds that the record contains sufficient evidence that the documents objected to above, or copies thereof, were not obtained by the Government through the execution of the search warrant subsequently held to have been invalid, as is charged by the defendant, for the reason that the Government's leads and follow-ups to these leads were obtained and developed independently of the execution of the aforementioned search warrant.

The Court has heard evidence on several occasions from the Government's witnesses, and especially takes note of the testimony of Schuelbach and Jackson.

Jackson testified that he developed the leads from the postal covers and that he did not use the illegally seized property in developing <sup>these</sup> leads. Mr. Schwalbach also testified that the leads were not used from the illegally seized <sup>evidence</sup> ~~testimony~~. This raises a question of the credibility of witnesses. The Court has heard these witnesses testify in open court, and is of the opinion that their testimony is credible, that no perjury has been committed by either of these agents, and therefore that there is sufficient evidence in this record to justify a finding that the leads used in producing the exhibits above mentioned were not tainted leads, but were leads that were procured elsewhere through the letter cover and not through the illegally seized evidence, and that the records of Altex Corporation did not flow from the seized copies of Midwest, but are an independent source of evidence which the Court in no instance has ever suppressed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that defendant, Frank Peter Belistrieri's aforementioned objections as to the admissibility of Government's Exhibits for identification numbered 311 to 323 inclusive, and as to the aforementioned testimony from Hila I. Jevett are hereby overruled. The exhibits and testimony are hereby admitted, subject however to defendant's standing objections as to materiality and relevancy.

Entered this 1st day of November, 1966.

The Director has inquired about a statement made in the captioned article which indicates that retired FBI Agent John A. Holtzman invoked the Fifth Amendment to avoid testifying about trespass allegedly committed in placing a microphone in the office of Milwaukee attorney Dominic Frinzi. Frinzi is a close associate of Wisconsin La Cosa Nostra "boss" Frank Balistrieri.

The article inaccurately reports that Holtzman's action occurred during a state hearing on a perjury case involving Kenosha, Wisconsin, hoodlum, William Covelli. Actually, Holtzman, during testimony in the income tax prosecution of Balistrieri in Springfield, Illinois, United States District Court, stated that if he were required to answer a question concerning trespass in connection with the Frinzi microphone, he would invoke the Fifth Amendment rather than answer. The presiding judge recessed the hearing in which Holtzman was testifying and the matter was discussed in chambers with Government and defense attorneys, following which Balistrieri's counsel withdrew the question. Attached is Mr. DeLoach's memorandum of October 19, 1966, which furnished the original details concerning this incident.

The general tenor of this article suggests that the Government's drive against organized crime has been hampered as a result of the Department's practice of disclosure of prior microphone surveillances and enumerates instances in which the Department has made such disclosures. It is quite apparent from reading the article that the writer has been in contact with Department representatives for source material. In one instance, the writer attributes to an unnamed Department official, a statement that a past technical coverage failed to produce significant information. Mr. DeLoach advised that this view has previously been expressed by former Attorney General Katzenbach during the meetings conducted by the President's Crime Commission. I Told KATzenbach And commissio

THIS WAS FALSE. - J

There is, of course, no question that the Department's disclosure of microphones and resultant discontinuance of same has hurt the organized crime program. In spite of this handicap, the FBI has had very substantial accomplishments in the arrest and conviction of a considerable number of very important La Cosa Nostra hoodlums for violations of various Federal statutes during this fiscal year. In addition to those convictions, we are already well ahead of our position this time last year in convictions under the various gambling statutes and on the basis of arrests or indictments totaling over 350, it can be anticipated that we will exceed our prior accomplishments in the gambling category this year. A number of major La Cosa Nostra gambling operations with nationwide ramifications have been smashed by the Bureau during the current fiscal year.

On April 18, 1966, we cooperated with the Crime Records Division in preparing and having published an article in the "U. S. News and World Report" setting forth highlights of our accomplishments in the drive against organized crime. This was most favorably received and was reported in the Congressional Record. We have similar fresh accomplishments which will lend themselves to an equally interesting article at this time.

ACTION:

If approved, we will prepare material in coordination with the Crime Records Division for publication, itemizing significant accomplishments made by the Bureau during the past year in our drive against organized crime with the view that such article could be published in the "U. S. News and World Report" or some similar vehicle so that our achievements in this field can be accurately set forth for the public.

Bugging Backlash Agents' Eavesdropping Hurts U.S. Campaign Against Racketeering

Tainted Evidence May Cause Loss of Some Convictions; Bobby Kennedy Behind It?

An FBI Man Takes the Fifth

Staff Reporter of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

WASHINGTON — As President Johnson commits his Administration to costly new combat against crime, an anticrime drive begun with similar fanfare by Robert F. Kennedy six years ago is sputtering to a standstill.

It is a casualty of the renewed controversy about electronic eavesdropping.

The campaign Bobby commanded as Attorney General was aimed at organized crime, and particularly the 24 "families" (criminal clans) said to dominate the Mafia. To it were committed millions of dollars and the investigative resources of 26 Federal agencies, chiefly the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service. Congress enacted six new antiracketeering statutes drawing the FBI more directly into the drive.

And, says Edwyn Silbering, once chief of the organized crime section under RFK, the Attorney General encouraged Federal agents to expand the use of electronic "bugging" apparatus.

Until a year ago, this drive seemed to be gaining ground. In March 1966, Assistant Attorney General Fred M. Vinson Jr., confidentially told Congress of "further progress and inroads against the criminal activities perpetrated by organized crime in the U.S."

IRS, FBI Ardor Cools

But now the bugging is having apparently crippling effects on the crime crusade. The IRS, shaken by testimony to a Senate subcommittee that several of its agents broke into private premises to plant microphones, is shying from combat against the mobs. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, angered by what he thinks is Mr. Kennedy's attempt to blame the bugging on the FBI, seems less disposed to cooperate with other enforcement agencies.

More threatening to prospects for future success, President Johnson has been persuaded (critics say "stampeded") to propose denying state and local lawmen the right to deploy eavesdropping gear. Most prosecutors and police chiefs insist its use is necessary to penetrate crime cartels.

One reason for the reaction against electronic listening by lawmen can be gleaned from preliminary testimony in a Springfield, Ill., tax-evasion trial that resumes today. The defendant is Frank Balistrieri.

IRS agents gathered evidence for the indictment, which charges that Mr. Balistrieri evaded taxes on income of $54,330, by using pad, pencil and shoeleather. Simultaneously, FBI agents employing different techniques were seeking intelligence about his suspected membership in a Wisconsin criminal syndicate. The story of their operations has been admitted by the Government in testimony already given in the judge's chambers.

Looking Through a Peephole

To begin with, the FBI agents rented an apartment in Milwaukee under the fictitious name "John A. Hansen." Across the hall lived Jennie Alioto, bookkeeper for several Balistrieri business enterprises. Through a peephole bored through the door of their rented residence, the agents kept track of her visitors. They also monitored conversations and other sounds beamed from a tiny radio transmitter hidden in her apartment.

Next the FBI broke into the law offices of Dominic Frinzi, an attorney for Mr. Balistrieri, to install a microphone in a ceiling fixture. Telephone lines from that mike were strung to FBI headquarters in the Federal building in Milwaukee. Herbert A. Stein, an executive of the Wisconsin Telephone Co., glanced inside the agents' monitoring room there on one occasion to observe "a tremendous maze of wiring, really."

Then, from March 9, 1964, through June 3, 1965, FBI men similarly bugged Mr. Balistrieri's jukebox sales agency. They dug deep enough into plaster paneling to hide a transistor mike the size of a cigaret pack and bearing code MI-616-C. (In FBI symbolism, "C" stands for electronic surveillance.)

In the headquarters recording room, agents monitored telephone lines from Mr. Balistrieri's place almost around the clock. They gathered 213 pages of transcribed conversation, mostly in the Sicilian dialect of Italian. Some were dispatched to Washington for translation.

Naturally Mr. Balistrieri's lawyers hope to spring him free on the ground that some evidence against him was tainted (evidence obtained by illegal bugging can't be used in Federal court) or because Government agents intruded upon confidential lawyer-client relations. But more is at stake.

FBI Agent Takes the Fifth

In Kenosha, Wis., lawyer Frinzi is defending William "Wheeler" Covelli against charges of perjury for denying visits to a jukebox distributor who later was kidnapped and killed. In that case, retired FBI agent John A. Holtzman has invoked the Fifth Amendment's protection against self-incrimination to avoid testifying about trespasses supposedly committed to plant the bug in Mr. Frinzi's office. Mr. Holtzman is now an Illinois state magistrate. In the same case the Justice Department has invoked the doctrine of executive privilege—a doctrine that communications within a Government agency are entitled to be kept private—to justify the silence of agent Joseph E. O'Connell, who says it "was my position to question my superior."

What about this?

COPY MADE FOR MR. TOLSON

ORIGINAL FILED IN 62-9-1066

Mr. O'Connell's ultimate superior is FBI Director Hoover and Mr. Hoover's superior at the time was Attorney General Kennedy. Mr. Hoover is seething—and not only because his men are being ridiculed ("Imagine a G-man taking the Fifth!" lawyer Frinzi exclaims), and investigated by the Wisconsin Bar Association, and sued for civil damages by Las Vegas casino-owners and others who were bugged. What rankles Mr. Hoover even more is Bobby Kennedy's disclaimer of knowledge about FBI "bugging practices" and his denial that he authorized, much less encouraged, illegal eavesdropping.

Mr. Hoover's position is that such "sparing, carefully controlled" bugging as did occur in Milwaukee and elsewhere not only was authorized but was "obviously increased at Mr. Kennedy's insistence." Former Assistant FBI Director Courtney Evans, liaison officer with the Attorney General's office, is siding with Sen. Kennedy. But Mr. Silberling, Bobby's original choice to head the organized crime section, has in effect become a Hoover ally.

Sitting in his Mineola, N.Y., law office, Mr. Silberling recalls a meeting attended by Messrs. Kennedy and Evans in 1961. "There was a discussion of the organized crime program," he remembers. "Kennedy said: 'I want you to use more of these technical devices,' or he may have used the phrase, 'technical equipment.' The conclusion I drew was simple—more use of electronic devices that were available and on the market at that time . . . Kennedy was putting pressure on the investigative agencies. 'You're not producing,' he'd say. 'Where the heck is the stuff?'"

For the moment, the Hoover-Kennedy confrontation is muted. But it may well flare when Congress begins considering Lyndon Johnson's proposal to prohibit listening to conversations, by mechanical or electronic means, except in national security cases, without the consent of one party. Sen. Kennedy intends to unveil an alternate approach shortly.

The Administration plan would reinforce restraints on Federal agents (a Presidential order already bars Federal bugging except in national security cases). It also would strike down state statutes such as New York's, which permit court-controlled eavesdrops and use of evidence so obtained in court.

Bugging Proponents' Views

With such a prohibition, law enforcement couldn't reach gang lords who commit crimes by proxy through layers of subordinates, say proponents of legalized listening-in. New York District Attorney Frank S. Hogan regards electronic surveillance as the "single most valuable weapon to fight organized crime."

Former Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach expressed similar views last year. "It is important to have legal wiretapping at the local and state level," he told Congress, particularly to unmask crimes on which the Mafia feeds, notably extortion, bribery, narcotics peddling and gambling. The syndicate's gambling profits alone are estimated at over $5 billion annually.

If the Justice Department keeps confessing fresh examples of illegal eavesdropping to the courts, Mr. Johnson's proposed ban may gain further favor in Congress. So far the Government has owned up to 12 unwarranted surveillances by FBI agents and one by the IRS, all undertaken in pursuit of Mr. Kennedy's crime crusade. "There will be more, perhaps a good many more," a Justice Department official predicts. Moreover, an undisclosed number of promising prosecutions are not being presented to grand juries because investigatory leads gleaned from illegal bugs taint the cases.

Because evidence used at trial was obtained illegally, the Government has petitioned the courts to vacate the convictions of Pasquale Borgese, a New York bookmaker whose annual gross allegedly approached $5 million, and Joseph "Joe Ship" Schipani of Brooklyn, identified by Senate investigators as a "soldier" in the Mafia group headed by Giuseppe Magliocco.

Poor Coordination

"Soldier" Schipani, sentenced to three years for tax evasion, owes his good fortune in part to poor coordination among Federal enforcement agencies. While under IRS scrutiny for the tax evasion of which he was convicted, he was bugged by the FBI and by agents of the IRS' own alcohol and tobacco tax division. Bookie Borgese was already an FBI organized-crime suspect when the IRS tapped phones he frequently used.

In most other instances of admitted trespass to plant bugs, the Government claims it learned nothing of consequence. Thus, it contends there is no reason to vacate criminals' convictions. In such cases, the Justice Department is contending to appeals courts, convicts' rights are protected by giving them an opportunity in lower court to disprove the Government's claim or otherwise to persuade a judge that the trial wasn't fair.

"It's ironic," one official reflects, "all this bugging flap and most of the time we got nothing."

Whatever the accuracy of that plaintive observation, organized-crime suspects who have been convicted of various Federal offenses and now have a chance to wriggle free include Louis "the Fox" Taglianetti, a Rhode Island gambler; Ronald Carabbia, a numbers-game "banker" in Youngstown, Ohio; and the DeNiro brothers, Frank, Michael and Louis. The last three were convicted of evading taxes on the $400,000 estate of brother Vincent, a rackets boss in Youngstown, who was killed by an exploding bomb in his car.

Many Convictions Not Imperiled

The bugging backlash is not, of course, completely undoing the anticrime drive. Dozens of convictions against underworld notables are not imperiled because there was no illegal eavesdropping. Some of these criminals were caught by a strategy devised by Attorney General Kennedy. Because longtime racketeers carefully avoid overt criminal acts, he believed, they must be nailed if possible for piddling offenses.

Thus Lawrence Gallo in Brooklyn went to jail for filing a false statement to obtain a Veterans Administration-insured home loan. Joe Suppa was sentenced for bugging too many birds during the Kansas hunting season. Frank "Hot Dog" Lisclandrello of Chicago was convicted of failing to pay a special tax required of retail liquor dealers. Last November FBI men whisked two dozen gamblers off a cruise ship on charges of violating an almost-forgotten law making it a crime for any U.S. citizen to set up gambling shop on the high seas.

Harassment by any available means, along with prosecution on major charges, has hurt but surely hasn't crippled the criminal gangs. "Efforts to curb the growth of organized crime in America have not been successful," the National Crime Commission told President Johnson last month.

In turn, the inability of Federal, state and local governments to stamp out syndicate operations makes it doubly difficult to control the general crime rate. The availability of narcotics, smuggled in by racketeer rings, to cite one example, causes many addicts to roam city streets stealing the dollars necessary to satisfy their constant craving.

MICROPHONE INFORMATION

I want to bring to your attention two recent instances in which the failure to afford proper protection to information contained in logs of electronic surveillance has had highly undesirable results.

The first of these concerns a Federal income tax case involving Frank Peter Balistreri, a Milwaukee hoodlum, which case currently has been in trial before a Federal District Judge at Springfield, Illinois. This matter involved electronic surveillances by the Bureau and logs of such installations, including one on Dominic Frinzi, a Milwaukee attorney, were furnished to the Department. / -

The log on Frinzi was furnished to the Judge in the Balistreri case and was subsequently released by him to defense counsel without any restriction being placed on its use by them. Frinzi is an attorney of record for Balistreri. Information was subsequently received to the effect that Frinzi contemplated filing a suit against the Wisconsin Telephone Company, the landlord of the building in which his office was located in Milwaukee and possible prosecutive action against Bureau personnel, based on the electronic surveillance of his office. Details of this were set forth in my memoranda to you of November 28, 1966, under the captions "Frank Peter Balistreri, Anti-Racketeering" and "Eustiano Veto Balestrere, Anti-Racketeering."

The second instance involves a log turned over to Department attorneys in the [redacted] Conflict of Interest, Fraud Against the Government" case concerning conversations of [redacted] DEC 8 1966

Although a protective order was issued by the court concerning such conversations, information concerning them was later obtained by a representative of the press and they were also referred to in a [redacted] column appearing in the "Washington Post and Times Herald" newspaper, December 2, 1966.

The Acting Attorney General

It is readily apparent that considerable harm has resulted from the highly sensitive information in microphone logs coming into the possession of members of the press and other unauthorized individuals. It is felt that extreme care should be exercised to avoid improper disclosure of such information through the procuring of effective protective orders. Furthermore, where there has been a breach of such order or restriction imposed by the court, it is felt that prompt action should be taken to obtain appropriate sanctions against individuals responsible for such improper actions.

In connection with the current trials of Milwaukee hoodlum, Frank Peter Balistrieri, and of [redacted] instances have occurred when information as to our microphone coverage, which has been furnished to Department representatives and subsequently to the court has come into the possession of other individuals and has been exploited for personal purposes or has formed the basis for publicity unfavorable to the FBI.

One of these involved a microphone surveillance of Dominic Frinzi, a Milwaukee attorney, who is also one of the defense counsel for Balistrieri and the other concerned microphone covering [redacted]

In Balistrieri case, there was a failure to obtain the court's instructions to afford the information proper security and in the [redacted] matter, there apparently was a leak from defense counsel Edward Bennett Williams.

ACTION:

There is attached for approval a letter to the Acting Attorney General pointing out the lack of security and proper handling and suggesting that action be taken to impose sanctions on the individuals responsible for improperly utilizing sensitive microphone information furnished to the Department and the courts.

DETAILS: As noted in local press releases in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI'S Federal income tax trial began on October 17, 1966, in United States District Court at Springfield, Illinois, on a change of venue from the Eastern District of Wisconsin at Milwaukee.

The trial was recessed on November 16, 1966 and is scheduled to resume on December 1, 1966. During the course of the trial the Government acknowledged the existence of FBI electronic surveillances in Milwaukee which counsel for BALISTRIERI is attempting to show as having been used directly or indirectly in the Internal Revenue Service income tax investigation of BALISTRIERI and [REDACTED] and that any information derived from such sources is tainted and inadmissible.

b6

On October 14, 1966, MI T-1 advised that [REDACTED] continues to [REDACTED] FRANK BALISTRIERI'S businesses and that [REDACTED] PETE BALISTRIERI'S residence on North Jackson Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

FRANK BALISTRIERI'S DOWNTOWN MILWAUKEE NIGHT CLUBS

On September 9, 1966, MI-T-4 furnished the following information:

RAY CHARLES and his orchestra appeared at BALISTRIERI'S Milwaukee night club known as the Scene beginning the night of September 9, 1966, for a six-night engagement. Rumors have circulated that FRANK BALISTRIERI signed a contract for $20,000 to cover RAY CHARLES' engagement here. There were also unconfirmed reports that there may have been a $2,000 reduction in this contract price by a giving up of an agent's commission which would bring the cut of the contract down to $18,000.

The informant said that FRANK BALISTRIERI is apparently trying to go too big with a band of this caliber, which is very costly, and high-priced entertainment is financially risky at BALISTRIERI'S night clubs.

On September 16, 1966, MI T-2 advised as follows:

Of late, BALISTRIERI'S night clubs the Scene and Ad Lib have been doing good business. Two booking agents, [REDACTED] (phonetic) and one (FNU) [REDACTED] (phonetic) are

b6

MI 94-316

apparently the persons through whom BALISTRERI obtained some of his higher priced entertainment at his clubs. Although not definitely known, these two individuals may be working through "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO, a Chicago, Illinois hoodlum. These two individuals stayed at the Schroeder Hotel in Milwaukee while RAY CHARLES was appearing at the Scene. The RAY CHARLES engagement at the Scene reportedly cost $18,000.

GAMBLING

On November 8, 1966, MI T-3 furnished the following breakdown of what is considered the principle betting operations in Milwaukee, controlled by FRANK BALISTRERI from which BALISTRERI would get a cut of any profits:

STEVE DE SALVO is in charge of the gambling which pays off to FRANK BALISTRERI. This includes the so-called "The Office", location unknown. Likewise, the source of any principle sports betting lines coming into Milwaukee are unknown to the informant. Sheriff CEFALU works in "The Office", and young SAM DENTICE is a runner. DE SALVO supervises all of the operations.

There are at least three or four groups of bookies in the Milwaukee area who are paying a percentage to FRANK BALISTRERI. In a general way, because of their associations with each other, the following are identified with the several groups involved in this gambling operation:

FRANK SANSONE, and JOE PISCIUNE, these two operate together and they allegedly pay twenty-five per cent of their profits to FRANK BALISTRERI. SANSONE operates from his residence in Fox Point, Wisconsin, a Milwaukee suburb. Informant did not know of any particulars of the gambling operations of PISCIUNE; LOUIS FAZIO, one of the FAZIO brothers at the night club known as Fazio's on Fifth Street in Milwaukee. (There have been conflicting reports as to whether or not LOUIS FAZIO actually takes in bets or does any booking and he may be a heavy better rather than a commercial gambler).

What appears to be another group in this operation are TOM MACHI, who is single and lives on Oakland Avenue, Milwaukee; TONY PETROLLE, who may be taking bets by phone at his home on the southwest side of Milwaukee; and ANDY MACHI, who is the son of TONY PETROLLE.

A third possible group of these gamblers are SAM LIBRIZZI, who may operate out of his house; SAM CEFALU, who is a cousin of Sheriff CEFALU and apparently takes bets in local taverns and from among customers on the street; and possibly FRED AVENI, concerning whom the source can furnish no further specifics.

MISCELLANEOUS

On October 10, 1966, MI T-3 advised that information came to his attention that FRANK BALISTRERI, who is married and residing with his wife, recently dated a girl who is or was [redacted] in Milwaukee.

b6
b7c

On September 13, 1966, MI T-3 furnished the following information:

VINCENT DE SALVO, father of STEVE DE SALVO, died of natural causes at West Allis, Wisconsin, and was buried on September 7, 1966. FRANK BALISTRERI, among other hoodlums, was present at the wake or funeral.

This is to record results of conference held on the afternoon of November 10, 1966, in the office of Assistant Attorney General Rogovin of the Tax Division. Present from Mr. Rogovin's Division were  the latter being the trial attorney handling the prosecution of the income tax matter against captioned subject in Springfield, Illinois. Bureau representatives in attendance at this conference were Assistant to the Director DeLoach, Assistant Director Gale and Supervisor A. A. Staffeld.

Rogovin opened the conference by indicating he thought it advantageous to discuss some of the issues which the prosecution expected to be confronted with during the ensuing week in the trial of this matter. He pointed out that one of the two principal matters of concern is the insistence on the part of the defense that personnel who participated in the monitoring of the three sources be subpoenaed and questioned with respect to their recollection of information recorded in the logs while monitoring these installations. The defense counsel has inferred that it is quite possible these monitoring employees may have heard something significant to the tax trial but did not make a record of it in view of the jeopardy such may cause. The defense counsel, therefore, would like to cross examine the employees in an effort to refresh their recollection.

It was very firmly pointed out to Rogovin and the other Departmental personnel that the calling of these many clerks and Agents would not only be inadvisable but absolutely useless due to the passage of time and that under such conditions certainly nothing could be gained by the defense toward bolstering their weak belief. As a result of these discussions, Rogovin agreed that the calling of these witnesses would certainly serve little or no purpose and that satisfying the defense counsel in this regard appeared to be a legal matter which the Departmental attorneys must resolve. Efforts would be made in this regard for the purpose of avoiding the subpoena of the 23 FBI monitors.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Anti-Racketeering

The other issue to which the conference addressed itself was the insistence that defense counsel has for the calling of the past three Milwaukee Special Agents in Charge for the purpose of establishing whether or not sources in addition to the three already admitted might have been in existence which had any relationship to Balistrieri.

It was pointed out to the Department personnel that the present SAC is the Bureau's custodian of records in the Milwaukee Office and that as such he can conduct a thorough review and testify before the Court that these three sources are the only sources having any relationship whatsoever to the names or places listed in the indictment who are significant to this income tax matter. It was also pointed out that the SAC of the Milwaukee Office is in a position to testify with respect to the manner in which the logs and other records of these sources are administratively maintained and that this too may be of assistance in avoiding not only the subpoenaing of the 23 monitoring employees but the former SACs of the Milwaukee Office as well.

Rogovin and his assistants considered this to be a very satisfactory means of meeting some of the demands placed by the defense counsel in this case. Rogovin instructed that Department Attorney [ ] proceed to Milwaukee for conferences with SAC Fields at 9:00 a.m., Monday, November 14. It was anticipated that during this conference the details would be worked out with regard to the appearance of SAC Fields in Springfield for the purpose of testimony during the week of November 14, 1966.

ACTION

SAC Fields of the Milwaukee Office was telephonically advised of the conference had with the Department and the matters discussed with them. He was advised specifically of our efforts to circumvent the defense's demand for the appearance of past Milwaukee SACs as well as the 23 monitoring personnel utilized by the Milwaukee Office in the past years. It was pointed out to him how the Department is anticipating that such may be avoided and he was advised to be available for conference Information from this same source which is contained on Page 6 of FD-143 in the BALISTRIERI matter dated 1/22/62, appears in the report of SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN at Milwaukee dated 2/20/62 on Page 22 of the report.

In brief, the information obtained from this source on 12/26/61 pertains to [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The information obtained from this source as set out in FD-143 dated March 30, 1962 pertains to information to the effect that FRANK BALISTRIERI [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Further details regarding this particular information appear in the enclosed Xerox copies of FD-143s and the reports of SA HOLTZMAN referred to above.

As far as can be determined from the Milwaukee files, the above identified information was furnished orally to IRS by SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN, retired, and does not indicate the identities of any IRS personnel at Milwaukee to whom it was furnished or the specific dates on which it was furnished. There is no indication that these investigative reports by SA HOLTZMAN were ever furnished to IRS.

A thorough review of logical Milwaukee files revealed only the above two instances to indicate dissemination was made to IRS in this matter. However, in Milwaukee airtel to the Bureau, BUfile 58-5008 dated 2/20/62, captioned "FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI; JOHN ENGLER, JR., BRIBERY," it is reported on Page 2 conversation with IRS Inspector [REDACTED] in which apparent reference to our "informant" was made. This communication reports that in conversation with IRS Inspector [REDACTED] SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN (now retired) advised [REDACTED] that any further inquiry made by IRS concerning a "quarterly report" would possibly jeopardize the Bureau's "informant" in this matter because these words were specifically reported by our informant and is a terminology not familiar to most individuals. [ ] was cautioned by SA HOLTZMAN that if he persisted in the inquiry to employ [ ] about a quarterly report, it could result in compromising the informant.

As will be noted in the above mentioned bribery case, [ ] was an IRS employee who was allegedly approached by FRANK BALISTRIERI to obtain reports or documents of interest to BALISTRIERI from the Milwaukee Regional Office of IRS, and in connection with this there was mention made of a "quarterly report".

b6
b7C

A thorough review of Milwaukee files pertaining to this matter does not indicate any dissemination to IRS other than set forth above. There is no other record of any written dissemination being made by the Milwaukee Office to the Milwaukee Office of IRS, it being noted that investigative reports in this matter were, of course, disseminated to the local office of the USA and information from [ ] was included in such reports covered by appropriate T symbols.

b7E

Regarding [ ] a thorough review of all the logical Milwaukee files in this matter has revealed no written or oral dissemination to IRS locally. In addition, as to any other technical sources other than the three sources referred to above, a review of logical Milwaukee files revealed no other technical installation sources which might deal with pertinent information pertaining to the BALISTRIERI enterprises.

It does not appear from a review of information obtained from [ ] and disseminated to IRS is germane to the tax case of FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI which is to commence in USDC, Springfield, Illinois, 10/17/66.

DIVISION 9

FROM: SAC, MILWAUKEE (66-950)

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
AR

Re MI-airtel 11/21/66.

It is noted Bureau advice was received during week of 11/20/66 that [REDACTED] Departmental tax attorney, would come to Milwaukee 11/23 or 29/66 to discuss with SAC, Milwaukee, indications on the part of defense attorney WALSH that he contemplated calling as witnesses FBI personnel who had taken part in the monitoring of DOMINIC FRINZI, during electronic surveillance of FRINZI. It was noted to Bureau that Milwaukee previously advised Bureau that the known monitors on FRINZI surveillance would be limited to 3 or 4 people. In checking FRINZI logs and discussing identities of possible monitors with Milwaukee personnel, it was determined that the regular monitoring was divided between SA [REDACTED] and SE [REDACTED] usually 2 shifts per day. It was also noted that retired SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN was indicated on some of the logs as the monitor. In addition, SA [REDACTED] advises that he infrequently participated in the FRINZI monitoring as a substitute when one of the regular monitors was absent. None of the current personnel specifically recall any other individual participating as a monitor but SAs [REDACTED] advise that other agent personnel handling cases in this field could have been occasionally utilized for a day when one of the regular monitors was absent. All 3 personnel have specifically viewed the FRINZI logs and all advise they cannot recall from viewing the logs which ones were typed by a particular monitor. All 3 also advise they do not recall, from viewing FRINZI logs, any additional data that might have been listened to at time but not reported on logs in view of its non-pertinence.

On 11/29/66 [ ] called Milwaukee Office from Springfield, Ill. [ ] advised government attorneys met with defense attorney WALSH during morning to determine how WALSH intended to proceed when the BALISTRERI trial resumes at 10 a.m. 11/30/66. WALSH told [ ] that he intended to request court permission to "probe" the FBI logs concerning the FRINZI electronic surveillance. [ ] stated WALSH is interested in securing court approval to subpoena some or all Bureau employees involved in FRINZI monitoring. According to [ ] he advised WALSH it was reasonable to assume that some of the 23 monitors of the BALISTRERI surveillance likewise monitored the FRINZI surveillance but that the number of monitors on the FRINZI surveillance probably numbered no more than 3 or 4. [ ] stated WALSH advised he was not interested in having all 23 Bureau employees subpoenaed but did actually want to determine from the FBI the names of the Bureau employees who handled the FRINZI monitoring.

[ ] advised he had discussed this situation previously with Bureau and it had been indicated that Milwaukee Office would endeavor to furnish names of those individuals who, in all probability, did the monitoring, although specific individuals are not identified on the FRINZI logs. [ ] stated he desired to obtain the names of monitors since the trial resumes on 11/30/66 and he wanted to have the names available in the event WALSH definitely moves in the direction of subpoenaing the FBI personnel, although he was not certain at this time that WALSH would insist on this procedure.

b6

SAC, Milwaukee, subsequently, pursuant to Bureau approval, contacted [ ] telephonically to furnish him the 4 names noted above, including retired SA JOHN A. HOLTZMAN, who [ ] recalled as having previously testified in the current tax case. During this conversation [ ] advised it had just been learned that defense attorney WALSH has suffered a coronary thrombosis and has been taken to the hospital. He advised a report on WALSH's condition is not expected before Saturday, 12/3/66. [ ] commented that even a mild coronary usually required several weeks recuperation, so it would be indefinite now as to when the trial would re-commence. He stated the jury has been advised not to return to court until further notice and added that he would try to keep SAC, Milwaukee, advised as to pertinent developments in this matter, including any further indication that the FRINZI monitors would be called to testify.

Subsequently, on 11/29/66, [redacted] Wis. Telephone Co., telephonically contacted SAC, Milwaukee. [redacted] advised the TV and newspaper reporters had been bringing considerable pressure on the Telephone Co. and had visited the public relations office at the company to question Telephone Co. officials as to the company's position re possible ordinance making wire tapping a criminal offense, even when done by Government representatives. He stated numerous questions have been put to the company re their intended policy in the future as to allowing Government agencies to utilize telephone lines in perpetration of electronic surveillances, etc. [redacted] stated that so far the company has more or less stalled the news media by indicating company officials would need to review policy considerations as to what might be done in the future and on many of the questions giving the reporters more or less "no comment." [redacted] stated that pressure has indirectly been placed against the Telephone Co. through the organization of a committee under the Wisconsin and Milwaukee Bar Assns. to investigate electronic surveillance of DOMINIC FRINZI, a Milwaukee attorney, as testified to by FBI personnel in current tax trial in Springfield. According to [redacted] representatives of both the Journal and Sentinel newspapers and several radio and TV stations have been contacting company officials for statements and asking numerous questions in this regard.

[redacted] stated that the Telephone Co. certainly did not want to take any action which placed the FBI in an embarrassing position, but he wanted to let SAC, Milwaukee, know that if the pressure continued to mount, it may become necessary for the company to make some sort of policy statement to the press concerning future procedures. In the event this occurs, [ ] stated the top officials in the company have concluded that they necessarily have to indicate that the company policy in the future will preclude making available leased lines to any agency. This would, in effect, indicate that only regular subscriber lines would be furnished in the future. [ ] advised that he recognized such a policy might at some future date interfere with an important investigative matter obviously and directly affecting the national security or life or death, such as in a kidnaping case, but any policy statement now would not prevent consideration being given the situation should such an important matter arise in the future.

b7C

SAC, Milwaukee, advised [ ] this office understands the position in which the Telephone Co. has been placed in regard to electronic surveillance matters, and certainly does not desire to suggest what the Telephone Co. should or should not do in regard to its policies concerning leased lines. SAC pointed out that important and urgent matters might well arise in the future wherein the national security would be immediately and directly involved, and SAC would like to feel that any necessary arrangements might be discussed with Telephone Co. officials in such event. [ ] assured SAC that this could be done and further that the company would do its best to avoid having to make any public commitment such as indicated above. [ ] added that the Telephone Co. desired to avoid having any such policy statement made without first advising SAC, Milwaukee, of the possibility of this taking place. [ ] was thanked for his consideration in this matter.

Bureau will be kept advised concerning any pertinent developments re the tax trial at Springfield or the current situation involving the Telephone Co. and press media.

ARReMitel 12-1-66, captioned "WILLIAM COVELLI, IGA, Bufile 162-777," and Butelcall to SAC, Milwaukee, and MI telcall to Bureau 12-2-66, instant.

Retel contained information concerning discussion between USA James E. Brennan and the AAG, Fred Vinson, Jr., concerning any restrictions placed by Judge Poos in BALISTRIERI tax case re use of FRINZI electronic coverage logs by defense. USA Brennan on 12-1-66, requested [redacted] Departmental Attorney now located at Springfield, to review transcripts and also discuss with Judge Poos question of restrictions.

This matter further discussed by SAC, Milwaukee with USA Brennan, 12-2-66, relating particularly to whether Defense Attorney WALSH made the FRINZI surveillance logs available to FRINZI, and whether this was proper, and as to whether the court put any restrictions on FRINZI in regard to use of these logs in any other capacity than in defense of BALISTRIERI. USA Brennan advised that [redacted] had reviewed the transcripts concerning all discussions and references relating to these logs and had also discussed this aspect with Judge Poos. Brennan stated that originally, the court turned over to the Defense for use in defense of BALISTRIERI the logs and other material relating to BALISTRIERI, himself [redacted]. The court, of course, cautioned all attorneys involved not to discuss this material outside the court. Subsequently, specific inquiries by Defense Attorney WALSH elicited information that a third surveillance had been undertaken, with Departmental approval. Departmental Attorney Rogovin admitted in court that the third surveillance concerned a lawyer, but the person surveilled was not identified. The FRINZI logs, which had been furnished to [redacted] per Bureau instructions, had been placed in the custody of the court.

According to USA Brennan, Attorney WALSH, during in camera discussions, demanded to know the identity of the lawyer and specifically asked if it was Attorney FRINZI. At this juncture, the Departmental Attorneys discussed the matter with the Department and also with Judge Poos (who was aware all along of FRINZI's identity), after which Judge Poos decided that the Defense should have the FRINZI logs, and the Department agreed, including the identity of FRINZI. A copy of the FRINZI logs was given to Attorney WALSH, one was retained by the court, and a copy was kept by Mr. Rogovin. Brennan advised that no restrictions were placed by Judge Poos on the Defense concerning its use of the FRINZI logs -- expressed or implied. According to Brennan, WALSH subsequently brought out FRINZI's name in court and when FRINZI was contacted by press media, he admitted he was the lawyer who had been surveilled.

USA Brennan advised that Judge Poos and all of the prosecuting staff, including [redacted] have assumed that Attorney WALSH immediately made the logs available to FRINZI as the latter was also a lawyer of record in the BALISTRIERI case, and had complete access to the logs.

USA Brennan advised that after reviewing the transcript of testimony in the case and discussing the matter with Judge Poos, and after this aspect had again been discussed with the Department, it was concluded that there were no court restrictions to prevent FRINZI from using information from the FRINZI log, even in proceedings outside the BALISTRIERI case, such as in the local WILLIAM COVELLI trial in Kenosha. USA Brennan stated Attorney FRINZI's actions in the COVELLI case were reviewed with Judge Poos and the Judge indicates he thinks FRINZI is idiotic to try to use this log information outside the BALISTRIERI case in view of the unfavorable information therein pertaining to FRINZI, but raised no objection if FRINZI wants to embarrass himself publicly.

Brennan stated that based on [redacted] transcript review, discussion with Judge Poos and discussion with the Department, there appears to be no basis for contempt action or other order from the Springfield court to prevent FRINZI's use of the information contained in the FRINZI log, and it would appear that FRINZI could even make a public record of the log if he desired.

It is noted MIAirtel to Bureau 12-1-66 set forth information concerning a hearing scheduled for 12-5-66 by the Milwaukee City Council to consider a proposed ordinance banning the use of wire tapping and containing criminal sanctions covering both local and federal officials. Information received by SAC, Milwaukee, 12-1-66, indicated an invitation to this hearing would be received by SAC, Milwaukee, among other officials.

On 12-2-66, written invitation dated 12-1-66 on letterhead of Office of the City Clerk, City of Milwaukee, was received by mail at Milwaukee office inviting SAC to above-mentioned hearing 12-5-66 at 10:30 A.M., which hearing would be held by Alderman [redacted] Chairman, Committee on Judiciary-Legislation. The number of the proposed ordinance was given as 66-2531. The Bureau has been previously advised that SAC, Milwaukee, does not contemplate attending the scheduled hearing.

b7c

On 12-2-66, USA Brennan advised SAC, Milwaukee, that he had heard of the scheduled hearing but had as yet not received any invitation, himself. He advised that since the proposed ordinance appears to contain criminal penalties covering federal officials as well as local or state officials in regard to wire tapping activity, he contemplated discussing the matter with the Department as to whether anyone from the U. S. Attorney's office should attend the hearing. He felt at this time that no one from USA's office would be in attendance.

Foregoing for Bureau's information. Subsequent developments in regard to this matter will be furnished to the Bureau.

In recent action by Dominic Frinzi, one of Balistrieri's attorneys on whom we had coverage, to utilize this fact for dismissal of state perjury charges against his client William Covelli. Government made motions before Judge Poos to restrict use of logs, which were denied. State judge hearing Covelli matter postponed case until December 28, 1966, and will further postpone, if necessary, until Balistrieri tax trial concluded. If Agent who participated in Frinzi microphone surveillance meanwhile required to appear in Covelli case, United States Attorney's office will invoke executive privilege to prevent this testimony. ReMI-airtel 12/2/66.

On 12/5/66 USA JAMES B. BRENNAN, EDW, advised SAC, Milwaukee, that Judge POOS, presiding in current BALISTRIERI tax case at Springfield, has granted a 90-day postponement to 3/1/67. USA BRENNAN advised that the court has ordered the defense attorneys by 1/15/67 to furnish to the prosecution and court their program as to what they intend to present in regard to the defense motion to suppress evidence. Hearing on this aspect has been set for 2/1/67 and the prosecution may then respond to arguments presented by the defense for the motion. USA BRENNAN advised that the prosecution hopes to conclude action in regard to suppression prior to the 3/1/67 trial resumption date.

USA BRENNAN further advised that AUSA [redacted] had made two motions to the court, (1) to restrict the use of any electronic surveillance logs concerning the 3 established surveillances to the BALISTRIERI case alone, which the court denied, and, (2) to restrict the use of these logs at least until the completion of the BALISTRIERI tax trial. The court also denied this motion. This action of the court appears to confirm the status of DOMINIC FRINZI's contemplated use of FRINZI logs outside the BALISTRIERI tax case, referred to in re-airtel.

In regard to scheduled re-appearance of witnesses at the state trial of WILLIAM COVELLI for perjury set for 12/28/66, it is noted that the previous subpoena was continued in effect,

Frinzi Seeks Election to State's High Court

Atty. Dominic H. Frinzi announced Wednesday that he would run for the state supreme court next spring against Chief Justice George R. Currie. Frinzi, who ran for governor in 1964 and 1966 as a Democrat and was defeated each time in the primary, said he would make age an issue in the campaign. Frinzi is 45. Currie will be 67 on Jan. 16.

An attorney for 15 years, Frinzi will be making his first try for a judicial post.

Frinzi said: "I am a younger man. Currie won't be able to serve a full 10 year term because of the requirement that justices retire at age 70. People should elect me because of that. Otherwise, they will have the cost of another election."

"I also will make an issue of the fact that Currie voted with the majority in the Braves' case," Frinzi said.

He referred to the supreme court's decision overturning the finding of Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller that baseball violated the state antitrust law in permitting transfer of the club to Atlanta.

The supreme court voted 4 to 3 to overturn Judge Roller's decision.

Frinzi was born in Milwaukee and now lives at 7304 W. Wisconsin av., Wauwatosa. He attended Marquette university and was admitted to the bar after passing its examination. Frinzi has had a general legal practice, including a number of widely publicized criminal cases.

100,000 votes in the 1964 primary against Gov. Reynolds. Frinzi ran third in a field of four in the 1966 primary, which was won by Lt. Gov. Lucey.

Frinzi said he would begin his campaign at once and probably would hold a news conference Friday in Madison. Frank Campenni, who was prominent in both his campaigns for governor, again will manage the Frinzi campaign.

Frinzi Asks City to Ban Wire Taps

Atty. Dominic H. Frinzi Monday urged the common council's judiciary committee to recommend adoption of an ordinance to prohibit wire tapping or bugging of private conversations.

Frinzi spoke in support of an ordinance proposed by Ald. Mark W. Ryan. Frinzi said he was outraged because testimony in the tax evasion trial of Frank P. Balistrieri, Milwaukee night club operator, revealed that the FBI used an electronic eavesdropping device to pick up conversations in Frinzi's law office.

The attorney said the ordinance was needed to "keep a police state from existing."

"A microphone was placed in our office leading to a cable going direct to the FBI," Frinzi said.

The eavesdropping took place from Apr. 22 to Oct. 2, 1963, he said, adding:

"Some of the most confidential relationships were bugged by the FBI."

Also supporting the ordinance was Jacob F. Friedrich, president of the Milwaukee County Labor council.

"This evil is so widespread that legislation must come," he said. "It ought to come from the government closest to the people."

William J. Mulligan, an attorney for the Wisconsin Telephone Co., said his firm did not oppose the ordinance. But he said such a law would need some exceptions to enable the telephone company to service, for instance, long distance calls and check wires being repaired.

Mulligan also asked the committee to consider whether it should act on the ordinance before congress completed a study of possible legislation in the same field.

The committee voted to lay over the matter for six weeks to obtain additional information.

Frinzi Urges Bugging Ordinance

A lawyer whose office was bugged by the federal bureau of investigation urged the adoption Monday of a city ordinance which would prohibit wire tapping of private conversations.

Atty. Dominic H. Frinzi told a common council committee that bugging conversations between a lawyer and his client was "no different than putting a microphone in a confessional or in the doctor's office."

(During the tax evasion trial of Frank P. Balistreri, Milwaukee night club operator, the FBI acknowledged that it had used an electronic eavesdropping device to listen in on conversations in Frinzi's office. Balistreri was a client of Frinzi.)

"I'm outraged," Frinzi said of the bugging. "Some of the most confidential relationships were bugged—even conversations between my wife and my children and myself."

The council's judiciary committee is considering an ordinance proposed by Ald. Mark W. Ryan which would outlaw such practices.

Frinzi, who said his office was bugged from Apr. 22 to Oct. 2, 1963, said the ordinance was necessary to prevent a "police state."

Jacob F. Friedrich, president of the Milwaukee County Labor Council, said the ordinance was a very necessary piece of legislation.

"This evil is so widespread that legislation will come," he said. "It ought to come from the government closest to the people."

Atty. William J. Mulligan, representing the Wisconsin Telephone Co., said the company would not oppose the ordinance, provided it had "adequate exceptions to cover our normal operations."

He mentioned long distance calls placed through an operator, verification of busy signals and repair checks as situations which would need to be exempted.

He questioned whether the city should adopt an antibugging ordinance while similar national legislation is being contemplated by congress.

The committee agreed to consider the matter again in six weeks, after additional information was obtained.

WILLIAM COVELLI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

In my memorandum to you of December 5, 1966, reference was made to receipt of a report that Dominic Frinzi, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who is one of the defense attorneys for Milwaukee hoodlum Frank Peter Balistrieri, intended to seek dismissal of state perjury charges against his client William Covelli and had filed a motion to suppress based on the fact that the FBI had an electronic surveillance on Frinzi's office during the time he was acting as attorney for this defendant. We advised you concerning our electronic coverage of Frinzi in connection with the pending income tax trial of Balistrieri in Springfield, Illinois.

Mr. Leroy Dalton, Assistant Attorney General, State of Wisconsin, contacted our Milwaukee Office on December 9, 1966, concerning information Frinzi might have received from FBI data relative to the electronic surveillance of his office. Mr. Dalton mentioned that in the motion to suppress, which has been set for hearing in State Circuit Court, Kenosha, Wisconsin, December 28, 1966, in the case involving Covelli, Frinzi avers that admissions were made in the Balistrieri tax trial concerning this coverage. In this regard, it is noted that FBI personnel did not identify Frinzi in their testimony during the Balistrieri trial. Frinzi's identity was disclosed by defense attorney Maurice Walsh after the defense had received the log of the Frinzi electronic coverage.

Mr. Dalton said information had come to his attention which was attributed to [redacted] also a defense attorney for Balistrieri, to the effect that Frinzi allegedly has information concerning some type of FBI report which was made available to Wisconsin state authorities. Mr. Dalton said his office was concerned as to whether any documents to which Frinzi might have had access in the Balistrieri tax case would indicate such information. report or data. Mr. Dalton was advised that we had not furnished any data to Frinzi and that any material made available to the defense in the Balistrieri case would have been handled by Department attorneys and the United States District Judge in Springfield, Illinois.

Mr. Dalton advised that Wisconsin State Attorney General LaFollette felt that efforts should be made to overcome the motion to suppress filed by Frinzi in the Covelli case and that an attempt should be made to determine what data Frinzi has to support his motion. Dalton said the State Attorney General's office may contact the Department and possibly Judge Poos at Springfield to determine what light can be shed on this situation and also to find out what restrictions, if any, Judge Poos may have placed on the use of Government information by defense attorneys outside of the Balistrieri case.

Re Milwaukee airtel, 12/5/66; and Milwaukee telephone call to Bureau, 12/9/66.

On 12/9/66, Mr. LEROY DALTON, State Assistant Attorney General (AAG), Madison, Wisconsin, telephonically contacted SAC, Milwaukee, to discuss possibility of State leaving what FBI data DOMINIC FRINZI might have in his possession relative to electronic surveillance of FRINZI. DALTON referred to FRINZI's current motion to suppress pending hearing in State Circuit Court, Kenosha, in perjury case against WILLIAM COVELLI, noting FBI FRINZI averred admissions in BALISTRIERI tax trial of such coverage. (It is noted FBI Agent did not identify FRINZI as subject of coverage in tax case testimony. This was done by defense attorney MAURICE WALSH after defense received FRINZI logs).

DALTON also advised comments coming to attention of his office as emanating from Attorney [redacted] assisting WALSH on tax case, indicate FRINZI is supposed to have some information from FBI which indicates some type of FBI report was made available to State authorities. DALTON stated his office was concerned whether any documents to which FRINZI might have access in the tax case might indicate this.

For information of the Bureau, review of Milwaukee special indices recently completed notes one reference to a [redacted] located in 5/14/63 FRINZI log, wherein FRINZI [redacted] [redacted] No mention made of FBI or any report or data.

SAC, Milwaukee, advised DALTON that this office has not furnished any data to FRINZI and any data made available to defense in tax case would have been handled by Departmental attorneys and USDJ, Springfield, in which action FBI personnel were not involved. Established policy of FBI not to disseminate data or documents in this area to State or local authorities was reviewed with DALTON, as well as the definite desire of the FBI that its information or personnel not become further involved in the WILLIAM COVELLI or related State cases.

DALTON stated he understood FBI's position in this matter and had no desire to involve the FBI; however, State Attorney General LAFOLLETTE felt an effort should be made to stop FRINZI at the scheduled COVELLI hearing, 12/28/66, and the State AG considers they should try to determine what data FRINZI may actually have to support his suppression motion. DALTON stated his office may contact the Department and possibly Judge POOS at Springfield, Illinois, to see what might be made available and also what restrictions Judge POOS may have placed on use of Government information by defense attorneys outside the BALISTRIERI case.

Bureau will be kept advised regarding developments in this matter.

3 Named To Probe Bugging

Eight men who will investigate the report that Milwaukee attorney's office was bugged were named Friday by Circuit Judge George D. Young, president of the Milwaukee Bar association, and Ray T. McCann, president of the state bar.

The committee of eight will not hold any meetings until the conclusion of the federal trial of Frank P. Balistreri, Milwaukee night club operator, which has been adjourned to March.

The committee will investigate reports that federal agents bugged the office of Atty. Dominic Frinzi during the investigation of Balistreri. There was testimony during the Balistreri trial that agent used electronic equipment in Frinzi's office.

Charles Goldberg of Milwaukee will be the committee chairman. The other Milwaukee attorneys on the committee are John Kluwin, John Beyers, Edward Meldman and Nathaniel Roth. The other attorneys are Frank Wilcox of Eau Claire, Lyle Beyers of Madison and Rudolph Anderson of Superior.

ReMI-airtel to Bureau 12/10/66.

On 12/16/66 [ ] state attorney prosecuting WILLIAM COVELLI in state circuit court, Kenosha, Wis., contacted SAC, Milwaukee, re current developments in connection with impending hearing in state case reset for 12/28/66. [ ] advised that state Asst. Attorney General (AAG) LEROY DALTON had contacted USDJ POOS at Springfield, Ill. concerning possibility of state learning what information in BALISTRIERI tax trial pertaining to electronic surveillances was made available to BALISTRIERI defense attorneys and, thus, to DOMINIC FRINZI, who is defending WILLIAM COVELLI. It is noted that FRINZI currently has motion pending to suppress evidence in COVELLI case at Kenosha based on alleged information being obtained by state which may have emanated from electronic coverage of FRINZI by FBI in 1963.

[ ] stated that Judge POOS advised DALTON that the State of Wis. could intervene in the BALISTRIERI case in Federal court with a motion to obtain the pertinent data, as an interested party. Judge POOS also advised DALTON, according to attorney [ ] that there were not any restrictions on the use by DOMINIC FRINZI of the electronic surveillance data to which FRINZI had access in the BALISTRIERI trial.

Attorney [ ] stated he had made above development known to DOMINIC FRINZI a day or so ago at which time FRINZI had stated to [ ] that he, FRINZI, would make the information phrasing ✓ in the FRINZI surveillance logs available to the state and it would not be necessary for them to have to make a motion in Federal court in Springfield. During that conversation FRINZI advised attorney [ ] that the FRINZI logs made only one reference to COVELLI and he advised [ ] substantially what that reference consisted of. [ ] stated he inquired of FRINZI if FRINZI's comments were true, then why was he phrasing a motion to suppress evidence in the COVELLI case on alleged contamination emanating from the coverage involved in the FRINZI logs. [ ] advised that FRINZI then commented that he had another basis for using the FRINZI logs in the COVELLI case, and that was the fact that these logs appeared to be incomplete and inaccurate, since he had met several times at his office with COVELLI during the coverage period (4/63 - 9/63), and felt that possibly the FBI must have other information pertaining to COVELLI which had not been recorded in the FRINZI logs. [ ] stated that he made no comment to FRINZI re this matter.

[ ] advised that from what FRINZI told him concerning the lone reference to COVELLI, it appears FRINZI is simply attempting to utilize the logs in any manner he can to create a show in the Kenosha case, when actually the information in FRINZI's possession has no real bearing on the COVELLI matter at all. [ ] stated that the state contends that the perjury for which COVELLI is being prosecuted occurred in Oct., 1964, about a year after the alleged period of electronic coverage of FRINZI. [ ] stated in addition that the perjury of COVELLI can be proved through information supplied at the Oct., 1964 hearings without resorting to any prior information, whether from electronic coverage or otherwise, and in fact the state does not feel that it has received any information from the FBI which has any connection with any electronic coverage. He added that the state, of course, has not had the sources of the FBI information identified and would not be officially aware of the existence of any electronic coverage except for the publicity emanating from the BALISTRIERI case. He advised the state intends to attempt to bring the matter of FRINZI's motion to a head 12/28/66 and request circuit Judge BAKER to deny FRINZI's motion on a legal basis, as not being material to the perjury violation. Attorney [ ] hopes that this will dispose of the motion without the necessity of getting to the point where the Federal Government must make a decision concerning appearance of SA [ ] on the stand.

[ ] advised that the state has no desire to reach the point of confrontation between FRINZI and Federal executive privilege any more than the Federal Government would desire to have to use that privilege in the local case.

[ ] advised that he had also discussed this matter with USA JAMES B. BRENNAN and it now appears that USA BRENNAN will be permitted to allow [ ] to review pertinent portions of the BALISTRIERI trial testimony and evidence to enable the state to be prepared to oppose FRINZI at the 12/28/66 hearing. [ ] further commented that as it now stands, SA [ ] will need to be present at the 12/28/66 hearing, although [ ] hopefully anticipates no reason for SA [ ] to be called to testify.

b6
b7C

It is noted that arrangements have previously been made with USA BRENNAN for SA [ ] to be accompanied by the USA or a member of his staff on 12/28/66, with instructions to invoke executive privilege should the necessity arise. Developments in this matter will be closely followed and Bureau will be kept advised.

b6
b7C

Enclosed for Bureau's information is copy of current motion being made by DOMINIC FRINZI in WILLIAM COVELLI case. FRINZI was electronically

FRANCIS CROAK

NOW COMES WILLIAM COVELLI, by his attorneys, FRINZI, CATANIA & NEUBECKER, and moves the Court on or 'about' the first day of December, 1966, at two o'clock p.m., or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard for an Order Suppressing for use as evidence any and all information, knowledge or conversations and leads emanating therefrom which were overheard, learned of or recorded in any manner by the use of electronic eavesdropping devices or other recording devices in the investigation of all matters relating to this case or in any way involved therein. In support thereof the defendant asserts:

1. That during the period from April 22, 1963 to October 2, 1963 he conferred privately with his attorney, Dominic H. Frinzi, at his attorneys offices at 161 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

That these conferences were numerous and concerned matters on which he sought his attorney's professional advice; further, that he had several telephone conversations with his attorney during this period regarding matters upon which he sought his attorney's professional advice.

92-3116-472

2. That in a case entitled UNITED STATES OF AMERICA vs. FRANK P. BALISTRERI (Being Tried as Criminal Action 6602 at Springfield, Illinois, After Transfer from Milwaukee, Wisconsin) special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice, admitted that there was electronic surveillance conducted on one Dominic H. Frinzi, Attorney at Law, at 161 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, from a period beginning on April 22, 1963 and ending on October 2, 1963.

That special agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation further admitted that this surveillance was constant and that conversations in the office were recorded on tape and reduced to typewritten summaries by Federal Bureau of Investigation personnel.

3. That special agent John A. Holzman testified in the matter described in paragraph 2, supra, that one "Mr. Lovrien" a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation participated in an electronic surveillance referred to in paragraph 2, supra.

That the defendant is informed and believes that the "Mr. Lovrien" referred to in special agent Holzman's testimony is the one Clark Lovrien, who was a criminal investigator employed by the Attorney General of the State of Wisconsin, the prosecutor in the instant case.

WHEREFORE, it is requested that this court hold a hearing and require and take the testimony of Clark Lovrien and others engaged in the investigation of this case, to determine whether they obtained information, knowledge, or leads emanating from such information and knowledge acquired by the use of the aforesaid devices and methods.

Observations of the Milwaukee Division

It is known to Milwaukee that Federal Judge POOS of Springfield, Illinois, was in Milwaukee on November 21, 1966, as a visiting Judge since his name appears on the unofficial wall calendar in the office of the USA at Milwaukee on that date. In this regard, Judge POOS has sat from time to time in Milwaukee as a visiting Judge over the past year or more. Perusal of the USA's wall calendar does not indicate that Judge POOS is scheduled to visit Milwaukee in an official capacity at any time of the remainder of December, 1966, or in January, 1967. Therefore, it does not appear likely that [REDACTED]

Synopsis: Subject's federal income tax trial, SDI at Springfield, Illinois recessed until 3/1/67, due to heart attack of subject's principal counsel, MAURICE WALSH. Any motions for suppression to be submitted and considered prior to resumption of trial. An informant states subject, from all indications, is the boss (La Cosa Nostra) in Milwaukee. Information concerning subject's nightclub operations set out. JOHN RIZZO, gambler-hoodlum from the Racine-Kenosha, Wisconsin area, now working for subject at The Scene.

DETAILS:Federal Income Tax Trial

On December 1, 1966, information was received by the FBI, Springfield, that MAURICE WALSH, principal defense counsel for FRANK BALISTRIERI in his current federal income tax trial, Southern District of Illinois at Springfield, had suffered a heart attack resulting in an indefinite postponement of BALISTRIERI's trial.

On December 7, 1966, it was determined that on December 5, 1966 a hearing was held concerning BALISTRIERI's case with result that by January 16, 1967 a notice was to be submitted to the court and the government regarding any motions for suppression by the defense. In addition, the date of February 1, 1967 was set for the hearing for any motions to suppress prior to resumption of the trial on March 1, 1967 at 10:00 a.m.

La Cosa Nostra (LCN)

On December 16, 1966, MI T-4 advised that there is no question in his mind that FRANK BALISTRERI is the boss of the outfit (LCN) in Milwaukee, based upon this informant's gleaning of information from as many contacts and acquaintances in the Italian hoodlum element in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. At this time this informant also said that as far as the Milwaukee outfit and FRANK BALISTRERI are concerned, things seem to be quiet and informant has heard nothing of significance of late.

Subject's Milwaukee Nightclub Operations

On November 21, 1966, MI T-4 advised that he has heard from usually reliable sources that when FRANK SINATRA, JR. appeared as the featured entertainer at The Scene, a FRANK BALISTRERI nightclub, SINATRA, JR. was paid $1,000 per night.

On December 16, 1966, MI T-1 furnished the following information:

JOHN RIZZO, a Racine-Kenosha, Wisconsin area hoodlum, has been coming to Milwaukee quite regularly of late and is doing some work for FRANK BALISTRERI, apparently assisting in the operation of one or more of BALISTRERI's downtown Milwaukee nightclubs. Informant was not certain but made the observation that this might have been occasioned by the fact that BALISTRERI has had to spend a lot of his time since October, 1966 at his federal income tax trial in Springfield, Illinois, and during his absence some of his nightclubs have apparently not been doing as well as he thought they should.

On December 6, 1966, MI T-3 advised as follows regarding JOHN RIZZO, identified above: RIZZO of late has been making quite frequent and regular visits to The Scene where he is in contact with FRANK BALISTRERI when the latter is around.

Miscellaneous

On January 4, 1967, MI T-4 advised that he had heard nothing recently of pertinence regarding FRANK BALISTRERI.

ReMI-airtel 1/13/67.

Enclosed for Substantive Desk at the Bureau and for Crime Records are copies of clipping from "Milwaukee Journal" newspaper of 1/16/67 edition, Part II, Page 1, re hearing held 1/16/67 by Committee on Judiciary-Legislation of Milwaukee City Council re proposed wiretapping ordinance. It is noted that same local officials who have on previous occasions pushed for adoption of this ordinance again made comments favoring such adoption. It is also noted that Alderman [redacted] and Chief of Police HAROLD A. BREIER, Milwaukee PD, who attended the hearing, spoke in favor of the Council delaying action on the ordinance pending action by Federal Govt. According to the clipping, action on the ordinance has again been deferred.

On 1/17/67 former SA (retired) ALEXANDER P. LE GRAND advised SA CARLYLE N. REED that as an Administrative Assistant to Mayor MAIER of the City of Milwaukee, one of his duties is to follow and analyze proposed city ordinances and other types of local legislation. He said he has been closely following the hearing re the ordinance banning wiretapping and electronic surveillances in Milwaukee. In this capacity he has had personal contacts with Alderman [redacted] who initiated this proposed ordinance and pointed out to [redacted] that it was "idiotic and presumptuous" for the City of Milwaukee to pass such an ordinance at this time and that the subject matter at present is one which is of primary concern on a Federal and state level rather than a city level. LE GRAND stated that in feeling the pulse of the aldermen, it is his opinion that the majority of them are not anxious to pass it.

this time to pass such an ordinance, would prefer to wait to see what action, if any, is taken at a higher political level, i.e., state or Federal, within the meantime the matter of the local ordinance being postponed as to any further action on it.

LA GRAND also pointed out that he has directly stated to Alderman

[ ] that in his, LE GRAND's, opinion the author of the ordinance was DOMINIC FRINZI who is an ardent backer of this piece of local legislation. [ ] according to LE GRAND, denies that FRINZI drew up the ordinance. Re Alderman [ ] it is noteworthy that [ ] have on several occasions over the past year or so pointed out that [ ] frequents the downtown Milwaukee night clubs operated by FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI where, in effect, he receives the red carpet treatment and has been observed on a number of occasions with BALISTRIERI at those night spots. These informants are convinced that through this association BALISTRIERI has [ ] under his influence, particularly in matters pertaining to local licensing such as liquor and restaurant permits. LE GRAND stated if there were any significant developments in above mentioned proposed ordinance, he would certainly inform this office.

b6
b7D

It should be noted that DOMINIC FRINZI, a Milwaukee attorney, who has represented a number of hoodlums in the past, became vitally interested in this type of legislation after it was disclosed in the income tax trial of FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI that FRINZI's office was "bugged" by the FBI. This, of course, is a matter of public record. FRINZI is also an unsuccessful candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on Democratic ticket in the last two state elections.

The Bureau will be kept advised of any further pertinent developments.

Breier Says His Department Doesn't Use Bugging Devices

Police Chief Harold A. Breier said Monday that a proposed ordinance prohibiting wire tapping and electronic eavesdropping would not affect police work here because his department did not use wire tapping or bugging devices.

Breier made the comment at a meeting of the common council's judiciary committee. The committee voted 5 to 0 to hold the proposed ordinance in committee for further study.

Last week Breier urged the council to delay action. In a letter to the committee, the chief said that since the federal government had indicated it would act in the field, "it seems feasible to wait."

Backs Some Listening

At that time, Breier said: "It would seem advisable to permit listening to a conversation through available standard installations, as an extension line or two parties on the same hand set, where one of the parties gives voluntary consent."

He argued that this would expedite developing evidence and would not necessarily be an invasion of privacy.

Since Breier's letter, the proposed ordinance has been amended to eliminate some of its inconsistencies.

Breier said that if such a law were enacted it should be done by the state. The proposed ordinance drew strong support from Atty. Dominic Frinzi, Fred Erchul, secretary-treasurer of the Milwaukee County Labor Council and a representative of the Communications Workers of America.

Frinzi Blasts Bugging

Frinzi, who said his office had been bugged by the FBI, complained that he was "a victim of this dirty business of the government."

He said that the FBI admitted tapping his office but indicated that it did not get any information relating to court evidence. He said he did not see how law enforcement could be impaired by enactment of the ordinance.

Erchul told the committee that the labor council supported the ordinance. He said wiretapping and bugging of private conversations were "frightening intrusions on privacy."

Erchul said that employers had used electronic devices to check on employee and union activities and that the labor council opposed "these encroachments on human dignity."

James Gaynor, government services manager for the Wisconsin Telephone Co., said the firm did not object to an ordinance, providing it would not prevent the telephone company from constructing, maintaining and repairing its equipment.

He said the company did object to a provision in the ordinance which would prohibit telephone company employees from divulging any information overheard during the performance of their duties.

Ald. Mark W. Ryan, who introduced the ordinance, asked for its immediate adoption.

However, Ald. Rod Lanser moved that it be held in committee. Lanser's motion, for which Ryan voted, took precedence. Ryan admitted that everyone had not had sufficient time to study the ordinance.

Lanser said that the council should not take any law enforcement tools away from the police. He said the country was in less danger of becoming a police state than a criminal state.

He said he wondered whether the council would favor Ryan's ordinance if use of surveillance devices would result in the arrest of "a vicious child killer" one month earlier.

The Director has inquired as to the dates of and the authorization for the electronic surveillance on the office of Dominic Frinzi, a hoodlum-connected Milwaukee attorney.

This is to advise that the electronic surveillance on Frinzi was installed April 22, 1963, and discontinued on October 2, 1963.

This microphone was installed on Frinzi, based on reports he was closely associated with prominent hoodlum leaders in the Milwaukee area, including Frank Balistrieri. According to our information, Frinzi was closely allied with leading Milwaukee hoodlums and was consulted by them for legal advice.

In addition to the fact that Frinzi's office was a meeting place for hoodlums, the installation was made for the further purpose of developing information in connection with the murder of Wisconsin juke-box operator Anthony J. Biernat, which occurred in January, 1963. Biernat was allegedly killed by hoodlums in connection with an effort to move into the juke box and pinball industries in Illinois and Wisconsin. Former Attorney General Robert Kennedy requested the Bureau to investigate the killing of Biernat.

The installation was made under the general authority granted by former Attorneys General to the Bureau for this type of coverage. The specific document from Bureau files authorizing the placement of this microphone is attached for information.

Reference is made to the prosecution of Milwaukee hoodlum, Frank Peter Balistrieri, which is scheduled to resume March 1, 1967, following a postponement due to a heart attack of one of the defense counsel. Defense counsel for Balistrieri has requested information in connection with the electronic surveillance of a hoodlum-connected Milwaukee attorney who is one of the defense counsel of record for Balistrieri. The two specific points the Department has inquired about in connection with this request are (1) The identity of all persons who participated in the monitoring of Frinzi's office and (2) A record of the use of pen registers or pulse recording equipment in connection with the surveillance.

Milwaukee has advised that the surveillance of Frinzi's office was monitored by former Special Agent John A. Holtzman (retired) and Special Agents [redacted] and Special Employee [redacted] all presently assigned to the Milwaukee Office. There was no pen register or pulse recording equipment used in connection with the Frinzi surveillance.

b7C

Milwaukee has also received information indirectly from [redacted] Wisconsin State Attorney, to the effect that Frinzi is contemplating filing civil suits against Special Agent [redacted] and former Special Agent Holtzman for their alleged activity in connection with the electronic surveillance conducted at his office. There has been no confirmation of this and the Department has not indicated that any information has been received by it concerning any such reported suits. Department previously advised of such reports in our memorandum November 28, 1966.

Milwaukee is being instructed to follow this phase of the matter very closely and to keep the Bureau as well

ReMI-airtel 1/17/67 advising of hearings being held by Committee on Judiciary-Legislation of Milwaukee City Council concerning proposed wiretapping ordinance for Milwaukee. It is noted DOMINIC H. FRINZI, member of Defense Council staff in current BALISTRERI income tax trial in Springfield, Ill., has been primary vocal force behind proposed ordinance.

Enclosed for Bureau's information are clippings from Part I, Page 14, of "Milwaukee Journal" newspaper 2/8/67 edition, and Part I, Page 3 "Milwaukee Sentinel" newspaper 2/9/67 edition, re appearance of FRINZI at Wisconsin state legislative hearings to support a state statute re wiretapping. FRINZI, according to information appearing in clippings, rehashed the same comments, accusations and arguments which he has publicized previously, referring to FBI in connection with his support of wiretapping ordinances and legislation.

While attending meeting of Executive Committee of Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Assn. at Madison, Wis. 2/8/67, SAC was provided with copies of Senate Bill 57, introduced 1/27/67 by Senator SCHREIBER to prohibit wiretapping. Two copies of the bill were furnished by Chief of Police WILLIAM EMERY, Madison, who heads the Legislative Committee of the Chiefs Assn. and who appeared at the state legislative hearing 2/8/67 to oppose the state wiretapping bill and to offer amendments which would lessen its restrictive effect on law enforcement agencies.

Developments re above mentioned proposed ordinance and state legislation will be followed and Bureau will be kept advised.

Frinzi Proposes Eavesdrop Ban

Madison, Wis. — P — Dominic Frinzi, twice a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, pleaded passionately Wednesday for passage of a senate bill to outlaw electronic eavesdropping.

He told a hearing, "I come here as a victim of this dirty business."

Frinzi cited court admissions by the federal bureau of investigation that it had bugged his Milwaukee office for six months. He said, "Somebody has got to be taught a lesson that they cannot invade these sacred rights."

The attorney urged the senate judiciary committee to recommend passage of a bill to forbid wire tapping, bugging and similar forms of unauthorized electronic surveillance. The committee delayed action on the measure until another session set tentatively for Thursday.

Frinzi accused the Wisconsin Telephone Co. of co-operation with the FBI in placing the bug in his office. The FBI earlier admitted in federal court in Springfield, Ill., that it had tapped his office while Frinzi was defending a client charged with income tax evasion.

"If we are going to do what the police state wants us to do, we might as well scrap the constitution and have a bonfire right out here on the capital square," Frinzi told the state senators.

Madison Police Chief Wilbur Emery, speaking for fellow law enforcement officials, said the bill "would prohibit the police from obtaining necessary information to convict lawbreakers."

Emery said lawbreakers should not be exempt from modern detection methods. He asked for an exception in the law to allow electronic surveillance with court approval, much in the same manner a search warrant is obtained.

~~Madison Atty. William I. Mulligan~~, appearing for the Wisconsin Telephone Co., said the utility did not violate the law in the Frinzi case and did not perform any actual bugging itself.

Mulligan said the telephone firm "has zealously championed for years the right of privacy in communications." He backed passage of the bill, but suggested a long list of exemptions to permit various types of checks on the lines by telephone personnel.

Seven persons testified for the bill and two against it.

Ban on Wire Tapping Supported in Hearing

Journal Madison Bureau

Madison, Wis.—A bill to prohibit wire tapping and other forms of electronic eavesdropping got strong support Wednesday at a hearing of the senate judiciary committee.

Six persons, including Dominic H. Frinzi, whose law office had been bugged by the FBI, spoke for the bill. Three, including Wilbur Emery, Madison police chief, either opposed it or suggested some changes.

"I came here as a victim of this dirty business, as Justice Holmes called wire tapping and eavesdropping," Frinzi said.

He said the FBI with the help of the telephone company had conducted an electric surveillance of his law office for six months in connection with his role in a tax case against Frank Balistreri, Milwaukee night club operator.

"It could happen to you," Frinzi told the committee. He charged that the FBI had "committed trespass and burglary of my office" in conducting the surveillance.

He cited FBI records of the activity, indicating that time and again "nothing pertinent" had been discovered.

"If we do what the police state wants us to do we might as well scrap our constitution and burn it out there in the middle of Capitol square," Frinzi said.

He contended that the eavesdropping was a "felony under Wisconsin law and I'm waiting for that district attorney in Milwaukee to wake up and prosecute the law."

The bill provides for a $500 fine for violations or up to 90 days in jail if the forfeiture is not paid.

Frinzi urged a two year prison sentence and a $5,000 fine.

Others who supported the bill included George Haberman, former president of the state AFL-CIO; Edward V. Peil, Wisconsin director of the Communication Workers of America; Arlen Christensen, assistant attorney general; Sen. Martin Schreiber (D-Milwaukee), who introduced the bill, and Milwaukee Ald. Mark Ryan.

Christensen said the attorney general's office was generally in favor of the bill, but he too believed that the penalties ought to be increased to get at criminal elements using wire tapping and eavesdropping.

He pointed out that the bill provided no imprisonment except for nonpayment. "To criminals that's just another cost of doing business," he said.

He also suggested that one exception in the bill be narrowed or dropped. That provision would exempt fire departments checking on false alarms and police departments checking on objectionable telephone calls.

Christensen said there was no law now that prohibited the use of eavesdropping devices. Court use of evidence obtained by the devices is prohibited, he said.

William J. Mulligan, Milwaukee, representing the Wisconsin Telephone Co., suggested a number of amendments.

He said they would permit tracing obscene telephone calls, and catching people who fraudulently use credit cards for telephone calls.

On December 22, 1966 MIT-3 advised as follows: FRANK BALISTRERI does not seem to be as worried as he was when his Attorney, MAURICE WALSH, first had his heart attack, causing a postponement of BALISTRERI's income tax trial to March, 1967. BALISTRERI was disappointed at the delay in the trial, which is in turn delaying his plans for operation of his various legitimate and illegitimate enterprises in Milwaukee.

On January 17, 1967 MI T-3 advised that AUGUST "Gus" CHIAVEROTTI [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] CHIAVEROTTI is available for testimony as a witness for FRANK BALISTRERI in his income tax trial in connection with matters relating to the Para Corporation, a defunct company, which is of concern in the tax case. Informant pointed out that obviously CHIAVEROTTI's testimony, if used, would be entirely favorable for BALISTRERI's defense.

On February 14, 1967 MI T-3 furnished the following information: It is rumored that every day that FRANK BALISTRERI spends in Springfield, Illinois while his tax trial is in progress, it is costing him $1500 per day for expenses and attorney fees. This informant made the observation that in view of the extended period of this trial it would seem that BALISTRERI is not in a financial position to pay out this kind of money on his own, and that he must be getting help from the outside such as the Outfit Boss in Chicago, Illinois, and in this regard made specific mention of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO, well known Chicago hoodlum and close associate of BALISTRERI, as a possible source of such funds to defray trial costs and related expenses.

Booking Operations

On February 7, 1967 MI T-3 advised as follows: Regarding horse race booking operations in Milwaukee, informant was of the opinion that such an operation is still being sanctioned by FRANK BALISTRERI through "The Office", in the past operated by SAM and TONY CEFALU. Informant did not know the location of "The Office". This source pointed out that at one time CEFALUs were getting a daily line on the horses from Chicago or possibly Detroit through [redacted] Informant pointed out that [redacted] is reportedly out of town and that the CEFALUs are probably handling the line at present. Informant said that if this operation is sanctioned by FRANK BALISTRERI it means that he is getting a cut on such an operation.

POLITICAL TIES

On December 22, 1966 MI T-3 furnished the following information:

Just prior to the Christmas Holidays in December, 1966 FRANK BALISTRERI, Milwaukee City Alderman [redacted] and TONY MACCHI, former operator of the Sportsmen's Bar, were at The Scene together. The Scene is one of BALISTRERI's Milwaukee nightclub - restaurant operations. The informant was not aware of the reason for these individuals being together at this lunch time. Informant noted a possibility that this might be indicative of political graft on the part of Alderman [redacted]. In this regard informant said that Milwaukee Aldermen [redacted] (phonetic), an Alderman from the west side of Milwaukee, are all on close terms with FRANK BALISTRERI and frequent BALISTRERI's nightclubs.

b6
b7C

FRANK BALISTRERI's
NIGHTCLUB OPERATIONS

On January 12, 1967 MI T-1 advised as follows: Over the recent Holidays BALISTRERI's night club, The Scene, was making money and the Ad Lib lost money with very little patronage of the later place. Le Bistro was in the process of being re-decorated and has been closed for several weeks.

JOHN RIZZO and WILLIAM "Weaser" COVELLI of Racine and Kenosha Wisconsin, respectively are both working for FRANK BALISTRERI in overseer capacities at BALISTRERI's nightclubs with most of their time being spent at The Scene. This informant subsequently learned that a nightclub operation in Kenosha known as La Strada was recently closed because of a fire. RIZZO and COVELLI were part of the operations of that place and because of it being inoperative, they apparently had the time to commute to Milwaukee to help FRANK BALISTRERI and his nightclub operations. MI T-3 has identified RIZZO and COVELLI as hoodlum - gamblers.

MI T-1 also advised on January 12, 1967 that FRANK STELLOH was still employed by FRANK BALISTRIERI as supervisor of the custodial force for BALISTRIERI's nightclubs. MI T-3 has identified FRANK STELLOH as an ex-convict, hoodlum and strong-arm man. On January 17, 1967 MI T-3 advised that JOHN RIZZO and WILLIAM "Weasor" COVELLI are both on FRANK BALISTRIERI's payroll at The Scene.

On January 30, 1967 MI T-2 furnished the following: Le Bistro re-opened on January 23, 1967 with the introduction of strippers as regular entertainment there. These entertainers usually stay at the Wisconsin Hotel. Since bringing in strippers, Le Bistro has been doing a good business. There are four to five girl entertainers who perform with recorded music rather than a live band.

On February 9, 1967 MI T-2 advised that FRANK BALISTRIERI's Milwaukee nightclubs of late were not all doing a good business and one or two of these clubs was possibly losing money at that time.

On February 8, 1967 MI T-1 advised:

FRANK BALISTRIERI is frequently visited in the afternoons at The Scene. The identity of this visiting individual was not known to this informant; however, based upon descriptions furnished by informant, this individual may be identical with JOE CAMINITI, Secretary - Treasurer of Teamsters Local No. 257, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. DOMINIC FRINZI and other members of his law firm frequently have lunch at The Scene.

[redacted] a Milwaukee City Alderman frequents the Ad Lib.

b6
b7c

FRANK BALISTRIERI allegedly gave each of his four children $5,000 to be invested in a recording company to be formed.

MI 94-316

[REDACTED] continues to work in that capacity and sometimes sells cover charge tickets and occasionally picks up money from the vending machines at BALISTRIERI's nightclubs.

b6

MISCELLANEOUS

On February 7, 1987 MI T-4 advised that there are rumors of a continuing feud in the Milwaukee Outfit or organization headed by FRANK BALISTRIERI.

It was informant's understanding that old-time organization members resent the FRANK BALISTRIERI regime.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

The Director has inquired as to the details of the microphone installation involved in the appearance in local court of an Agent of the Milwaukee Office in connection with a local perjury prosecution wherein defense attorney Dominic H. Frinzi is trying to have the case dismissed because the Bureau had a microphone on his office.

The microphone in question was installed on Bureau authority by Milwaukee April 22, 1963, on the office of Milwaukee attorney Dominic H. Frinzi. The installation was discontinued on October 2, 1963. It was made on the basis of reports that Frinzi was closely associated with prominent hoodlum leaders in the Milwaukee area, including La Cosa Nostra leader Frank Balistrieri and that Frinzi's office was used as a meeting place for these leaders.

A further purpose in making this installation was to develop information in connection with the murder of Anthony J. Biernat, a Wisconsin juke-box operator who was killed in gangland fashion in January, 1963, which matter was investigated by the Bureau.

The file copy of the airtel authorizing the placement of this microphone is attached for information.

AFFIDAVIT WAS FULLY DISCUSSED WITH USA BRENNAN BY SAC MILWAUKEE AND IT WAS OPINION OF USA BRENNAN THAT ONLY THE TWO POINTS SET FORTH IN THE LETTER OF FEBRUARY 23, 1967 FROM ACTING AG [REDACTED] TO USA BRENNAN SHOULD BE CONTAINED IN THE AFFIDAVIT, NAMELY NUMBER ONE WHETHER SA [REDACTED] EVER OVERHEARD FRINZI IN CONVERSATION WITH THE DEFENDANT OR ANYONE DISCUSS THE COVELLI CASE; AND TWO IF SUCH AN OVERHEARING TOOK PLACE, WHETHER HE PASSED ON SUCH INFORMATION TO ANY OTHER PERSONS OR INVESTIGATIVE AGENCY, FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL. BRENNAN AFTER REVIEWING AFFIDAVIT AND CONSIDERING CONTENTS OF AG LETTER THAT HE COULD SEE NO USEFUL PURPOSE IN HAVING SA [REDACTED] TESTIFY BEFORE HIS COURT IN THE FORTHCOMING COVELLI TRIAL. JUDGE BAKER STATED HE INTENDS TO IMMEDIATELY CORRESPOND WITH ATTORNEY FRINZI EXPRESSING HIS FEELINGS CONCERNING SUCH TESTIMONY AND THAT HE DESIRES TO GET ON WITH THE COVELLI TRIAL ON APRIL 3, 1967 WITHOUT ANY UNDUE DELAY. JUDGE BAKER FURTHER ADVISED BRENNAN THAT HE HAS NOT HEARD FROM ATTORNEY FRINZI CONCERNING THE BRIEF HE ORDERED FRINZI TO EXECUTE, WHICH BRIEF SUPPOSEDLY DOCUMENTS CASES EXCLUDING SA'S OF THE FBI FROM INVOKING EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER 324-64.

JUDGE BAKER FURTHER ADVISED THAT SHOULD FRINZI CONTINUE TO INSIST THAT THE COURT HEAR TESTIMONY FROM SA [REDACTED] THAT HE, BAKER, WOULD RESTRICT SUCH TESTIMONY ON THE STAND TO THE TWO POINTS BROUGHT OUT IN THE AFFIDAVIT.

JUDGE BAKER STATED HE WOULD CORRESPOND WITH USA BRENNAN AND SA [REDACTED] DIRECT AFTER HE HAS RECEIVED REPLY FROM MR. FRINZI AND RULES RE NECESSITY OF SA [REDACTED] TESTIFYING.

[redacted] of the Legal Division of the Wisconsin Telephone Company has advised our Milwaukee Office that Dominic Frinzi, one of the defense attorneys for the subject in his income tax trial, has complained because the telephone company did not charge the FBI for the cost of telephone lines made available in connection with our microphone surveillances of Balistrieri, Frinzi and [redacted] of which you have previously been advised. Lines for these installations were originally furnished to our Milwaukee Office by the telephone company free of charge.

b7C

[redacted] has advised that the telephone company has evaluated its position in this matter and is of the opinion that Wisconsin law requires equal billing of all customers for its services and has indicated that in order to comply with this requirement and to prevent any further criticism by Frinzi, it will be necessary to bill the FBI for the lines referred to above.

b6
b7C

The Special Agent in Charge of our Milwaukee Office has discussed this matter with United States Attorney James B. Brennan of Milwaukee for the purpose of ascertaining whether payment of the telephone charges will in any way adversely affect the current prosecution against Balistrieri or any future legal proceedings, civil or criminal, which might arise in connection with these surveillances. Mr. Brennan has indicated that he intends to take this matter up with the Department for an opinion and that he will correspond with the Department for this purpose.

IT IS NOTED FRINZI ELECTRONIC COVERAGE LOGS MAKE ONLY ONE REFERENCE TO COVELLI, WHICH IN NO WAY AFFECTS OR BEARS ON OFFENSE WITH WHICH COVELLI CURRENTLY CHARGED IN STATE COURT. FRINZI KNOWS THIS AS HE HAS THE LOGS, THEREFORE HIS TOTAL EFFORT IS TO CLOUD THE ISSUE IN COVELLI CASE AND HARASS THE FBI AS HE HAS PUBLICLY INDICATED HE INTENDS TO DO AT EVERY CHANCE.

JUDGE BAKER HAS SET TRIAL DATE FOR APRIL 3, BUT NO EARLIER DATE AS YET FOR HEARING ON FRINZI'S MOTION TO SUPPRESS STATE'S PERJURY EVIDENCE. IN VIEW DEPARTMENT'S DECISION RE PRIVILEGE, ONLY ALTERNATIVE LEFT TO BUREAU APPEARS TO BE TO ALLOW TESTIMONY IF AGENT'S AFFIDAVIT RE NO PERTINENT ELECTRONIC COVERAGE INFO NOT ACCEPTABLE TO JUDGE BAKER. TO: DIRECTOR, FBI (92-3116) ATTN: T. J. MC ANDREWS

FROM: SAC, MILWAUKEE (66-950) JUNE

AR

On 2/13/67 USA JAMES B. BRENNAN and AUSA [redacted] EDW, Milwaukee, Wis., advised SA [redacted] that Federal income tax trial concerning BALISTRIERI will commence before USDJ OMAR T. POOS, Springfield, Ill., 3/6/67. Both USA BRENNAN and AUSA [redacted] stated that in their opinion it will not be necessary for SAC, Milwaukee, SA [redacted] or other Bureau personnel to appear at Springfield. Both USA BRENNAN and AUSA [redacted] expressed the opinion the FBI has fully cooperated in this matter and have fully testified to all facts relating thereto. AUSA [redacted] stated, however, that Departmental tax attorney [redacted] does not always agree with the opinions of USA, EDW, Milwaukee, and he may not be of opinion that further testimony by FBI personnel is not warranted. USA BRENNAN stated, however, that he and AUSA [redacted] will both do their utmost to convince [redacted] and other interested Departmental attorneys that there could be nothing further gained on behalf of Government's case to recall SA [redacted] to the stand or to subpoena additional FBI personnel. USA BRENNAN stated that only thing that could be accomplished in further subpoena by FBI personnel and subsequent testimony would be to satisfy the harassing tactics of attorneys MAURICE WALSH and DOMINIC FRINZI.

b7c

USA BRENNAN stated he has learned that the general health of attorney WALSH has greatly improved subsequent to his light heart attack and that he fully expects WALSH to be present and available to resume the trial in Springfield 3/6/67. USA BRENNAN stated he also learned that some time after WALSH suffered his heart attack he, WALSH, made official notification to the court in Springfield that he fully intended to represent BALISTRIERI in this matter to the conclusion of the trial and in the event that his health precluded him from so doing, he would seek a delay in proceedings from the court, stating to the court he did not desire other attorneys on record in behalf of the defense, specifically attorneys [redacted] and FRINZI, to argue the case in his absence.

b7C

At 1:30 p.m. 2/13/67 SA [redacted] accompanied by AUSA [redacted] EDW, Milwaukee, appeared in Kenosha County, Wis. state court before Honorable EUGENE BAKER, in honoring a subpoena previously issued in the State of Wisconsin vs. WILLIAM COVELLI motion to suppress evidence in a perjury and false swearing case before the court. SA [redacted] was called to the stand by defense attorney DOMINIC H. FRINZI at which time AUSA JONES approached the bench and invoked Executive Privilege (Executive Order 324-64) precluding testimony on behalf of SA [redacted]. At this point defense counsel FRINZI advised the court that the Executive Privilege does not include SAs of FBI but is reserved for executive members of the Federal Govt. and members of the Cabinet. Judge BAKER acknowledged in court he was not fully aware of the provisions of Executive Privilege and ordered defense counsel FRINZI to prepare a brief within 10 days citing legal decisions where FBI SAs were excluded from taking Executive Privilege. At the same time Judge BAKER ordered AUSA [redacted] to produce a letter from Attorney General of U.S. which letter precludes SA [redacted] testimony in this particular matter. Judge BAKER further set a trial date in his court for 9:30 a.m. 4/3/67 and further held SA [redacted] in contempt of court. Judge BAKER advised that he would not rule at the time on the contempt charges against SA [redacted] but would defer this decision pending his opportunity to review the briefs requested by him of defense attorney FRINZI and AUSA [redacted]. Judge BAKER stated in court that should he find SA [redacted] cannot take Executive Privilege, he would expect SA [redacted] to appear in court 4/3/67 and to be fully prepared to testify in the COVELLI trial.

In regard to the local court request for letter from Attorney General of U.S. invoking Executive Privilege re testimony of SA [ ] it is noted USA JAMES B. BRENNAN advised SAC, Milwaukee, 2/13/67, that he would take appropriate action to obtain the necessary letter from Attorney General in this regard.

b7C

In further regard to the BALISTRERI case, it is noted [ ] Wis. Telephone Co., contacted SAC, Milwaukee 2/13/67. [ ] advised that the legal division of Wis. Telephone Co. has been reviewing and evaluating the position of Telephone Co. under Wis. state laws as regards Telephone Co. participation in making available leased lines to FBI in connection with electronic surveillance of BALISTRERI, DOMINIC FRINZI [ ] during investigation of BALISTRERI. [ ] stated DOMINIC FRINZI has made strong comments and accusations against Telephone Co. while testifying before the Legislative-Judicial Committee of Milwaukee City Council and also before Judiciary Committee of state legislature in past weeks where proposals for anti-bugging legislation and/or ordinance were being considered. [ ] stated that FRINZI and others who are pushing for such legislation have made specific accusations that the Telephone Co. acted illegally in concert with FBI since no charges were made for telephone lines made available to FBI. Charges have also intimated that the Telephone Co. cooperated in burglary and trespass activities of FBI in connection with this matter.

b7C

According to [ ] the Wis. state laws, as interpreted by Public Service Commission, require that the Telephone Co. may not discriminate between customers in regard to levying different charges or not levying any charge against one customer for service while making normal charges to another customer for telephone line service. Likewise, Wis. law requires that the Telephone Co. when it discovers that service has been provided in the past at lower or different charges or at no charge, the Telephone Co. must back-bill the recipient of such services for the charges. this matter had been most thoroughly discussed by the top officials in Wis. Telephone Co., had been referred to the A.T. & T parent corporation for their views, and had even been submitted to outside legal consideration by the firm of FOLEY, SAMMOND & LARDNER, Milwaukee, Wis. All legal and administrative consideration had concluded that, in order to comply with Wis. law, it appears necessary to present the FBI with a bill of charges for services rendered in the BALISTRERI, FRINZI [ ] electronic coverages. [ ] stated the actual charges being considered are of little importance in the matter, and the Telephone Co. officials would most sincerely prefer that this action might be avoided, but there appears to be no other way to effect compliance with the law, and avoid further and more vocal public criticism of this aspect by FRINZI and associates.

b7C

[ ] noted that in view of the paucity of records concerning these transactions at the Telephone Co., the duration of the service in each instance was figured from the best available information appearing in the testimony which took place in the BALISTRERI trial at Springfield, and any other recollection by Telephone Co. personnel. He stated if the dates of duration are not correct, according to FBI records, the Telephone Co. would have no objection to refiguring the amounts which have been set down as charges. He advised that the bills for services would be forwarded to FBI within the next day or so.

b6
b7C

As furnished by [ ] the charge for service was based on direct mileage of leased lines involved, figured by tenths of a mile, at $.50 per tenth per month in each of the three instances, plus an installation charge in each of the three instances of $14.00. The charge re the three instances of leased lines made available were figured as follows:

b6
b7C

2559 N. Downer Ave. (BALISTRERI), 22 tenths of a mile at $.50 per tenth or $11 per month from 3/1/64 to 6/30/65, 15 months and 29 days, or $175.63, plus $14 for installation, a total of $189.63. It is noted that actual inclusive dates re above coverage were 3/9/64 to 6/1/65.

Re [ ] the charge was based on 11 tenths of a mile at $.50 per tenth or $5.50 per month from 8/1/61 to 6/8/62, 10 months and 7 days, or $56.28, plus $14 for installation, a total of $70.28. It is noted the actual inclusive coverage dates for above coverage were 10/3/61 to 6/8/62.

b7C

Re 161 W. Wis. Ave. (FRINZI) the charges were based on 4 tenths of a mile at $.50 per tenth or $2.00 per month from 4/22/63 to 8/2/63, 3 months and 10 days, or $6.67, plus $14 installation charges, or a total of $20.67. It is noted the actual inclusive coverage dates for this coverage were 4/22/63 to 9/27/63. A grand total of back-billing for above 3 instances of coverage amounts to $280.58. It will be recalled that [ ] coverage, discussion was had with a Telephone Co. official re reserving necessary lines, but the Milwaukee Office found this method of coverage not practical, and a radio microphone setup was actually employed rather than the use of any Telephone Co. lines. During [ ] discussion with SAC, Milwaukee, he referred to this aspect and stated that although it appeared the Telephone Co. actually not utilized in the case of [ ] such lines apparently were reserved for FBI use, and as in all other past instances, no further discussion was had with FBI and such lines were not used for other service recipients.

b7C

[ ] noted that the problem which had come up concerning lack of charges made to FBI for telephone line use could certainly also apply to other similar services made available to FBI in past years. He stated, however, the only situations which have come to public notice were above mentioned 3 instances, and Telephone Co. officials had decided that for the present, at least, no charges need be made in order to satisfy Wis. statutory requirements.

b6
b7C

[ ] stated the Telephone Co. regrets that this necessity for levying charges has become necessary, and reiterated comments previously made to SAC, Milwaukee, by top officials at Telephone Co. that despite disturbing developments in BALISTRERI trial matter, the Telephone Co. would still be willing to discuss with FBI necessary assistance in the future where matters of national defense interests arise.

The Bureau is requested to give consideration to the charges which the Telephone Co. advises will be made in above regard, and to advise whether or not these charges will be paid. Bureau is likewise requested to advise whether, if the charges will be paid, they should be refigured based on what our records show are actual inclusive dates of installations involved. Reference is made to the Federal income tax trial of Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra leader Balistrieri, which began last October and was recessed in December, 1966, before completion due to a heart attack of chief defense counsel Maurice Walsh. The trial is scheduled to be resumed before United States District Judge Omar T. Poos at Springfield, Illinois, on March 6, 1967. Milwaukee has furnished the following up-to-date information concerning this trial:

The Government has previously made disclosure and our Agents have testified concerning Bureau microphone coverage in the Balistrieri case.

Both United States Attorney James B. Brennan and his assistant, [redacted] of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who are handling the case for the Government have advised that in their opinion it will not be necessary for Bureau personnel to make further appearances at Springfield in this case. Both attorneys expressed the opinion that the FBI had completely cooperated in microphone coverage aspect and has already fully testified as to all pertinent facts in this regard. Brennan pointed out, however, Department attorney [redacted] is assisting in handling this matter and he does not know at this point full details of future strategy contemplated by [redacted]. Defense attorney Walsh has recovered from his December, 1966, heart attack and will continue as chief counsel for Balistrieri.

In the collateral state perjury trial of William Covelli, a Milwaukee gambler, in which his attorney Dominic H. Frinzi, who is also one of the defense counsel for Balistrieri is seeking a dismissal based on the fact that the Bureau had a microphone on his office, Eugene Baker, the ~~local state~~ judge has set a trial date for April 3, 1967. 92-3116-491

Special Agent [redacted] of the Milwaukee Office, who participated in the microphone ~~installation on~~ Frinzi's office, previously appeared in Judge Baker's court in the Covelli trial on February 13, 1967. When called to the stand, executive privilege was invoked in his behalf by a representative of the United States Attorney's office of Milwaukee. Judge Baker has ordered the filing of briefs and United States Attorney's office at Milwaukee is obtaining the necessary letter from the Attorney General concerning executive privilege for [ ] and is preparing the necessary brief for the Government.

[ ] Wisconsin Telephone Company, has advised the SAC at Milwaukee that attorney Frinzi has made allegations against the telephone company for its failure to bill the FBI for the cost of telephone lines made available in connection with the microphone surveillances of Balistrieri, Frinzi [ ] (These lines were furnished to our Milwaukee Office by the telephone company free of charge.)

b7C

[ ] says a review of the matter indicates that Wisconsin law requires equal billing of all customers and in view of this it will be necessary to present the Bureau with a bill for the leased line provided in connection with the above surveillances. He indicated the telephone company would prefer not to do this but in order to comply with the state law and to keep down further criticism by Frinzi, a bill will be made up and submitted to the Milwaukee Office within the next few days. Re: State vs Covelli.

Dear Counsel:

Mr. James B. Brennan, U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, and [redacted] presented themselves at my office this afternoon and left with me a letter addressed to me from Mr. Brennan and an affidavit by [redacted]. The letter advises me that the Acting Attorney General has given his approval to [redacted] testimony in my court but with the understanding (as personally set forth by Mr. Brennan) that any questioning of [redacted] would be limited to the problem raised in this Court. In other words, the sole area of testimony which the Department of Justice will permit [redacted] to engage in relates to information or lack of information relating to Mr. Covelli obtained by means of a surveillance with which Mr. Frinzi is familiar. I am assured once again by both men that Mr. Frinzi has had all of the logs kept in connection with such surveillance and that [redacted] has nothing further to add. The affidavit I referred to covers precisely that point. Following is an exact copy taken from the affidavit:

"That he [redacted] did not overhear Mr. Frinzi in conversation with Mr. William Covelli, nor did he overhear any conversation resulting from the above referred to surveillance, concerning William Covelli."

This affidavit will be made part of the file in the above entitled case as will Mr. Brennan's letter.

While I want to and intend to protect every right of Mr. Covelli under the law I do not propose to adjourn our trial date.

Respectfully yours,

Information has been obtained that Milwaukee attorney Dominic Frinzi advised the press in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, that he had located three sets of "live" wiretapping lines running to telephones in his office.

According to Frinzi, Bernard Spindel, notorious wiretapper had been retained by Frinzi to conduct a survey of Frinzi's office. Spindel allegedly found these "live" wiretapping lines.

An examination of Frinzi's office by representatives of the Wisconsin Telephone Company failed to reveal that any wires other than regular telephone lines ran to any telephones in Frinzi's office. Certain wires were located in the crawl space above Frinzi's office which could have been used for microphonic coverage. Frinzi indicated that he intended to raise this matter in the forthcoming trial of Balistreri. He has also indicated that he contemplated civil suit against the Wisconsin Telephone Company for invasion of his privacy and plans to appear before the Subcommittee on Administrative Practices and Procedures (Long Committee) sometime during the next two months.

As additional information is received in this connection, you will be promptly advised.

Re your airtels 2/13/67 and 2/20/67 concerning bills received from the Wisconsin Telephone Company for telephone lines made available for Bureau use in connection with surveillances on Balistrieri, Dominic Frinzi [REDACTED]

b7C

For the Bureau's assistance in evaluating these bills for purposes of payment, it is desired that you fully discuss this matter with the U. S. Attorney at Milwaukee with reference to whether payment of the telephone charges will in any way adversely affect the current prosecution against Balistrieri or any future litigation, civil or criminal, which might arise in connection with these surveillances.

Promptly advise the Bureau of U. S. Attorney's views concerning this situation.

NOTE: In connection with our microphone surveillances of Balistrieri, Frinzi [REDACTED] Frinzi's defense counsel for Balistrieri, has complained because the Wisconsin Telephone Company has not charged the FBI for the use of leased lines utilized in our surveillances. These lines were made available to the Milwaukee Office by the telephone company free of charge.

The telephone company feels that in order to comply with Wisconsin law which requires equal billing of all customers and in order to keep down further criticism from Frinzi, it is necessary to bill the Bureau for the above services. The total amount involved is $284.58. While it appears we are obligated to pay these charges, Milwaukee is being instructed to fully explore all possible legal aspects with the U. S. Attorney in order to make certain that payment of these charges would not in any way adversely affect prosecution of Balistrieri or any future litigation which may involve our surveillance activities.

ReMI-airtel 2/13/67 which furnished Bureau information and background concerning 3 due bills which the Wisconsin Telephone Co. planned to forward to FBI, Milwaukee, containing charges for services rendered to Milwaukee FBI Office re Telephone Co. making available leased lines for use by FBI, Milwaukee, in electronic coverage of BALISTRIERI, attorney DOMINIC FRINZI, [redacted] during investigation of BALISTRIERI.

Re-airtel 2/16/67 from Bureau requested SAC, Milwaukee, upon actual receipt of due bills to forward same to Bureau with recommendations as to payment of same by Bureau. Above mentioned 3 due bills were received in Milwaukee 2/20/67.

The bill which totalled $70.28 as set forth in reMI-airtel remains the same as previously described. The bill for $189.63 as set forth in reMI-airtel also remains same as previously described. The bill previously set forth in reMI-airtel as totalling $20.67, was noted upon receipt 2/20/67 to be in a total amount of $24.67 rather than the $20.67 previously described. It is also noted coverage period of the bill received 2/20/67 is 4/22/63 to 10/2/63 rather than 4/22/63 to 8/2/63 as previously furnished by [redacted] are noted, it is also noted that contacts with the Telephone Co. to effect reservation of leased lines for possible FBI use would extend the period in each instance for which the Telephone Co. concludes the FBI had control of the pertinent leased lines. No written record is available in FBI, Milwaukee files as to exact dates when leased lines would have been reserved in above instances, but this would have been in each case several weeks prior to the date the installation actually went into effect, and promptly after receipt from the Bureau of a communication authorizing survey be made concerning the particular installation.

In regard to above mentioned due bills which are enclosed herein for Bureau's consideration, the total of these bills is $284.58. While the leased lines were never actually used by Milwaukee FBI Office in regard to [ ] coverage, the Telephone Co. was contacted concerning availability of leased lines also in that instance, and apparently did reserve leased lines as a result of that contact even though the company was not recontacted with any advice that the leased lines would be used.

In view of the fact that the Telephone Co., utilizing all legal and administrative consideration and advice available, has concluded that Wisconsin law requires charges to be made for previous leased lines when it is officially discovered that such lines were made available, SAC, Milwaukee, recommends that the Bureau pay the bills which have been received. While the periods of leased line utilized as estimated by Telephone Co. are not exactly the same as period which Milwaukee Office is aware the leased lines were actually used, it does not appear that the variances would be material, particularly considering that reservations of these leased lines would have taken place some weeks ahead of any actual use. SAC, Milwaukee, therefore, recommends that the bills be paid as they are stated, rather than any attempt at refiguring the bills to be more precise be made. An additional reason for paying the bills as stated, rather than refiguring, would be that it does not appear any useful purpose would be served at this time by ReBu-airtel 2/24/67.

On 2/27/67 the matter of receipt of bills from Wis. Telephone Co. re past leased line service for Milwaukee FBI Office, and desirability of payment of these charges was fully discussed with USA JAMES B. BRENNAN, EDW, by SAC, Milwaukee. Discussion was with particular reference to whether payment of the telephone charges will in any way adversely affect current prosecution against BALISTRIERI or any future litigation, civil or criminal, which might arise in connection with these surveillances.

After discussing the background and circumstances of the Telephone Co. forwarding above charges, USA BRENNAN was of personal feeling that the Telephone Co. could hardly, in reality, succeed in placing itself in full compliance with Wisconsin statutes by billing and receiving payment for the pertinent leased line service at this late date. USA BRENNAN did not actually reach any conclusion as to the legal implications inherent in FBI payment of the bills, but stated that it would be necessary for him to take the matter up with the Department. He advised he was corresponding with the Department promptly, furnishing them the background and would request consideration at the Department and a decision at Departmental level in regard to this matter. He advised he would promptly let SAC, Milwaukee, know when consideration of the legal aspects has been completed.

As mentioned in previous memorandum, in connection with the income tax trial of Milwaukee La Cosa Nostra leader Balistrieri, which resumes March 6, 1967, [redacted]

SAC Paul Fields of Milwaukee called at 5:30 P.M. March 3, 1967, to advise that Dominic Frinzi, Milwaukee attorney, on whom we have had microphone coverage in the past, had advised the press on March 3 that he had discovered live wiretap wires in his office.

Frinzi stated that he had hired Bernard Spindel, notorious wiretapper to survey his office and Spindel had found "three sets of wiretapping wires leading from a telephone in Frinzi's office to a junction box to telephone lines." Frinzi had demanded that the telephone company remove these lines.

The press has contacted SAC Fields who has made no comment concerning this matter. Fields stated our previous microphone had been removed at the time it was discontinued several years ago but that some of the wires which serviced it are probably still in the building where Frinzi's office is located.

ACTION:

SAC Fields is obtaining full particulars concerning Frinzi's allegations from the telephone company and will keep the Bureau advised of developments. Crime Records Division has been advised of the foregoing.

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
ANTI-RACKETEERING

In the attached teletype from Milwaukee, additional details are set forth concerning statements made to the press by Milwaukee attorney Dominic Frinzi on whom we had previously maintained microphone coverage. Frinzi had informed the press that Bernard Spindel, notorious wiretapper had located three sets of "live" wiretap lines in Frinzi's office.

Information has now been received from the Wisconsin Telephone Company that no wires other than regular telephone lines ran from juncture box to any telephones in Frinzi's office. Certain wires were located in the crawl space above Frinzi's office which could have been wires utilized by our Milwaukee Office in their coverage of Frinzi. Milwaukee advised that when that coverage was terminated and the microphone removed, it was not possible for security reasons to remove all the inside wiring used in this installation.

Frinzi indicated to the Wisconsin Telephone Company representative that he contemplates civil suit against the telephone company and also plans to appear before the Long Committee within the next two months concerning this incident. He also advised telephone company representatives that he plans to bring up this matter in connection with the trial of Balistrieri scheduled to resume in Springfield, Illinois, on March 6, 1967. It will be recalled that the Department disclosed the fact of our microphone coverage of Frinzi during the trial of Balistrieri in Springfield, which was interrupted as a result of a heart attack sustained by Chief Defense Council Walsh.

ACTION

ANTI-RACKETEERING

The following are characterizations of informants utilized in the report of SA CARLYLE N. REED at Milwaukee, dated and captioned as above:

MI T-1 is a legitimate individual who comes in contact with hoodlums in Milwaukee.

MI T-3 is a hoodlum.

MI T-4 is a legitimate businessman who comes in contact with hoodlums.

MI T-8 is a gambler - hoodlum.

MI T-10 is an individual who has hoodlum associations.

MI T-11 is an individual who by virtue of his legitimate business and position is acquainted with hoodlums, gamblers, pimps and prostitutes.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

THE LINE IS BUSY—Milwaukee Atty. Dominic Frinzi Friday looked over a wire tapping device on his desk which indicated a telephone conversation on wires dangling from the ceiling of his office.

Frinzi claims the FBI bugged his office. A wire tapping expert hired by Frinzi found four sets of wires, three of which were still connected and monitoring other telephone conversations. — Jan. 10, 1961

Arrested 206 Times

He has been arrested or indicted 206 times in connection with his work, but he has been found guilty only once. The charge was eavesdropping and a fine of $500 was suspended while the case is being reviewed.

"There is another thing about this case that has me burned up," Frinzi said. "For three years we have been complaining to the building management about the air conditioning in this office. Now I know what was happening. We have been losing pressure through that hole the FBI chopped in the ceiling."

Balistrieri's trial was recessed in November when one of his attorneys became ill. It will resume Monday in Springfield (Ill.) federal court.

National controversy over FBI wire tapping procedures has arisen in recent months. The FBI is under strict orders to tap telephones and use other listening devices only in cases involving national security. The term national security has never been defined. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has declined to elaborate on the extent of wire tapping.

Frinzi has twice run as a Democratic candidate for governor. He was defeated in the 1964 and 1966 primaries.

STILL LIVE—Milwaukee Atty. Dominic Frinzi examined the ceiling above his desk, where he said a wire tapping expert discovered microphone wires used by the FBI to record conversations in his office. The wires are connected to telephone lines now used in a downtown bank and other offices in the Plankinton building where Frinzi has his office. The FBI declined to comment. —Journal Photo

Frinzi Shows Wires, Claims FBI Tap

By JOHN R. STALLARD
Of The Journal Staff

Atty. Dominic H. Frinzi claimed Friday that three sets of live wires discovered in his office were part of a wire tapping system left there by the FBI.

The wires still monitored telephone conversations, although not from Frinzi's office. During a brief demonstration, this reporter listened to a telephone conversation from a downtown bank over one set of the wires. Two sets of wires carried conversation believed to be from other telephones in the Plankinton building, where Frinzi's office is situated. It was not known whether the telephones, connected to the wires were being monitored by the FBI.

The bureau declined to comment about any aspect of the situation.

Wires Traced

FBI agent Joseph E. O'Connell testified last November in Springfield, Ill., during the income tax evasion trial of Milwaukee night club operator Frank P. Balistreri, that he had bugged a Milwaukee lawyer's office.

O'Connell did not identify the lawyer, but Frinzi said Friday that he was the one. O'Connell said he installed only one microphone and that he "removed the installation."

Frinzi hired Bernard B. Spindel, Holmes, N. Y., who claims he is the nation's No. 1 private wire tapping expert, to search his office. Spindel said that wires he found in the ceiling and walls indicated that someone had placed at least three microphones in Frinzi's office, and all that was done in the removal process was to "snip off the microphones."

Spindel said the three sets of wires led from Frinzi's office to a telephone circuit box in the hallway where they were connected to working telephone lines. A fourth set of wires in Frinzi's office was not connected to anything, but Spindel said they had originally also been part of an eavesdropping system.

"This place was lit up like a Christmas tree," Spindel said. "It would have taken less than a minute to connect the microphones again, and, since the wires were still live, anybody could have charged Frinzi with illegal eavesdropping."

Spindel said the system included a series of microphones wired directly to telephone lines. The subscriber to the telephone line originally could listen to any conversation in Frinzi's office merely by picking up his telephone receiver.

System 2 Years Old

Spindel said the age and condition of the wires indicated that they had been placed in Frinzi's office "a few years ago."

He theorized that whoever had bugged Frinzi's office had at some time released the telephone lines back to the telephone company and that the company had reassigned the wires to new telephone subscribers, unaware that they were still connected as part of a bugging system.

A spokesman for the Wisconsin Telephone Co. acknowledged that the wiring was set up as Spindel described it, and that the FBI had once asked for telephone lines in the building.

"But we didn't know what the FBI wanted with the lines," the spokesman said. "We assign them lines the same as any other subscriber."

The spokesman conceded that the company had reassigned the FBI lines to other subscribers and did not know that any microphone wires were attached.

When the wires were discovered, Frinzi demanded that someone from the telephone company come to view them. Robert Wenzel, head of the company's security division, went to Frinzi's office Friday afternoon.

"I'm horrified at you people for allowing this system to be hooked up in the first place," Frinzi told Wenzel. "Now I want those wires out of here and I want them out fast before they get me into trouble."

Agrees to Removal

Wenzel said he didn't know anything about the wires, but he agreed to have them removed immediately.

One microphone for the listening device had been installed directly over Frinzi's desk. A hole about three inches wide had been broken in the main ceiling plaster and a microphone laid over a crack in the subceiling.

Spindel connected a voltage meter to the wires over Frinzi's desk. The meter reacted each time a telephone call was made. "If you don't believe there is conversation on that line," Spindel said, "try this."

He connected a receiver headset to the wires and handed it to the reporter.

Wires Laid in Attic

The conversation was that of a man discussing bank checks. Spindel connected the headset to another set of wires near a secretary's desk in Frinzi's office. The reporter heard a woman discussing office procedures.

The microphone wires were laid in the attic of the top floor of the building and in some cases had been concealed under the insulation.

The connection where one set of the wires was connected to a telephone line was covered over with small red "protector caps."

Spindel said such caps are normally put over connections for burglary and fire alarms as a warning for telephone repairmen not to disturb them.

Spindel has been employed by many companies to detect bugging and wire tap devices. "I am the man who finds 90% of all FBI wire taps discovered," he said.

DATE: 3/8/67

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI

Re Milwaukee airtel, 1/17/67 concerning proposed legislation in the City of Milwaukee for an ordinance against wire tapping and electronic surveillance.

On 3/6/67 [redacted]

[redacted] voluntarily advised SA CARLYLE N. REED on a confidential basis as follows regarding the status of the above-mentioned proposed ordinance:

[redacted] has received no information to date to indicate that the proposed ordinance barring wire tapping and the use of electronic listening devices has come out of the Committee on Judiciary - Legislation of the Milwaukee City Council for further consideration by the council. There is presently an apparent lack of enthusiasm on the part of most of the councilmen for passage of such an ordinance. Even Alderman [redacted] who initiated this proposed ordinance, has recently mentioned [redacted] that he now believes that with the proposal of Federal and State legislation covering this subject matter, that the City of Milwaukee could be less concerned and leave the matter to State and Federal levels of legislation. It was [redacted] opinion that this ordinance proposed by Alderman [redacted] would not be passed and probably would not come to a council vote.

The Bureau will be kept advised of further developments regarding this matter.

In connection with recent disclosures made by the Department concerning our microphone coverage in above-captioned cases, it is noted that in both instances the court ruled this coverage did not adversely affect the prosecution of the case.

Balistrieri, who was tried on Federal income tax evasion charges in Federal District Court in Springfield, Illinois, was found guilty on two counts on March 23, 1967.

Beckley and two associates were found guilty on March 22, 1967, on all counts in United States District Court, Miami, Florida, in connection with violations of the Interstate Transportation in Aid of Racketeering - Gambling Statute.

The foregoing is being brought to your attention as examples of cases wherein successful prosecution was not vitiated by reason of the fact that microphone coverage had been maintained.

SUBJECT: DEPARTMENT'S DISCLOSURES OF FBI ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCES
HAVING A BEARING ON PROSECUTIONS

Reference is made to memorandum J. H. Gale to Mr. DeLoach, March 15, 1967, which briefly summarized the circumstances in the 16 cases in which the Department has made court disclosures regarding past FBI electronic surveillance coverage.

Included among these cases was the Interstate Transportation in Aid of Racketeering prosecution of Gilbert Lee Beckley, nationally prominent gambling figure, in Florida. As indicated in the referenced memorandum, the Department had made disclosure of FBI electronic surveillance coverage of Beckley at the beginning of his trial. After hearings on a motion of the defense to suppress, the court instructed that the trial proceed. On March 22, 1967, Beckley, along with two associates, were convicted and are currently awaiting sentencing.

Another case included was the income tax evasion prosecution of Frank Balistrieri in United States District Court, Springfield, Illinois, in which the Government had also made disclosures regarding FBI electronic surveillance coverage of Balistrieri. Here again, after hearings on a motion to suppress, the trial judge instructed that proceedings continue. On March 23, 1967, Balistrieri was convicted and is currently awaiting sentence.

No new disclosures of this type have been made since the date of referenced memorandum, nor have there been any major developments in other cases in which disclosures had previously been made with the exception of the Beckley and Balistrieri cases, as noted above.

The above-captioned case involves Milwaukee hoodlum Frank Peter Balistrieri who has been tried on Federal income tax evasion charges in Federal District Court at Springfield, Illinois. Prior to trial of this case the Department divulged to the court and to defense attorneys the fact that we had previously had microphone coverage on Balistrieri  and one of his defense attorneys, Dominic Frinzi. Frinzi is a defense attorney for various hoodlums in the Milwaukee area.

b7c

SAC Paul Fields of the Milwaukee Office has advised that a verdict of guilty was returned this morning against Balistrieri on two counts. These counts involve his income tax for years 1959 and 1960.

The above is another case in which the Department revealed our previous microphone coverage; however, the court ruled that it had no effect on the prosecution.

Mr. Dominic H. Frinzi, Attorney,
Suite 7144, 161 West Wisconsin Ave.,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Dear Mr. Frinzi:

I have your letter of March 9th, 1967, copies of which were apparently sent to Mr. Croak and Mr. Brennan. I think you have misinterpreted my letter if you have concluded that I was attempting to foreclose your investigation of the question as to whether or not evidence to be used against your client was obtained from electronic surveillance. The purpose of my letter was to report to you and [ ] the facts with respect to the right of [ ] to testify upon the single issue that would have materiality in the above entitled case. I felt then and I feel now that you must decide on the facts I gave you whether or not you felt it was worthwhile to have a further hearing. The only condition I have laid down is that I do want the trial to proceed in the case of State vs Covelli upon the date we have agreed upon. b6 b7C

I inform you and other counsel that I am reserving the afternoon of March 27th, 1967, from 2:00 o'clock on to permit you to proceed under your order to show cause relating to the problem of evidence obtained from an electronic surveillance. I am sending copies of this letter to [ ] and Mr. Brennan so that they may be advised of the date and so that necessary parties may be present and that we may then conclude that phase of the trial.

Respectfully yours,

M. Eugene Baker

Re: State vs. Covelli.

Dear Judge Baker:

It appears from your letter of February 27th that the Department of Justice will permit [redacted] to testify regarding information that he may or may not have concerning Mr. Covelli. You also indicate that [redacted] has filed an affidavit and you seem to indicate that for all intents and purposes this closes the matter.

b6

However, I believe that we have a full right to examine [redacted] under oath concerning the issue of illegal evidence and we certainly would not be satisfied with his fragmentary affidavit concerning Mr. Covelli.

You also indicate that I have the logs kept in connection with the surveillance and that [redacted] would have nothing further to add. I might well inform the Court that these logs are not true representations of what occurred in my office and do not in any way coincide with my office records concerning who I did or did not speak to during the period of surveillance.

I might also add that [redacted] previously testified in another proceeding that "the installation had been removed" from my office. However, just last week we discovered otherwise -- that two sets of live wires which were undoubtedly used for surveillance were still present in my office. We also discovered that more than one microphone had been used and that there is a serious question of a possible telephone tap. It is my feeling that this information does not coincide with [redacted] previous testimony, and in the best interests of my client I certainly am not in a position to foreclose this matter on the purported affidavit of [redacted]

b6
b7C

I respectfully further remind the Court that [redacted] of the Attorney General's office was subpoenaed to testify and I certainly want the opportunity to examine him under oath.

DETAILS:

FEDERAL INCOME TAX TRIAL

Under date of March 23, 1967, the Springfield, Illinois, Division of the FBI reported the following concerning FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI's Federal Income Tax trial at Springfield, Illinois:

On March 23, 1967, the Federal jury hearing the BALISTRIERI case in the Southern District of Illinois at Springfield, returned a guilty verdict against BALISTRIERI on Counts Two and Three of the indictment for income tax evasion. Count One for conspiracy was bits of information that he has received that among the bookies in Milwaukee, possibly only two of them, [redacted] [redacted] are not tied in with FRANK BALISTRERI, and therefore, would not be giving BALISTRERI a cut on their action.

b6

At this same time this same source mentioned that apparently FRANK BALISTRERI has been very worried of late and under considerable mental and physical strain because of his Federal Income Tax trial which was then in progress. This source pointed out that if FRANK BALISTRERI has any thoughts or ideas of stepping down from his position as boss of the local syndicate or outfit (LCN), his father-in-law, JOHN ALIOTO, would not welcome this and take a chance on an outsider coming into Milwaukee to run things.

On March 20, 1967, MI T-3 referred to the news reports on the weekend of March 17-18, 1967, when an apartment occupied by ANTHONY CEFALU in the 800 Block of North 27th Street, Milwaukee, was raided by IRS Agents at which time evidence was seized by search warrant, such as betting tickets, notes and other material indicative of a betting operation. MI T-3 advised that this place operated by CEFALU is commonly referred to as "The Office" and is a central point for making book. This source said that FRANK BALISTRERI has a piece of this gambling operation which in the past has been handled through BALISTRERI's lieutenant, STEVE DE SALVO.

The Milwaukee "Outfit" and Related Information

It should be noted that in the past reliable sources have identified the so-called "Outfit" in Milwaukee, as being the same as the organization known as the La Cosa Nostra (LCN).

On March 8, 1967, MI T-10 furnished the following information when asked whom he considered to be the boss of the "Outfit" in Milwaukee:

dismissed. BALISTRIERI's defense made a verbal motion for a new trial after which the court granted the defense thirty days to file a brief in support of the motion.

On March 8, 1967, MI T-4 advised that in the past week or two, FRANK BALISTRIERI reportedly made a statement to the effect that up to that time his Federal Income Tax trial had cost him $80,000.00. This source was not in a position to comment on the veracity of this statement.

Part one, page five, of the March 7, 1967, final edition of the "Milwaukee Sentinel," a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, daily newspaper, reported, in part, the following under a Springfield, Illinois, dateline concerning BALISTRIERI's Federal Income Tax trial:

"Frank P. Balistrieri signed the names of five other persons to certificates, bank records and tax records, a handwriting expert testified in federal court here Monday.

"The testimony would link Balistrieri, a Milwaukee night club operator on trial for tax evasion, to four firms in which the government maintains he had a financial or controlling interest.

"The expert, Edwin C. Schroeder, Indianapolis, Ind., an examiner of questioned documents, testified that 25 different signatures in which the five names were used were in the defendant's handwriting.

"The names, he said, were those of Rudolph Porchetta, Stephen Di Maggio, Sebastian Balistrere, Peter Balistrieri and Santo Curro.

"Schroeder testified:

"Porchetta's name appeared on a certificate filed with the state of Wisconsin and newly elected officers of Melody Lane, Inc., a firm which distributed coin operated amusement devices. The grand jury indictment of Balistrieri charged that he controlled this firm.

MI 94-316

"Sebastian Balistrieri's name appeared on several documents in connection with Midwest Scrap Metal Co., a firm which the indictment asserts the defendant had a financial interest.

"Peter Balistrieri's name appeared on records of the Tradewinds Inc., also known as The Pub, Inc., and Gallagher's, Inc., 829 N. 3rd st. The indictment asserts that Balistrieri had a financial interest in this firm.

"Curro's name was signed as an endorsement of a check.

"The indictment claims that officers of firms in which the defendant had an interest were 'purely nominees, dummies and straws,' set up to conceal Balistrieri's interest, and that the firms' records were kept so as to hide large financial transactions."

During the course of the FRANK BALISTRIERI Federal Income Tax trial there were indications that PETER J. GRANATA, Chicago, Illinois, might appear as a defense witness. The FBI, Chicago, identified PETER J. GRANATA as a former member of the Illinois State Legislature, who, in 1965, when he was not a member of that legislature, was in Springfield, Illinois, contacting acquaintances in the State Legislature on behalf of efforts of organized criminals in Chicago to defeat anti-crime legislation then under consideration by the General Assembly. GRANATA was also identified, in some instances, by his own admission, as an acquaintance of a number of top leaders in organized crime in the Chicago, Illinois, area, some of whom are now deceased.

During the course of the trial, the following were included among witnesses for BALISTRIERI or were identified as being associated with BALISTRIERI:

[redacted]
Local 200, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, of the Teamsters Union and a general organizer for this union, who testified [redacted] [redacted] BALISTRIERI between 1959 and 1965.

b6
b7c

[redacted]
salvage businessman, who testified that he has been a social acquaintance of FRANK BALISTRIERI [redacted]

SEBASTIAN (BUSTER) BALESTRERE, Kansas City, Missouri, who formerly resided at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

AUGUST CHIAVEROTTI, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

SANTO CURRO, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

PETER BALISTRIERI, brother of FRANK BALISTRIERI.

RUDOLPH PORCHETTA, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

In the past, MI T-3 and/or MI T-4 have identified [redacted] as associates of Milwaukee hoodlums, and CHIAVEROTTI, CURRO, PETER BALISTRIERI and RUDOLPH (RUDY PORCHETTA) as Milwaukee hoodlums. MI T-3 and MI T-4 have identified SEBASTIAN (BUSTER) BALESTRERE as organizer and enforcer in the hoodlum syndicate or organization in Milwaukee under the control of FRANK BALISTRIERI when BUSTER was in Milwaukee several years ago.

ALLEGATIONS OF POSSIBLE ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

On February 28, 1967, MI T-11 advised as follows:

LEROY BELL, Negromale, is on good terms with and contacts FRANK BALISTRIERI, who, according to this source could conceivably be getting a cut from BELL's activities in the field of prostitution and possibly gambling. MI T-11 noted that LEROY BELL is a pimp who runs the Hop Inn in Milwaukee.

MI 94-316

On February 28, 1967, MI T-3 furnished the following:

[redacted] is a local Milwaukee hoodlum who has been operating a craps and poker game at [redacted] Milwaukee. This game was being run on a commercial basis and was raided by the Milwaukee Police in late March of 1967, at which time [redacted] and some fourteen other individuals were arrested at this gambling joint. MI T-3 said that although not definitely known, there is a possibility that FRANK BALISTRERI may have put his "ok" on this game and if so, BALISTRERI would be getting a cut of the house profits which allegedly have been running as high as two to three thousand dollars gross take per week. This source said that included among players in this game from time to time was [redacted] [redacted]

b7c

On March 8, 1967, MI T-4 advised that on the night of March 3, 1967, there was a dinner party at FAZIO's on Fifth Street in Milwaukee, celebrating and in honor of LOUIS FAZIO's pardon by the Governor of Wisconsin. FAZIO had been on parole from the State Prison after conviction on a murder charge. This source noted that FRANK BALISTRERI made a late appearance at this party attended by one hundred or more guests, many of whom were local hoodlums and gamblers. FRANK BALISTRERI was accompanied at this time by WILLIAM "WEASER" COVELLI and JOHN RIZZO, hoodlums from the Kenosha-Racine, Wisconsin, area, who, of late, were working for BALISTRERI in his Milwaukee nightclubs.

Regarding the craps and poker game being operated by [redacted] at [redacted] Milwaukee, MI T-4 advised he had heard that [redacted] may have been trying to get FRANK BALISTRERI to bank roll a part of the total funds necessary to keep this game going. This source did not know if BALISTRERI actually has any money in this game.

b6
b7c

Regarding sports book operations in Milwaukee, MI T-4 advised that in his opinion, based upon various

MI 94-316

This source said that the boss is FRANK BALISTRERI and his lieutenant is STEVE DE SALVO, who might also be described as BALISTRERI's enforcer.

On March 20, 1967, MI T-3 advised as follows:

On the night of March 3, 1967, [redacted] (phonetic), a Chicago "Outfit" man who is a close associate of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO, a prominent figure in the Chicago "Outfit," was in contact with FRANK BALISTRERI in Milwaukee. This source did not know the purpose of [redacted] appearance in Milwaukee. The source speculated that [redacted] may have come up from Chicago to cut up some money. In this regard, FRANK BALISTRERI had at about this time allegedly made statements that he has all the money he wants (despite the heavy financial drain on him in connection with his Federal Income Tax trial.) MI T-3 pointed out that in view of this heavy financial drain, there could very logically be a financial tie between BALISTRERI and ALDERISIO.

b6
b7c

Nightclub Operation

On March 9, 1967, MI T-1 informed as follows:

There has been little or no change of late regarding patronage and volume of business at FRANK BALISTRERI's downtown Milwaukee nightclubs which are five in number, including The Scene, LeBistro, The Downtowner, The Ad Lib and Gallagher's. This source said he has gathered the impression members of the LCN believe that FRANK BALISTRERI is pressed for money at the time, particularly in view of his expenses in connection with his income tax trial.

Miscellaneous

On March 8, 1967, MI T-8 advised as follows:

This source attended a party held at Fazio's Restaurant on Fifth Street in Milwaukee, celebrating LOUIS FAZIO's pardon by Wisconsin Governor WARREN P. KNOWLES.

MI 94-316

Source noted that this party was attended by practically all of the "hoods" in Milwaukee, including FRANK BALISTRIERI, his brother, PETER, STEVE DE SALVO, and many others.

On February 28, 1967, MI T-3 informed as follows:

FRANK BALISTRIERI reportedly spent about a week in the Miami, Florida, area, returning to Milwaukee sometime during the week ending February 26, 1967. The source was not aware of the purpose of this trip. (It should be noted that other sources have reported that at about this time BALISTRIERI's attorney, MAURICE WALSH, of Chicago, Illinois, was said to have been in Florida.)

MI T-3 also noted the following:

BALISTRIERI's nightclub, The Ad Lib, is losing money. BALISTRIERI is quite friendly at the present with [redacted] a Milwaukee iron and steel salvage business operator, and an associate of many Milwaukee hoodlums, including "BLACKIE" BROCCA, who continues to work for [redacted] on a salvage job in Pennsylvania.

b6
b7c

On March 10, 1967, MI T-4 furnished the following:

In the last week of February, 1967, FRANK BALISTRIERI was at Miami Beach, Florida, and was in the company of FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO. The reason for the presence of BALISTRIERI and ALDERISIO at Miami Beach was unknown to this source. Although not definitely known, this source said there was a possibility that hoodlums from other parts of the country were in the Miami-Miami Beach area at about this same time.

Reurairtel 4/6/67.

Based on your recommendation and Department's opinion that no legal difficulties might arise from payment to Wisconsin Telephone Company of bills for leased lines used by Bureau in connection with surveillances on Balistrieri, Dominic Frinzi [redacted] authority granted for payment of these charges in accordance with bills submitted by your airtel of 2/20/67.

b6
b7C

You should advise the Bureau when payment has been made.

NOTE: Lease line facilities furnished to our Milwaukee Office by the Wisconsin Telephone Company for use in connection with surveillances on Balistrieri, Frinzi [redacted] originally free of charge. However, following complaints by Frinzi, telephone company concluded it would be necessary to bill the FBI for these facilities in the sum of $284.50 in order to satisfy Wisconsin state legal requirements.

b6
b7C

By Gale to DeLoach memorandum of 3/1/67 it was recommended and approved that these charges be paid provided the Department and the USA at Milwaukee could see no legal objection to payment of these charges. By airtel of 4/6/67 Milwaukee advised that USA James B. Brennan of Milwaukee has been informed by [redacted] Assistant Attorney General, Tax Division of the Department, that there are no legal difficulties to be foreseen arising from payment of these charges. SUBJECT: Frank Peter Balistrieri
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Reference is made to the memorandum dated December 22, 1966, from the Director, F.B.I., to the Attorney General and the latter's reply thereto, concerning possible misconduct of [redacted]

b6
b7C

I have discussed this matter with Judge Poos, with [redacted] [redacted] once in the presence of Judge Poos and, on a second occasion, alone, and with Assistant United States Attorney Gimbel, the chief prosecutor of Balistrieri. The reason for the discussion with [redacted] will become apparent below.

[redacted] has been with [redacted] In addition to his duties [redacted] he also [redacted] Last November Judge Poos attended the "Duffy Day" dinner, an affair honoring Judge E. Ryan Duffy, of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, a Milwaukeean. [redacted] Judge Poos to Milwaukee for the occasion.

b7C

[redacted] during that first evening on this trip to Milwaukee visited a recently opened night club known as the Ad Lib which, I understand, features good entertainment. During the evening Frank Balistrieri, his son, Joseph, and a third male entered the club. The parties recognized each other; the three joined [redacted] at his table-- he was alone--and Balistrieri ordered a round of drinks, [redacted] in turn ordered and paid for a round of drinks. Several drinks were had and [redacted] candidly admits Balistrieri paid for most of them.

b6
b7C

The next morning, [redacted] realizing the awkward position in which inadvertently he had allowed himself to be placed and recognizing possible unwarranted embarrassment to his Judge, before whom Balistrieri was on trial, informed both Judge Poos and [redacted] about the incident. The Judge and [redacted] corroborate this aspect of [redacted] story.

ENCLOSURE

That evening [redacted] deliberately sought out Balistrieri--he located him at a night club known as the Scene--and bluntly told him that he should not read anything more into the accidental but friendly meeting of the prior evening than the fact that [redacted] had a couple of drinks with him. [redacted] accompanied by Balistrieri's son, Joe, immediately left the Scene, went to Victor's Club, had two drinks and then returned to his room alone. The following day he and Judge Poos returned to Springfield. Neither during this visit to Milwaukee nor at any other time was [redacted] "entertained" in Milwaukee night clubs at Balistrieri's expense or invited to Balistrieri's Milwaukee home. Judge Poos corroborates this aspect of [redacted] story.

b6
b7C

I have known [redacted] for the past [redacted] years. On the basis of that familiarity, I accept without reservation his explanation of his alleged entertainment "at Balistrieri's expense at Milwaukee night clubs." I quarrel with no one who may criticize [redacted] judgment in his handling of the chance meeting with Balistrieri or his impetuous action of the next evening. His explanation of the meeting, however, does have the ring of truth about it and his subsequent actions, naive as they may appear to be, are, it seems to me, the reactions of an honest and loyal individual.

b6
b7C

Extensive travel in connection with Government business does present, I can assure you, many hazards. A meeting such as the one referred to herein, innocent and accidental as it may really be, is but one of them. To impute misconduct into one such chance meeting is to engage in silly speculation.

Judge Poos has authorized me to state that he has the utmost confidence in [redacted] integrity and loyalty. I have the same confidence.

b6

Balistrieri, as you know, now stands convicted on two counts of tax evasion. Our problem now, if it be a problem, is to win an affirmance in the court of appeals.

In view of all of the facts and circumstances set forth herein and considering the facts or, I should say, the lack of hard facts in the Bureau memorandum, I recommend that the Bureau be informed of the results of my contact with Judge Poos regarding this matter and that it be advised that no investigation should be conducted concerning it.

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI

Re Milwaukee airtels, 2/13/67, 2/20/67, and 2/27/67, and 4/17/67, setting forth details and background concerning discussions with officials of the Wisconsin Telephone Company relative to payment by the Bureau of bills rendered in regard to telephone lines made available to the Bureau in connection with technical coverage.

On 4/25/67, [redacted] Legal Department, Attorney, Wisconsin Telephone Company, contacted SAC, Milwaukee, at the Milwaukee Office to discuss additional considerations in regard to this matter. It is noted that the rendering of bills for such telephone lines was initially discussed on the basis that the availability of such lines to the Bureau had become public knowledge in the FRANK BALISTRIERI income tax trial in Springfield, Illinois. As regards coverage of FRANK BALISTRIERI, DOMINIC FRINZI, one of BALISTRIERI's attorneys, [redacted] [redacted] it was felt by the Telephone Company officials that in order to bring the Telephone Company into compliance with the Wisconsin State Laws, since FRINZI and others had been openly criticizing the Telephone Company for giving service to the FBI without charging for it, it would be necessary to render bills to the FBI for the service in the above three incidents. [redacted] indicated at that time as noted in re Milwaukee airtel, 2/13/67, that for the present, at least, no charges would be made for other past services which had not come to public notice.

It is further noted that the bills in the above three incidents have been paid.

During the discussion on 4/25/67, [ ] advised that it had come to the Telephone Company's attention that DOMINIC FRINZI actually is planning to institute legal action against the Telephone Company. It is not certain at this time whether the action will be a suit on the basis of violation of civil rights or on the basis of coverage allowed by the Telephone Company amounting to prevention of FRINZI, as telephone subscriber, having private telephone service for which he paid. [ ] advised that the legal staff of the Telephone Company are aware, after researching the matter, that in a civil action brought by FRINZI, pre-trial discovery procedures would allow the plaintiff to explore dealings of the Telephone Company with the FBI and other agencies beyond any particular coverage directly affecting the plaintiff (FRINZI). In this situation, telephone company personnel could be required to furnish information which might involve both security and criminal type cases in which telephone lines have been made available in the past. In this event, if no method is found by which the Telephone Company's legal representatives can prevent disclosure of such information, then other past instances of FBI reservation of telephone lines could be publicly disclosed. This would also pin point additional apparent instances wherein the Telephone Company has made service available without cost in violation of Wisconsin State Statutes governing the distribution of telephone line service.

[ ] stated that in regard to any other instances of line service made available to the FBI than the three above-mentioned specific instances, the Telephone Company's legal staff and management have been considering four approaches:

b6

1. To refrain from rendering any further bills to the FBI and take the calculated risk that any civil action brought might not disclose any additional instances;

2. Based on the limited information available in Telephone Company files or in the recollection of company personnel involved, to make an over-all estimate of a fair bill for all past service and render same to the FBI;

3. Based on all available information, to figure fair separate bills for any instances known and render these bills separately;

4. An agreement with the FBI that any other telephone line services made available in the past were made available under the impression that they involved security matters of the United States and that the Telephone Company would refrain from rendering any bills regarding any of these instances until such time as the FBI would indicate, concerning particular instances, that no security interest remains which would be adversely affected by the rendering of a bill.

The above four approaches were thoroughly discussed with [ ] by SAC, Milwaukee, and it was made clear to him that the first proposition appears to be most preferable under the circumstances. He was reminded that at the time past services were made available, no thought was given by either Telephone Company officials or FBI representatives that any charges would be made for such services, but same was being made available on the basis of assisting the Federal Government in carrying out its responsibilities. It was also noted to him that the payment of particular bills currently, actually does not bring the Telephone Company in compliance with Wisconsin State Statutes since Telephone Company officials have been aware of the past services all along and there was no understanding that any bills would be rendered from the outset of the services.

It would appear and [ ] was so advised that if the Telephone Company officials finally concluded that the rendering of future bills is absolutely necessary, then an estimated over-all bill to cover all prior services would be preferable to individual bills, since this would involve less discussion among telephone company employees and less access by accounting department and other employees to identifying information pertaining to cases in which such services were used. It was felt and [redacted] was so advised that the fourth proposition, noted above, would in effect place the FBI in a position of identifying to the Telephone Company specific instances of coverage and furnishing identifying data which may not now be available to the Telephone Company and which could possibly be elicited from Telephone Company personnel in some future legal action. It was likewise noted that some of the past instances of coverage might well involve investigative matters of security interest in which we may never reach a point where possible disclosure of information would not adversely affect security interests. Another point considered here, of which [redacted] was not advised, is the fact that action under the fourth proposition might well entail immediate notification to the Telephone Company that "security" interests of the Government would not be adversely affected by the rendering of bills, at certain locations (other than security cases), which would pin point both security and criminal.

b6
b7C

Throughout above discussion, the strongly preferable approach of simply not rendering any additional bills until such time as the Telephone Company might be actually and immediately faced with a disclosure problem was emphasized to [redacted]. He was also reminded that Attorney DOMINIC FRINZI had publicly and in the press made threats of suit against the Telephone Company and the Government during the past several months, although no actual indication of same had developed. Also emphasized to him was the undesirability of placing the FBI in a position of furnishing any additional information to the Telephone Company which would tend to identify any past incidents of coverage service which have not already been disclosed.

b6

[redacted] advised that no final decision has been reached as to which of the above approaches would be the best for all parties involved, and that when this conclusion is finalized, the Telephone Company would contact the Milwaukee Office of the FBI and advise in order that consideration may be given to the particular proposition prior to same being formally and in writing presented to the FBI.

Foregoing is furnished for Bureau's information, it being noted that additional bills for telephone line service, as rendered by the telephone company, could involve several instances of technical-type coverage, pertaining both to security case situations and several criminal intelligence-type situations of which the Bureau has been previously advised. In the event telephone company officials re-contact SAC, Milwaukee concerning any of the four proposed actions noted above, the Bureau will be promptly advised with appropriate recommendations.

SUBJECT: FRANK PETER BALISTRIERI
AR

On 6/14/67, U. S. District Judge OMAR T. POOS, Springfield, Illinois, rejected motions for a new trial for BALISTRIERI (LCN Boss in Milwaukee) who was convicted in March, 1967 on evading income taxes in 1959 and 1960.

Judge POOS after his ruling ordered a pre-sentence investigation of BALISTRIERI.

In seeking a new trial MARUICE WALSH, Chicago attorney representing BALISTRIERI, argued that there was an "insufficiency of evidence" to uphold the tax evasion charges. WALSH further argued that information used in the trial was "tainted" because of the Government's use of an electronic device used [redacted] from 1961 to 1962.

Judge POOS in answering WALSH's argument said he thought the court had done "a good job" in keeping such information out of the trial record.

IRS Agents Armed in '62, Court Is Told

by DAVID D. GLADFELTER
Sentinel Staff Writer

Springfield, Ill. — Internal revenue service (IRS) agents are issued weapons in 1962 on tip that an IRS agent was going to break into the federal building office of the IRS to steal records in the Frank P. Balistrieri tax case, according to testimony in federal court Thursday.

The testimony was given by Donald L. Jackson, a special S agent, and Ernest G. Johannes, a former special agent assigned to the Chicago regional office of the IRS. The agent was absent.

In other testimony Thursday:

The existence was revealed the third "bugging" device used by the federal bureau of investigation during its scrutiny of Balistrieri. The device, a microphone, was hidden in the Wisconsin av. office of a lawyer, whose name was not disclosed.

An FBI agent and three of the Wisconsin Telephone Co. testified that special phone lines were made available to the FBI to enable it to monitor the bugging devices, but the devices themselves and the monitoring equipment were installed by the FBI without knowledge of the company.

Jackson was asked to identify notation on his work sheet Oct. 7, 1962, which read: "sued weapons — search low third ward area."

Jackson explained to Atty. Gen. J. Walsh, representing Balistrieri, that IRS had received information that somebody was going to try to break into its federal building office and take the Balistrieri records.

Balistrieri, 48, a Milwaukee night club operator who lives at 3043 N. Shepard av., is on trial charged with income tax evasion.

Jackson testified that he had received a telephone call from Johannes and at his request issued firearms to two inspectors in the IRS intelligence division office. He said they were stationed there on a Sunday, when the offices were normally closed.

Johannes did not tell him where he received the information, Jackson said. Jackson said he asked Johannes later and was told, "The less I know about it the better."

He said that Johannes gave him the license number of an automobile and told him to drive around the area near the federal building in Milwaukee in an attempt to locate the vehicle. He said he did not locate it.

Jackson said he did not write a report of the incident.

Johannes at first said he could not recall the incident. When questioned about the entry in Jackson's work log, he replied, "I have no idea what this relates to, what this relates to at all."

When informed of Jackson's testimony, Johannes said that an FBI agent named John Gassoway had told him that the IRS office might be broken into.

He said Gassoway had given him the last name only of the person he suspected would break into the office. He said that the last name was that of "an IRS employee who has since left the service."

Johannes said that he and Jackson found out the license number of the employee's car, and he had asked Jackson to watch for the license number.

Both agents testified that there was no attempt to break into the office, and that no records were taken.

"It turned out to be a false rumor," asked Walsh.

"Right, sir," replied Johannes.

Johannes testified that he had reported the incident to the man who was then chief of the IRS intelligence division, in Milwaukee, Paul Rheume, and to the office of the IRS regional inspector in Chicago, and had made entries in his diary indicating "confidential" matters.

Asked whether he had told Jackson that the less he knew about the source of the tip the better, Johannes replied, "That's his recollection, not my recollection."

Walsh said he was interested in the incident because "I think this is some more bug business. It's another incident of FBI co-operation with the IRS."

The FBI has admitted conducting electronic surveillance of an office used by Balistrieri at 2559-61 N. Downer av., and at an apartment of Balistrieri's bookkeeper, Miss Jennie Alioto, at 1609 N. Prospect av.

Federal Judge Omer Poos has ruled that evidence obtained through the illegal surveillance would be inadmissible.

When Walsh asked Johannes the name of the suspected IRS employee, Franklin M. Gimbel, assistant United States attorney who is prosecuting the case, objected. He said that "nothing happened—it's just a story."

"It's just a story picked up on the surveillances," Walsh replied. He said he wanted to know the name of the agent to see if any other matters related to the incident appeared on the IRS logs.

Judge Poos told Johannes to give the name to Walsh in confidence. Johannes wrote something on a piece of paper and handed it to Walsh.

Joseph E. O'Connell, special agent for the FBI in Milwaukee, testified that he had arranged for installation of a microphone in the lawyer's office. He said the microphone had been removed sometime during 1963.

He said it had been placed so that the FBI could eavesdrop on confidential information among attorneys in the office, and between attorneys and their clients.

The microphone was connected by special telephone lines to the FBI office in the federal building, where it was monitored, O'Connell said. It was a type of installation and connection similar to that at the Downer av. office of Balistreri, he said.

The microphone in Miss Alloto's apartment was not monitored by means of a telephone connection, but via a radio transmitter to another apartment on the same floor where FBI men were stationed, he said.

The telephone company had been asked to reserve a special telephone line for FBI use at the Alloto apartment, but the line was not used.

O'Connell said he knew of no electronic surveillances ever having been conducted by the FBI at the homes or offices of two of Balistreri's attorneys, Mes. M. Shellow and Eugene Jensen; at four of Balistreri's alleged business places, Gallagher's, the Downtowner, the Lower Tavern and the Roosevelt hotel; or at the homes of three other individuals, Joseph Aniaki, Santo Curro and Rudolph Porchetta.

The latter three are named co-conspirators in a count against Balistreri of conspiracy to defraud the government in collection of taxes. That count is pending until after disposition of the two evasion counts. O'Connell said that the FBI did not co-operate with other government agencies in its bugging operations. He said he did not know whose decision it had been to conduct them.

David Nelson, general traffic manager and former general plant manager for the telephone company, testified that the company would make lines available to the FBI when requested, but would not assist the FBI in hooking up the lines and would not even know whether the lines were being used.

Q And what were those -- how did he identify them?

A By a number.

Q What was the number?

A I do not recall the number.

Q Where is your record of that number?

A I have no record of that number.

Q What did you do with it?

A I never made a record of that number.

Q You mean it was never written down in any report that you ever made?

Q Now, what was the code name for that surveillance?

A The code name, sir?

Q Yes.

A I don't understand the question.

Q Well, you -- in your reports that I've been looking at, that have been furnished me by the Government there are numbers like -- or, symbols like MI61 and another number on the sheets of paper, isn't that a code for the surveillance?

A That's referred to as a symbol number, not a code number, it is a symbol number.

Q All right.

To you it's a symbol number.

Now, what does that mean, what does the MI61, for instance, what would that mean?

A For an example, the MI616 with an asterisk?

Q Yes.

A After it would indicate to me that this is an electronic type of surveillance.

Q Well, I'll show you document -- I'll show you a document which bears an F.B.I. stamp and some numbers like 92-222-1-88 at the bottom, just for identification; direct your attention to the number at the top, MI something, what do those symbols signify to you?

A This M31-C on here signifies to me that this was an electronic type surveillance, information contained in this was obtained from an electronic type surveillance.

Q Do the numbers signify anything specifically?

Q Will you read it?

Now, would MI516, bearing the date 10-23-61 -- MI516C, and the document that's dated 9-27-63 and has the number M632C, would that indicate to you that there were some sixteen electronic surveillances during that period?

A No, not at all.

Q How are those numbers chosen?

A Those numbers are chosen through an administrative function at the office.

Q Who administers the function?

A I don't know the name of the individual, sir.

Q Here are three logs or copies of logs marked Defendant's Exhibits 2-D, 2-E and 2-F respectively, will you look at those and I ask if they refer to activity on your part in the electronic surveillance?

A Correct.

Q Why?

Q All right, sir.

Now, can you tell me whether this -- these two -- I forget what the other man called them, but maybe you can tell me what they --.

A (Interposing) Well, to me, sir, they are connector blocks.

Q Connector blocks, whether those connector blocks were furnished you by the telephone company?

A No.

Q Well, have you used connector blocks of that type in your installations?

A Yes.

Q Where did you obtain them?

A Well, you can obtain them, I don't know where I - may have obtained these particular ones, but they are marketable, on the market.

Q I see, in electrical shops?

A Yes.

Q Well, these are marked Westinghouse.

A Westinghouse? No, Western Electric.

Q Western Electric, excuse me.

A Uh-huh.

Q Doesn't that indicate to you that they are made for telephone company use?

A Well, I know Western Electric is a supplier for the telephone -- for telephone equipment.

Q Does it also market these, to your knowledge?

A I do not know whether Western Electric markets them or not.

Q Now, after you had this pair, cable and pair identified for you, by Mr. Stein, for the Alioto premises at -- on Prospect Avenue, for prospective use on Prospect Avenue, is it your testimony that you didn't use them?

A I did not use them.

Q Who did, to your knowledge?

A No one to my knowledge.

Q And did you make that known to Mr. Stein?

A I don't think I ever called Mr. Stein back on it or approached him further after our original discussion in which I attempted to determine from Mr. Stein whether such lines were available.

Q Well, actually, he reserved a specific cable and lines for you, didn't he?

A He said that they were available.

Q Well, he identified them for you?

A For our use that these particular lines were available for our use.

Q And he gave you the numbers?

A Yes.

Q And that's all you need to hook on, isn't it?

A That's right, sir.

Q Those numbers are kept secret by the telephone company, aren't they, otherwise?

A I don't know what procedure the telephone company has on keeping their numbers secret.

Q Well now, how many times have you acquired from the phone company and used cables and lines?

MR. GIMBEL: Object to that, Your Honor, unless he can relate it to this inquiry.

THE COURT: Well, I think you ought to relate it to the case here.

MR. WALSH: Well, Your Honor, my point is, he's in direct conflict with prior witnesses who told us that the F. B. I. would get a pair and a cable, and then when they ceased they would notify the telephone company, and the telephone company would erase the number, and put the new assignment down, if there was one, and he says --.

THE COURT: (Interposing) Nobody in the telephone company testified that they were ever used.

MR. WALSH: No, but --.

THE COURT: (Interposing) This man here says he only used one at an address --.

MR. WALSH: (Interposing) That's right, but I want to test his testimony to find out what he said on direct --.

THE COURT: (Interposing) You can test him.

MR. GIMBEL: The only objection I have, Your Honor, is that he should relate it to this case. If Mr. O'Connell has done any of his special -- used his special talents in any other case that might involve the national security, I don't think it should be part of this record.

THE COURT: Of course it will not be if that's what it is.

MR. GIMBEL: He asked him how many times he's done this.

THE COURT: I'm going to limit it now to cases outside of protection of the national security.

MR. WALSH: Q All right, cases outside national security.

A What is your question?

THE COURT: How many times have you used this equipment or these lines or these cables from the telephone company in cases outside of national security cases?

THE WITNESS: Well, I've used them several times, exact number I don't know.

MR. WALSH: Q Well, is it more than ten?

A I would say not.

Q All right.

Then in those cases which are divorced from national security investigations or surveillances, when you cease the use of the cable and pair, did you not notify the phone company?

A Only if it was going to be ceased permanently. I would notify them. If there was any potential that it might be used subsequently, I did not.

Q And can you tell us -- do you recall the number of this cable and pair that you asked about for use on Prospect Avenue?

A No, sir, I don't recall the number.

Q But you didn't write it down, purposely?

A Sir?

Q You omitted writing it down so it won't be available to anyone, I suppose?

A I never made a report of writing anything like that down.

Q Why not?

A Because I didn't feel it was necessary to write it down.

Q Because you would remember it?

A If I were going to use it I would remember it.

Q Are you an attorney, Mr. O'Connell?

A No, I'm not.

Q Now, in connection with this case did you make any other telephone company type connections?

A In connection with the Alioto matter?

Q Alioto or Balistreri, yes.

A I made one inquiry about available lines in the Balistreri case.

Q Did you use the lines?

A Yes.

Q And then the, -- this other surveillance was done in the manner that you've described for the Downer Avenue --?

A The Downer Avenue surveillance was monitored at the office of the F.B.I.

Q Yes, sir.

A Over a telephone line.

Q Yes, sir.

Now, where was the other one where you used the telephone --?

A The Prospect?

Q Now, the Prospect you said was not a wire situation.

A That's true.

Q Over a radio?

A That's true.

Q No telephone line used at all?

A At the Prospect, no.

Q Now, did you use another cable and pair from a telephone company in any other electronic surveillance connected with this case, without naming it?

A I have used another pair but I don't know if it has any connection to this case.

Q Well --,

MR. McNELIS: Mr. Walsh, could we approach the bench just a moment, please?

(Discussion off the record, at the bench.)

THE COURT: Mr. Walsh, you may go ahead without naming what the situation was, I think there's one situation that this Witness wouldn't know about that you might want to interrogate him about, that's not concerned in this act.

MR. McNELIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. WALSH: Q Well, Mr. O'Connell, did you arrange for the installation of a microphone in the office of a lawyer in Milwaukee?

A Yes.

Q More than once?

A No.

Q Only one lawyer?

A Yes.

Q And was that a -- an office which was used by several lawyers?

A Yes.

Q And was the microphone in a place where the lawyer's conversations with his clients and any person who came to his office could be heard?

A Yes.

Q And where conferences between him and his secretary and his associates in the office would be heard?

A Yes.

Q And was that installation conducted or made in the same way or similar to the one at 1609 Prospect?

A No.

Q What was the difference?

A The one at 1609 North Prospect was not monitored on a leased line, a telephone line.

Q A radio, that was the radio?

A That's right, sir.

Q All right.

Then, how about the Downer Avenue, was that installation similar to the one in the lawyer's office?

A Yes, sir.

Q That ran to the F.B.I. office?

A Yes, sir.

Q And the sounds or conversations or whatever it was that was picked up was picked up through a microphone of the type that we examined here?

A Similar to that, sir.

Q Did you take part in that surveillance?

A I beg your pardon?

Q Did you take part in that surveillance after the installation?

A In the same manner that I took part in the one on -- on Downer Avenue.

Q Well, as I understand you, you performed two functions in -- you would be present sometimes while the surveillance was on in order to inspect the operation of the equipment?

A That's correct.

Q Now, did you remove that installation?

A Which one now are you speaking of?

Q The one in the lawyer's office?

A Yes.

Q The microphone was removed?

A Yes.

Q Is there any other equipment of any type installed in that office so far -- by your activity?

A I installed no --.

Q Or in connection with your activity?

A I installed no other devices, no, sir.

Q So far as you know, then, there is no electronic device or other device in that office for the purpose of surveilling or hearing the conversations there?

A At the present time that's correct.

Q All right.

Q When was this removed?

A To the best of my knowledge that was removed sometime during 1963, the exact date of which I'm unable to recall.

Q And did you notify the telephone company?

A Yes, sir.

Q That you were through with that cable and pair?

A (Nodded head up and down.)

Q And did you notify them that you were through with the one on Downer Avenue?

A I don't recall whether I told them I was finished with that one or not, sir.

Q That equipment was not removed by you?

A The one on Downer Avenue?

Q That's right.

A It was not.

Q Now, who did you notify that you had ended the use of the cable and pair at -- at the lawyer's office?

A It was 1963, that would probably have been Mr. Nelson.

Q Did you get the cable and pair in that case from Mr. Stein?

A If Mr. Stein --.

Q Well, excuse me, I think that's unfair because I think Mr. Stein said he left, didn't he, the position in '63. I'll withdraw that.

Do you recall who -- who did give you that line?

A No, I don't, right offhand, who may have given me that line.

Q Now, when you're given a cable and a pair -- is that the right expression in your usage of it?

A That's just about right, yes, sir.

Q I kind of picked up from these telephone men as they testified.

A Uh huh.

Q Could you have run it to any place you chose, would it have been possible for you to run it off into any place that you chose?

A I don't know whether that would have been possible or not, I -- I didn't make any inquiry of the telephone company whether that was -- would be possible or not. I was interested in running it from the location in this instance, West Wisconsin Avenue into the F.B.I. office, that was my only inquiry, could this be possible to run it in.

Q And -- in the one on Downer Avenue, did the -- the cable and lines that were disclosed to you or made available to you, did they project from a phone pole or were they from a cable box in the building?

A The one on Downer Avenue was from a telephone pole.

Q And then -- then that's as much as the telephone company did for you on that installation was tell you about it and make it available for you on the pole?

A Where the location was on the pole.

Q All right.

And from there the F.B.I. arranged for the lines to be run into the building, is that it?

A Yes, sir.

Q And were they run in through the cable box through the terminal box in the building?

A No, they were ran/sic/ into a -- a cable that was located in a specific location within the Federal building.

Q No, the other end.

A The other end?

Q At Downer Avenue.

A At Downer Avenue?

Q Yes.

A I made the connections at Downer Avenue.

Q Now, did the line, then, from the pole run in through a cable -- through a telephone company box in the building?

A In the Downer building?

Q Yes.

A Not that I know of.

Q Well then, did it run directly into the office?

A It ran directly into the office, out to a telephone pole.

Q And not into -- into a telephone box at all?

A Not that I know of.

Q Then, let me ask you, did you use these connections, these devices?

A Yes, I mounted these on the wall.

Q On a wall in the building?

A Inside the building, right.

Q Not in any box or in any telephone box where there are a lot more of these installed?

A Well, there were some in the immediate area, but it was not a closed box.

Q Oh, all right.

Well then, there's -- I'm a little bit confused on the description.

But were other telephone lines on that -- connected to that telephone -- to that board, is that right?

A There were other connecting blocks on the board, I didn't bother to check to see if they were occupied.

Q All right.

Now, how many tapes would your monitoring system in the office handle, that is how many --?

A How many tapes?

Q Yes, how many could you run at once?

A Well, one recorder would run one reel, ten and a half inch reel of tapes.

Q Yes.

Now at the same time would you have more than one going?

A At times more than one were going.

Q And how many recorders did you have for such purposes in this room?

A To the best of my recollection there were five.

Q Now, did you -- do you know whether there was any payment made by the bureau for the use of these lines?

A For the use of the telephone lines?

Q That's right.

A I don't know, sir.

Q Do you know in what name these lines were reserved?

A No, sir.

Q Did you make this arrangement with the telephone company or were you just told about it by someone after you came there?

A Right, I was told about it, I made -- I made no formal arrangement with the telephone company.

Q You were informed by your associates or supervisors that this was in existence, this arrangement was in existence when you came to the bureau in Milwaukee?

A Yes, sir.

Q When did you come to the Milwaukee office?

A In June of 1960.

Q How long had you been an agent then?

Q And who was he?

A Well, there have been quite a number since I first arrived in Milwaukee, what year are you referring to?

Q Well, I am talking about the three installations that you've testified about, the one in the lawyer's office, the one on Prospect, and the one in -- on Downer Avenue.

A Well, to the best of my recollection, the agent in charge during the period of North Prospect was Joseph L. Kissiah. Now I'm relying on memory about these names.

Q I understand.

A That was in 1961 and '62.

In 1963 we had a special agent in charge of the Milwaukee Office of the F. B. I. by the name of Paul H. Stoddard. And again to the best of my recollection during the years, or at least part of the year 1964, and the subsequent year, the special agent in charge of the F. B. I. was named Richard L. Baker, or,

Richard J.

Q And, Mr. O'Connell, it's your intention, I think, to tell, is it not, to tell us that if those were the agents in charge at the time you made those installations, you did it at their respective directions?

A Yes, sir.

Q But you are not certain, you recall their specific instructions?

A No, but I receive, like all special agents in any bureau field division, receive their instructions from their immediate supervisor, and during this period of time, my immediate supervisor was the special agent in charge, though I received my instructions from that individual.

Q Was not your -- this electronic surveillance a matter of secrecy and importance so that it was more or less kept between you and the special agent other than for the agents who took part in the monitoring?

A That's correct.

Q Now did you associate with Mr. Holzman, special agent Holzman in your installations?

A I did.

Q And in the surveillance?

A Correct.

Q And did he inform you or direct you in any manner in the installation of these devices?

A He did not direct me, he may have made suggestions, but he did not direct me.

Q Do you know who originated the suggestion or direction that these respective places, these three installations should be made?

A Who originated the idea?

Q Yes.

A No, sir, I do not know who originated the idea.

Q You didn't discuss the reasons for the installations?

A I did not discuss it, no.

Q Did you make an inquiry or any attempt, make any attempt to determine whether these were security cases?

A I did not.

Q Or threat to life cases?

A I did not.

Q And that was because you were an agent and you just didn't question your superior's orders?

A That's right, it wasn't my position to question my superior.

A I know the name only, I wouldn't recognize the individual.

Q I see.

What was that occasion?

A To the best of my knowledge Mr. Barnes may have been in the Milwaukee Office of the F. B. I. at one time, and I possibly was introduced to him, that name does sound familiar to me.

Q Now, did you -- were you aware of the function of the Organized Crime Division?

A I was aware that an Organized Crime Division existed within the Department Of Justice.
